According to Deputy Stock Inspector Wilbur Ashpole, there are 2900 fat hogs in the Rogue river valley at the present time for fall shipments, but the price is only 5 to 5 1/2 cents per pound on the hoof, and the stock raisers are holding back for a better figure. Feed is high, and this may force some to sell at once. Country killed hogs in Portland were quoted Tuesday at 9 cents. Between the Portland and Chicago prices for stock there is a margin daily of from $1 to $1.20 in price. Deputy Inspector Ashpole also estimates 1900 fall beef cattle, about the same as last year. The hogs show an increase over last year.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN "THE PLUNDERER AT THE PAGE TONIGHT.

"The Plunderer," the mid-week feature at the Page September 15 and 16. Mr. Farnum as Bill Mathews of the Croix d'Or Mine is a strapping lion-hearted young westerner with steel-knit muscles and a punch in each hand. The fight against twenty which Mr. Farnum undertakes single-handed in this photoplay, will never be forgotten by those who have witnessed its realistic fury, which resulted in a lay-off for the star for a week.

According to figures compiled to date, the Jackson County Fair association is $300 on the wrong side of the ledger from the fair this year.

The fight scheduled between Bud Anderson and a Seattle amateur for the Pendleton Roundup has been called off by the promoters. Anderson still has a fight booked for the Frontier Day's celebration at Walla Walla.
