

SOCIETY

The past week has been a busy week for the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Corps of this city. The annual encampment of Southern Oregon G. A. R.'s and W. R. C. has been assembled here. Monday tents were pitched and taken possession of Monday evening. Attorney Mulkey made an address of welcome to the visitors and renewing acquaintance was the order of the evening. Tuesday being Medford Day an afternoon and evening program was rendered by some of our best talent. Attorney Mulkey was the speaker in the afternoon, Attorney H. A. Cassidy speaker of the evening. Wednesday was Ashland Day. To much praise cannot be given to the three speakers of the afternoon and the reader and quartette in the evening. It was immense. Thursday the W. R. C. ladies of this city served a banquet for all the soldiers and corps ladies present. From all the words of thanks and praise we have heard, it was certainly a success.

At 2:30 p. m. they formed in line and marched to the high school building and presented a large flag for the high school building. Grants Pass had charge of the evening program that consisted principally of music. Attorney Mulkey, speaker of the evening. Thursday afternoon all the corps ladies and post members that had birthdays during the months of July, August and September were lined up on the stage and done honor by presenting each one a souvenir card, serving ice cream, cake and punch. Short addresses were made by a number of them. Punch and cake were served to all visitors.

Friday evening Central Point had charge of the evening. Special mention should be made of every exercise rendered, but space will not permit, but the best was saved for the last.

We feel that this has been one of the best gatherings of the kind ever held in Southern Oregon.

The second annual meeting of the First District Federation of Women's clubs will be held in the public library at Medford September 22, 23 and 24.

Representative club women from Ashland, Grants Pass, Rogue River, Jacksonville, Eagle Point, Butte Falls, Phoenix and Talent will be present.

The program shows that the subjects to be discussed are of a practical, rather than a theoretical nature.

A general invitation is extended to everyone interested in this work to attend any or all of the meetings.

Wednesday morning will be given to the registration of delegates and addresses by the presidents of different clubs. Wednesday afternoon reports and recommendations will be heard.

A reception will be given by the Greater Medford club at the Hotel Medford Wednesday evening.

Thursday morning Rev. F. H. Carstens will give an address on Peace.

The Parent-Teachers' association will have charge of the meeting on Thursday afternoon. M. S. Pittman of Monmouth Normal will be one of the speakers.

Thursday evening Mrs. Ed Andrews, chairman of the music committee, and Mrs. Joseph Moss, chairman of the library committee will have charge.

Friday morning an address on Clubs, Their Objects, Needs and Opportunities. Are they living up to them, if not why not? Mrs. E. E. Gore.

The election of officers for the ensuing year will be held Friday afternoon.

At the last meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Allen on South Bartlett. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. C. D. Powers, president; Mrs. Jas. Smylie, vice-president; Miss May Phipps, secretary; Mrs. Wm. P. Meuley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Percy Wood, treasurer; Mrs. Etta Manning, mite box secretary.

Mrs. A. L. Loomis entertained this afternoon at her home on West Teuth for her mother, Mrs. Ellsworth who is visiting here from Palm Beach, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carpenter have returned home from a month's trip through Oregon, Washington and California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Loomis returned Monday from a visit to San Francisco and the Panama Pacific exposition.

A pretty bride of the week was Miss Gertrude Nelson whose marriage to Roy Stanley, a prominent stockman of Medford, was solemnized on Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Manley, 663 Williams avenue. The Rev. C. L. Hamilton officiated. The bride was beautiful in her robe of white crepe de chine, with filmy veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower of white roses and sweet peas. Miss Salome Emison sang "O, Promise Me." Miss Wilma Rinehart played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Sharing honors with the bride were the little attendants, Bert Tonsey, aged 7, and Nan Cray, aged 6, who scattered rose petals in the pathway of the bride. The rooms were decorated artistically with dogwood and greenery from the hillside. The ceremony was performed beneath a bower of white blossoms.

A wedding supper was served after the ceremony. Mrs. R. M. Burley cut the loaves and Mrs. Albert Jackson presided at the punchbowl. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Frances Tonsey, Miss Georgia Donahue and Miss June Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley left on a motor trip. They will reside in Medford. Among those present were Mrs. F. T. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Manley, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Turner, Mrs. Juliet Gustafson, Mrs. Anna Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gortler, Sam Gortler, Carl Gortler, Mrs. C. A. Young, Sarah E. Tonsey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank New, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. William Alston, Mrs. Q. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cray, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jackson, Helen M. Root, Lots F. New, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Croddy, Mary G. Packwood, Zilpha Harper, T. C. Bozarth, Georgia Donahue, June Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McFarling, Annie B. Root, Salome Emison, Bert Tonsey, Nan Cray, Wilma Rinehart, Frances Tonsey, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Conn, Manley J. Hungerford, Emily M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burley, Maud Burley and Ned H. Menley.—Portland Oregonian.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid will hold their monthly Home Coming in the church next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. A large attendance is desired as the annual election of officers is to take place and plans for the autumn rummage sale must be made besides the usual business. This will be the final meeting of the conference year and the total reports of the various circles and officers will be interesting.

The Priscilla club will have charge of the social hour.

The East Side Circle of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church, held their mid-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. C. Edmeades on West Main street Wednesday afternoon. After the business of the circle was transacted and work for the coming year was discussed and planned. A short program was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

On the evening of Monday, September 20th, a general "Good Fellowship" social will be held in the M. E. church. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to be present. The Ladies' Aid will have charge of the entertainment and the Epworth League of the program. You cannot help but enjoy yourself if you come.

Miss Emma Borkhardt entertained at her home on South Grape street Tuesday evening with a dinner party. The out of town guest was Mr. Walt Koehler of Bingham, Utah. Mr. Koehler had attended the Bankers convention at Seattle and was on his way to the San Francisco fair before returning to his home in Utah.

Mr. Armond Taylor of this city, who has been working for the Pelican Bay Lumber company of Klamath Falls during the summer, passed through Medford Wednesday en route to Corvallis where he will enter on his senior year at the Oregon Agricultural College.

Mrs. A. S. Ruhl of Rockford, Ill., who has been the guest of her son, Robert W. Ruhl, and family, left Sunday for San Francisco where she will visit the exposition before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chadwick and Miss Mary Wightman who have been making their home at the Medford Hotel this summer left Tuesday for their home in Chicago.

Miss Barbara Crocker, who has been the guest of Mrs. Frank Owen for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for her home in Portland.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church met Friday afternoon at the home Mrs. C. E. Gobie, with a good number in attendance. An interesting program on the Deaconess Work and Queen Esther Circles had been prepared by Mrs. R. J. Lockwood. Musical numbers were contributed by Mrs. Clarence Meeker and Mrs. Gobie. Beginning with the next meeting there will be a contest, the society being divided in two sections with Mrs. Smylie and Mrs. McNary as leaders. The questions asked will all pertain to missionary work. The society is looking forward with much interest to the visit of the national president Mrs. Wilbur P. Thirkield, some time the first of October when all the auxiliaries of the Klamath district will convene in Medford.

The Jackson County Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold their 27th annual convention in the Baptist church, September 22.

The morning session will be a business one. In the afternoon addresses will be given by Rev. Carstens on the Social Center problem.

Dr. Hill will speak on Charity Work from a personal experience. Judge Kelly on Law Enforcement and Juvenile work. The judge has a message for every father and mother in Medford and it will be worth your while to hear him. He speaks from a parent's responsibility as well as an officer's.

Come and hear these important subjects discussed. Unless you are told how can you know. And if you don't come how can you hear. Good music.

The College Women's club meeting this afternoon at the library with Misses Robinson and Paxson hostesses and Mrs. Arnsperger social chairman. After a business meeting, the three members of the program, under the general head of Art of Exposition, will be considered. Mrs. Phipps, dealing with architecture; Mrs. Neff, sculpture, and Mrs. Lutteroff, painting.

Refreshments and a pleasantly informed social reunion after summer vacation will conclude the session.

The Parent-Teachers circle of the Lincoln school will meet at the school building Friday afternoon at 3:45. A short program has been prepared and plans will be made for the coming year.

Mr. Hillis, school superintendent will be present and will be glad to meet all the patrons of the school. As this is the first meeting of the year a large attendance is desired.

A very enjoyable evening was spent Friday, September 17, by the young people of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, at the First Baptist church. After a business meeting, and general plans being made for the winter's work of the society, games were played until late in the evening. The Pot-luck supper was reported a success by all who attended.

The Washington Parent-Teachers' circle will meet at the school building Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

A full attendance is desired as there are some matters that must be attended to before the Federation meets.

All mothers and others interest in the schools are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hopper of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. L. Ewing have just returned from a trip to Crater Lake and Klamath Falls. They were accompanied by Mrs. A. T. Anderson of Portland, who is the house guest of Mrs. Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wisman who have been visiting in this city for a month will leave for their home in Virginia Sunday and will be accompanied as far as Seattle by Mr. and Mrs. Newton W. Borden.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson entertained the Nullo Bridge club at her home on Rose avenue Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. L. Walthers and Mrs. M. Purdin were guests.

Mrs. Chas. M. English and daughter, Mrs. Ralph G. Bardwell and Miss Betty Bardwell, leave this evening for a six weeks visit to the east, including Minneapolis and other points.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Glenn B. Conwell at her home on West Main street Monday evening by her husband, who invited a number of friends to assist in celebrating her birthday. The evening was spent with games and music, closing with dainty refreshments of cake and sherbet. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Trefren, of Ashland, Mrs. Emma Wilson of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzman, the Misses Virginia Carder, Louise Daddysman, Bernice Balcom, Helen Lydiard, Katherine Holloway, M. D. Wallace, Nolo and Robert Lindley, Ralph Balcom, Mark Maxwell, Frank and Melvin Wallace and Leon Lawton.

A dainty lawn party at St. Mary's Academy Tuesday evening opened the series of entertainments planned by resident students for the school year. The lawn tastefully decorated and lighted with Japanese lanterns and electric lights made a pretty background for the bright group of children and young girls who constitute the resident portion of St. Mary's students. On this occasion the teacher and pupils of the domestic science department were entertainers and the excellence of the viands as well as the grace and efficiency of those who served demonstrated most pleasantly the successful character of the work of this department.

Mrs. W. F. Shields entertained the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home on South Holly street Tuesday afternoon. This was the regular meeting of the society and the officers had charge of the affair.

Reading Pros and Cons of Missionary society.

This course consists of Sight Reading, Ear Training, Musical History, first and second year Harmony and Counterpoint. It is ESSENTIAL to those who expect to pursue their instrumental work, and at the same time, gives the INDIVIDUAL a keener understanding and APPRECIATION of TRUE musical COMPOSITION, and the interpretation of the great masters.

The best modern methods of the Eastern colleges and universities are used in our work. Public recitals in Expression, Piano and presentation of modern plays will be given by the students throughout the year as often as advisable. Classes or private lessons may be arranged at any time, for these courses or any part of the courses.

Office Hours: 9-12 a. m.; 1-6 p. m. Phone 15-L.

Cook With Electricity

- WOULD YOU JUST AS SOON HAVE a fire that is clean and flameless—
- A fire that carries its own fuel—
- Leaves no ashes or soot, and gives off no smoke or gas—
- A fire that is always uniform without watching—
- That cooks evenly and thoroughly—
- That roasts, where others bake—or broils, where others lost the juice.
- A fire that makes cooking automatically perfect—
- Your kitchen in perfect order, rid of kindling wood, coal hods, shovels, dirt and gas—
- Then cook with electricity.
