AVOID DELAY OF THE LEGAL ACTION

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 18.—The last action of the land grant conference before final adjournment at 10:30 last night was to pass a motion by L. E. Bean of Eugene that a committee be named to confer with representatives of the Southern Pacific to evolve a plan to open the Oregon-California land grants to settlement without further litigation. This was preceded by the adoption of a resolution to memorialize congress opposing any further increase of forest reserves in Oregon and urging immediate sale of the railroad grant lands according to the terms of the "settlers clause" in the original grant.

Other provisions of the resolution were, "that congress should enact laws defining and settling who shall be considered an actual settler and what shall be considered an actual settlement, and requiring the grantees under the act to perform the terms and conditions of the act, and sell and dispose of the lands according to the true intent and purpose of said acts to such actual settlers."

Should the legislation be granted it would enforce the original terms of the land grant. This policy was favored by Delegates Hewitt of Linn county, Dimmick of Clackamas, Cardwell of Douglas and McNavy of Marion, four of five members composing a sub-committee of the committee on resolutions, while R. G. Calvert of Multnomah, standing in favor of asking a committee of congress to visit the lands and confer with a committee of the conference and representatives of the railroad company.

This stand was taken by delegates I. N. Day of Multnomah, L. E. Bean of Lane and others and was urged by F. P. Dunne attorney who represented the Southern Pacific. These delegates declared the resolution invited litigation and did not preclude speculation.

It was a struggle between these two elements into which the convention resolved itself before adjournment. The sub-committee reported to the committee on resolutions which after a sensational debate reported the resolution to the conference where it was passed.

The committee to confer with representatives of the railroad, as provided in the motion will be Governor Withycombe, Secretary of State Olcott, State Treasurer Kay, W. I. Vawter, chairman of the land grant conference and three members of the conference chosen by the chairman. They will be Delegates Bean of Lane county, Garland of Linn county, and Spence of Clackamas county.

YOUTH OF 20 YEARS BECOMES THE "RED STREAK" OF TENNIS

WILLIAM JOHNSTON

William Johnston, the "red streak" from Frisco, the new national tennis champion.

McLaughlin, the man who beat both Brookes and Wilding in the same season and was regarded about the greatest game ever produced, was literally driven off his feet by the younger Johnston.

McLaughlin started like a whirlwind, but Johnston met his attack and then drove him so hard McLaughlin dropped into a chair for rest between games.

Karl Behr of New York showed several weeks ago that McLaughlin could be beaten by a man who would drive him to the back of the court, make him use an underhand stroke and rob him of his play at the net. Johnston did just that. He made the game the kind of game he wanted played. He overrode McLaughlin at every turn.

McLaughlin and Johnston are pals. Both came from San Francisco, the home of tennis wonders. When Johnston crashed the last ball over the net the drive that gave him the championship, he leaped the net and threw his arms around McLaughlin's neck. Then both were carried from the court on the shoulders of friends.

the United States ever had. He won the title in 1881 and held it for seven years. There's William Larned. He battled for ten years before he was able to win the title. He landed it in 1901 and repeated in 1902. Then he was beaten and did not "come back" until 1907.

Now, along comes this Red Streak, a chap who has been in the game only a short time. He mows down youngsters and veterans alike at the national tournament and finally drives McLaughlin, "The Comet," to cover. Johnston, by his victory, has shown tennis is a test of physical strength and not just as pastime in which the scientific man has the edge.

COBB STILL LEADS AMERICAN LEAGUE BATTING AVERAGE

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Tyrus Cobb has recovered his batting eye with an average of .377 still leads the American league. Cobb also leads in runs scored with 133 hits and hits made with 139.

Detroit has another top liner in Sam Crawford, who with 253 bases leads his league. He has made 21 doubles, 19 triples and four homers. Burns of Detroit, who has been leading in home runs has been tied by Oldring of Philadelphia. Each has five. Detroit leads in club batting, with .268. Boston has the four leading pitchers, Foster, 18 won, 6 lost; Ruth, 16 and 6; Shore 17 and 6, and Leonard, 13 and 6.

St. Louis leads the club batting with .259.

Sympathy

A man traveling on horseback not long ago came upon an Irishman who was fencing in a most barren and desolate piece of land. "What are you fencing in that lot for, Pat?" said he. "A herd of cows would starve to death on that land." "And shure, your honor, wasn't I fencing it to keep the poor bastards out of it!"—American Boy.

STEFANSSON'S LAND IS FARTHEST NORTH YET DISCOVERED

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Satisfied by Viljalmur Stefansson's announcement that he is alive and well on Banks land in the Arctic, explorers and geographers directed attention today to the new land he reports he has discovered in the far north.

In Stefansson's own report the newly discovered land is located near 78 degrees north latitude and 117 degrees west longitude. He actually saw about 100 miles of coast line running in an easterly direction and apparently penetrating to a distance of 20 miles inland where from a hill top explorer saw mountains at a distance of 50 miles.

Cyrus C. Adams, president of the Association of American Geographers, declared in a statement today that Stefansson's new land lies about 100 miles to the north of Prince Patrick island and that the most southerly part of the land which the explorer visited is considerably to the east of the most easterly extension of Prince Patrick island. The lands nearest to it, Mr. Adams said, are the Polynia islands.

Mr. Adams said the most northern part of the new land as far as Stefansson saw it appeared to be farther north than any other land in the great Parry archipelago, to the north of the American continent. Mr. Adams expressed the opinion that the land discovered by Stefansson rises from the continental shelf on the shallow waters that surround the Parry archipelago and that its discovery shows that this part of the Arctic ocean is comparatively shallow.

If you want to take the bite out o' tobacco, and leave the good in, you've got to do it slow—the VELVET way.

There is a big temptation to rush tobacco through by an "express speed" artificial process. Ageing VELVET two years ties up many thousands of dollars. But it pays both the smoker and manufacturer in the end. 10c tins and 5c metal lined bags—both great tobacco values.
