

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Commercial club delinquents are so freely availing themselves of the privileges of the billiard table and card annex that the trustees are adopting drastic measures to end the imposition.

Chauncey Casebeer has left for Los Angeles to resume his dental studies there. He took passage on a supercargo with Andy McCallen, in the latter's auto, and the trip as far as Berkeley will be made by the way of Klamath and Lake counties, with Reno, Nev., as an objective en route.

Word has reached relatives here of the recent death, at Gardena, Cal., a suburb of Los Angeles, of W. B. Colton, a former well known resident here, prominently identified with the earlier development of Ashland.

Louis Werth has been elected treasurer of the Presbyterian society with W. W. Caldwell as assistant.

Dr. W. E. Blake, Lieutenant of the First company, the local contingent of the Coast Artillery Reserve, was called from the Clackamas range rifle contest by the death of his father, David A. Blake, who resided in the vicinity of Corvallis, where he was well known as one of the earlier settlers of Benton county.

Mrs. Maud McCallen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders, was married in Medford the last of the week to Isaac R. Fridsjar of that city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Shields, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The home of the couple will be in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler of Eugene, accompanied by Mrs. Fairbanks of Connecticut, arrived Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Casey. Mr. Wheeler is an attorney of Eugene and his wife is Mrs. Casey's cousin. The party is on the way to the exposition.

Sulphur water has been installed in town through the mineral water conduits. The flow comes by gravity from the Berkeley springs, three and one-half miles from the tunnel terminal where the water will gush forth amid grotto-like surroundings. The source is 81 feet higher than at the point of delivery.

Mrs. Henry Marlowe has returned from a visit with her uncle, S. V. McFarren of Gold Hill.

District Superintendent Van Fossen accompanied by his wife, leaves on Monday to attend the M. E. conference at Roseburg.

Shipments of settle from this station early this week will include nine cars by Beaborn Mitchell and over twenty cars by J. H. Carlton, a Central Point buyer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Johnson of Kansas City, on their way to join relatives at Vancouver, B. C., walking the distance for the most part, shared the accommodations furnished at the Fourth street comfort station last Friday night.

Mrs. S. J. Evans, accompanied by her son George and daughter Ellen, have been recent visitors at the exposition. While in San Francisco they were entertained together with Mrs. J. F. Meikle and daughter Teresa of Berkeley aboard the cruiser New Orleans, on which James D. Moore, Mrs. Evans' son, is at present detailed as naval lieutenant. The officers of the warship tendered an elaborate reception to the visitors. The New Orleans has lately been ordered to Mexican waters in the vicinity of Guzman.

Mrs. Sarah Brown Hale, widow, residing with relatives on Mountain avenue, died Friday, aged 73 years. She was a native of Iowa in the vicinity of Hopkinton. Funeral was held on Saturday from Dodge's mortuary chapel. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

Elk and Moose doings throughout the county threaten to clash, inasmuch as the latter's open meeting here is fixed for the same date as the former's elaborate function on the occasion of the dedication of their new temple at Medford.

The recent passing through here of Lars Anderson, well known publicist and diplomat and at one time ambassador to Japan, might pass unnoticed but for the fact that he has a namesake in Ashland in the person of Lars Ellason, a native of Pennsylvania. The name Lars was bestowed upon young Ellason at a time when Mr. Anderson was one of the prominent men of the Keystone state and a resident of Pittsburgh.

Miss Voda Brower, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Brower, has gone to Oakland, in Douglas county, where she has accepted a position in the public schools of that town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Casey, who attended the old soldiers' reunion at Medford, speak in glowing terms of the arrangements made and comforts afforded there. Especially did the proceedings last Wednesday, Ashland Day, interest local people particularly.

John Wilkes Detwiler, of Des Moines, Iowa, brother-in-law of Mrs. J. R. Casey, and a writer of merit whose compositions reaches beyond the limits of his city and state, has sent to relatives here fragments of prose and poetry extolling the praises of Oregon in general and Ashland in particular. These were prompted by a visit to this locality earlier in the season.

Fred B. Tracy of the Western Union Office accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Finley, has returned from a fortnight's outing up among northern pleasure centers. Although the trip was a fine one, absence made the heart grow fonder for the home surroundings.

The Chautauqua, Sunshine, Civic Improvement, and the two parent-teacher organizations are among the federated clubs which will be represented from Ashland at the district meeting at Medford, Sept. 22-24. Over 30 delegates will attend from here, representing a federated membership of 500 or more.

Klamath county is to have three distinct fairs, the first at Merrill, beginning Sept. 21; second at Klamath Falls beginning the 25th, and the third at Bonanza, beginning Oct. 1.

Miss Irma Rice of Portland, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, and other relatives here.

With the threatened enforcement of dormant blue laws, the query has arisen as to whether gum chewing will be further tolerated in the lobby of the local postoffice.

Director D. M. Lowe is a busy man these days as the duly appointed official in behalf of Jackson county and the various sub-districts, in arranging a fine display of agricultural, horticultural and miscellaneous exhibits for the approaching state fair at Salem.

Miss Frances McWilliams left last Friday to resume her school work at Calexico, Cal.

Guy Jacobs, now a rancher in the vicinity of Eugene, is visiting relatives hereabouts during the Indian summer vacation.

Police Sergeant Pat Mego, of Medford, was in town Friday, looking wise and squinting sideways, but vouchsafed no information concerning his special mission in these parts. The big turntable in local railroad yards is being overhauled and strengthened by reinforced work at the hands of a crew of experts from San Francisco under the supervision of Foreman Lodge.

At the recent gathering of old soldiers and sailors at Medford, W. P. Powell was elected lieutenant colonel, and James Muttingly, quartermaster, both of this city. The reunion event of 1914 will be held in Ashland, Capt. Thomas of this city was chosen adjutant.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Glick have returned from a month's visit with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barr, residing at Watkins.

L. J. Orres has been commissioned by the Southern Pacific as that company's official tailor in this particular locality. The scope of his work will embrace all styles of prescribed suits as worn by division superintendents down to section bosses, the nobby semi-military effects assumed by conductors and brakemen being made a specialty.

G. A. Mills of Ann Arbor, Mich., has been a recent visitor here with the E. C. Gard family, old acquaintances.

J. G. Wiley, of Dunsmuir, S. P. superintendent of buildings and bridges, was here Saturday.

Marion L. Sloan, aged 76, and a native of Kentucky, died last Thursday. He leaves a wife and children. Funeral was held on Friday at the family residence on Helman street. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

Rumors are that as a result of the recent electric light agitation, the Oregon-California Power Co. will proceed to slash rates to such an extent that the municipal plant will find itself unable to meet the competition. It is said that this action was foreshadowed at the late hearing before the board of public service commissioners at Salem.

F. G. Williams is on the streets again after recent severe illness.
