

ASHLAND RENEWS LYCEUM FEATURES

ASHLAND, Sept. 27.—Walter Lowe of Hartford, Conn., representing the Redpath Lyceum Bureau of Chicago, was in the city last Friday making arrangements for the appearance of a number of musical and literary attractions in the Ashland course the forthcoming fall and winter.

The course this year will be given under private auspices, the attractions being staged at the Lyric theatre with E. R. Lawrence as manager. No season tickets will be sold, the individual admission to each entertainment being uniformly 50 cents.

The recent visit of Mr. Lowe to this territory as the representative of the Redpaths is the first since nearly five years ago, he having been assigned to other sections both national and international. On a tour of Mexico in the lyceum's interests he was once arrested as a spy and has met with other thrilling experiences.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Dr. W. U. Taylor and wife of Moores, Clint county, New York, are visiting relatives in the family of J. E. Barrett, residing on Factory street, who are also from the Empire state. The doctor is a native of his town, county and state, and is a gentleman unusually well informed in general matters in addition to the practice of medicine.

The Keene dancing studio is located in Memorial block, instead of the Masonic building as incorrectly stated. The first foot ball game of the season occurs on Saturday, October 2, between the high school and alumni of that institution. "Play ball" at 3 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Robison have gone to Washington county, in the vicinity of Hillsboro, to locate on a ranch, to try the benefits of a change in occupation on account of the husband's health. For nearly ten years past Mr. Robison has been a central figure at one of the depot fruit stands.

Mrs. Fred S. Engle has gone to San Francisco to visit the exposition. She will join other members of the family who are now at Petaluma. The condition of George Engle, residing in the latter city, is reported improved after serious illness.

Floyd Dickey and Gay Spencer started Saturday morning for San Francisco and other California points, intending to be gone a fortnight or so. The trip is being made in "Cnookums," a diminutive Hippomobile, formerly the property of Doc Seeley of Medford. The car has been stripped to racing condition, and the boys declared the journey will last as long as the machine holds out.

Lee Van Buskirk of North Yakima, Wash., is visiting his brother Charles of the roundhouse force.

Alphonso L. Stacy, residing on B street, died on Sunday morning at an advanced age. He had been an invalid for some time past, and in a wheeled chair was a familiar vendor of popcorn at the depot. He was a native of Massachusetts and a civil war veteran. Funeral services will be held at Stock's mortuary chapel on Tuesday afternoon. A wife and several children survive him.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my washing I would have to lie down. I got going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grays', and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong." — Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work. In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
