Salem Statesman: It may be there is nothing in a name, but it would be difficult to make this man believe it. James J. Pappadocoro-koummontourgeoutopoulos, of Chicago, Ill., would like to have a confectionery and restaurant concession on the Oregon state fair grounds were it not for the fact that a charge of $3 per front foot is made for ground space, and it would require a considerable amount of territory upon which to display his name alone. Then, too, the sign writers, it is understood, have a fixed charge upon the letter basis for painting signs, and Mr. Pappadocoro might go bankrupt before he got his sign painted. At any rate, it is understood that he is "strictly neutral."

Paper hanger and painter, tinting, etc. Phone 544-M to R. Sanders, 123 Myron B. Herriek, former ambassador to France, and prominent in national and Ohio politics for years, and party will pass through Medford Thursday morning on the Shasta Limited bound for San Francisco. Herriek has been touring the northwest and in several speeches has favored this country extending more relief, coin and sympathy to a sister republic and the land that when our Revolutionary forefathers were hard pressed by the British, grabbed the lion by the tail, and saved the colonies.

Boosey Sisters hominy at Public Market Saturdays only. 164

The regular weekly concert of the Medford band will be given in the city park Thursday evening, on account of the visit of Governor Wills of Ohio. Before the concert the band will play at the Medford Hotel in honor of the distinguished visitor.

The smartest hats and the lowest prices in Medford at Miss Lounsbury's, M. M. Dept. Store. 163.

Agitation for an immediate vote on the Medynski rebounding issue which was received with open arms at first, is dying a natural death, as far as street discussion is concerned. At first it was in high favor, but there has been a turn in the tide of sentiment in favor of the "wait and wait and be sure" policy favored. The only active argumentative support now heard is from its father and god-father.

The scene of the story is laid in Russia. Miss Nansen plays Katasha, a young servant girl, whose betrayal by the prince, played by Kelly, leads to her degradation. While she is leading a "life of joy" she is accused of murder and sentenced to Siberia for life. The prince is on the jury. His better feelings are stirred. He makes the journey to Siberia with her and the picture ends with the spiritual resurrection of Katasha at the expense of her earthly body. Jones plays the faithful servant of the prince.

WIFE TO DECIDE PACKY'S FUTURE. WILL HE STICK TO HIS DESK OR ENTER THE FIGHT RING

Packey McFarland is back at his desk in Joliet, Ill., running his late father-in-law's brewery and it's up to Mrs. Packey to decide if the family bankroll shall be increased further by the big money Packey can pick off in the prize ring any time he goes after it.

Packey quit the game almost two years ago. It was his wife, then his fiancée, that brought about his retirement at that time.

That of the $250,000 in ring earnings he has salted away.

But quitting the ring is a mighty hard task, especially when there's no man anywhere near your weight who

ROCKERFELLER TO KEEP CONTROL OF COLORADO FUEL

DENVER, Sept. 29.—John D. Rockefeller Jr. today said the Rockefeller interests had no intention of giving up control of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company. He denied any knowledge of a prospective merger with the Hill or any other interests, and expressed the belief that the recent spectacular rise in the company's stock was due merely to war speculation.

Mr. Rockefeller's statement was drawn out by the latest flurry in Colorado Fuel common, which yesterday touched 63 3/4. "You see that I am going right ahead with my plans for industrial betterment, on a permanent basis," he said. "Of course, it is perfectly well known that the stock owned by father and myself is only about forty per cent of the whole, and if any one gets hold of a majority he can control the company. Our bond holdings, however, are much more valuable than our stock holdings, and we would be under the necessity of keeping some stock interest, to protect ourselves as bondholders."

Mr. Rockefeller said he thought it unlikely that he would stay in Colorado long enough to attend the annual meeting of the company on October 15. The company's stock books were closed September 27 preparatory to the meeting.

ALLIES LANDING TROOPS IN GREECE

ATHENS, Sept. 29.—I believe we are on the eve of the most important operation of the war, namely the landing of troops in Macedonia to begin the march not so much on Constantinople as to Berlin," said an officer attached to the general staff of the British army on the Gallipoli peninsula who has come to Athens from the Dardanelles front.

"The two offensive forces are gradually closing in. The Mesopotamia expedition is approaching nearer to Baghdad and from the Suvla bay-Gaba Tepe line an attack on Constantinople may begin at any moment."

The officer who gave expression to these ideas is Compton Mackenzie, who is attached to the intelligence department of the general staff at the Dardanelles. He reached Athens yesterday from the front.

Captain Mackenzie said: "It is my opinion that the co-operation of Greece with the allies will begin the last chapter of the war. One more man in the iron ring around Austria and Germany is being closed. The final victory will be fought out on the plains of Hungary. The way to Berlin lies through Budapest and Breslau."

BLAME RAILROAD FOR CAR'S EXPLOSION

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 29.—Russell Brown, city attorney, announced today that charges of negligence against the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway would be presented before the interstate commerce commission through the office of state corporation commissioner. City officials claim that the tank car of gasoline which exploded and killed forty seven persons and wrecked more than a million dollars worth of property was leaking and that the railroad failed to conform to interstate requirements for its safe handling.

can beat you and the promoters are willing to pay you your price any time you want to fight.

That's the way things stacked up for Packey so he induced his wife to let him fight one more battle.

He named $17,500 as the price that would induce him to go ten rounds in a no-decision bout. Mike Gibbons was his opponent. They were so clever neither could damage the other.

That fight sent the thrill of the ring again coursing through his veins and now he's loath to quit the game again.

But if Mrs. Packey says the $268,700 he's made in the ring (his last fight netted him $18,700 as he sold his picture rights for $1200) is enough boxing fans will see no more of him.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Attention, Voters! There have been prepared initiative petitions, demanding that the City Council of the City of Medford submit to the people for their approval or rejection, Mr. Medynski's re-bonding and refunding plan, at a special election to be held in the City of Medford.

Said petitions will be available for signing and will be circulated on and after Monday, Sept. 27th, until the required number of signatures are obtained.
