

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Bernard L. Delsman and Miss Anna Elizabeth Bailey were married at the Catholic church Tuesday morning by Rev. Father Dolshin.

The Misses Edith Shepherd and Tilla Gunderson of Elgin, Ill., have recently been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day incident to a tour of the Pacific coast.

Ashland boasts of at least three poets whose reputation along these lines extends beyond home bounds.

Seymour Hicks of Gravity, Taylor county, Iowa, has been visiting his cousin, J. W. Hicks, local G. A. R. commander.

Miss Mary Niederhanser of Kenton, O., arrived Tuesday for a brief visit with the family of L. Miksch.

Old Fellows in all their various degree affiliations will hold a composite social on Thursday evening of this week.

The Presbyterian church will hold a service of song next Sunday evening. With the opening of the fall schools the choir has been materially as well as musically reinforced.

Charles W. Nims has returned from the dual Knights Templar conclave at Portland, advanced in official honors from grand sword bearer to the commandery designation of grand standard-bearer.

At the recent gathering of the National Dahlia association in Portland, Samuel Peniston of this city captured several premiums in the semi-professional class in the dahlia display of garnet and shades and other multi-colored floral effects.

Governor Willis of Ohio and party are due to pass through here on Friday, October 1. Resident Buckeyes, of whom there are a great many in these parts, as is attested by that flourishing organization, the Ohio society, are planning to make the governor's visit a matter of mutual pleasure to both visitor and themselves.

W. E. Newcombe of this city, manager of the Western Union offices, was elected secretary of the newly organized State Elks' Remmon association at the recent gathering of the order in Medford.

A trail club will afford stimulus to physical training activities in the public schools. The departments for the girls are under hiking, tennis, basketball and swimming classifications. Efficiency will merit the bestowal of honor pins on a scale of credits, 600 being the maximum.

A pie social will be the attraction at the parish house on Wednesday evening, given by the women's guild of Trinity Episcopal church.

Marion Barham of Ferryville, Wis., uncle of E. F. Smith, is here for a visit with relatives, accompanied by his wife and daughter.

The Southern Pacific, in the interests of economy, has introduced a new feature in the way of a "R. R. B." envelope, which can be used seven distinct times before finding its way into the wastebasket.

Freckles and His Friends

Mrs. Grace Beach Laidlaw, from Crockett, Cal., has been a recent visitor here with many old-time friends.

A. J. Biegel, local hardware dealer, has made an assignment for benefit of creditors, both here and at Portland. The action was voluntary.

Klamath district Methodist church conference appointments include Rev. H. J. Van Fossen as district superintendent; Rev. W. J. Douglass, local pastor, and Rev. M. C. Reed, who will continue to supply Talent.

Blaine Klom of Medford was in town recently with his "outdoor advertising" outfit, consisting of a Ford as first section, the second section being a go-cart trailer hauling paints, pots and other useful accessories.

Among recent appointees of the California Methodist conference of particular local interest are E. C. Arnold, Dorris; H. O. Edson, Hornbrook and Montague; C. E. Pettis, Crescent City; F. W. Hunting, Etna Mills; Arnold Nelson, Dunsuir.

A "Pacific Highway Log" folder has just been issued, giving distances over and much information concerning that route between Vancouver, B. C., and San Francisco.

The elevation of Ashland is given as 1873 feet, its distance from Seattle 526 miles, to San Francisco 415, and to Portland 327. Sutherland parties are the originators of this schedule, which gives many facts and figures relative to the trip from Puget Sound to the Golden Gate.

APPLEGATE

A school fair was held at Ruth by the Boys' and Girls' Industrial club at their schoolhouse Saturday afternoon. Quite a number from Applegate were there and the prizes that were brought home were as follows:
