Many of the birds killed yesterday will later appear on milady's hat, as the plumage is much in demand. Regulation of trains whistling in the city limits will be considered at the next regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night. Owing to heavy traffic to the fair, it has been necessary in compliance with the rules of the S. P. to send out a flagman, who walks down the track a block, and stands with a red flag in his hand to halt any approaching train from the rear. When it is time to depart, the engineer blows the whistle to call him in. As the blasts are all healthy shrieks they frighten horses by day, and wake people up at night. The council thinks a more quiet method should be employed to let the brakeman-flagman know it is time to get aboard.

PRESIDENT LED CABINET IN PRAYER IN WAR CRISIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—How President Wilson led his cabinet in prayer at a recent meeting was told here yesterday by Bishop William F. Anderson of Cincinnati, at a session of the Indiana Methodist Episcopal conference. A United States senator told the bishop of the incident, he said. The senator had heard it from one of the cabinet members who prayed with the president.

"When the president arrived at the cabinet meeting," said the bishop, "his face wore a solemn look. It was evident that the serious affairs of the nation were on his mind. He said to the members, 'I don't know whether you men believe in prayer or not. I do. Let us pray and ask the help of God.'"

"And right there the president fell upon his knees and the rest of the members of the cabinet did the same thing and the president offered a prayer to God. While the war rages in Europe we in this country should thank God that in this crisis of the world we have a chief executive who is a servant of God and who stands with his hand in the hand of God. Every minister in the land should, every time he offers a prayer, take Woodrow Wilson by the hand and lead him into the presence of God, and ask that he be given strength to continue to be the great apostle of peace among men."

Later a telegram expressing the confidence of the delegates in him was sent to the president.

TOTAL DEAD IN GULF HURRICANE TO REACH 350

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—It was considered certain early today that the total death list already reaches 245. There are 117 known missing. More than 150 schooners were observed ashore between Gulfport and New Orleans, many total wrecks. Others were far inland.

Property damage throughout the storm swept territory has been enormous. In the delta section many of the rich plantations have been wiped out, crops razed, orange trees destroyed, buildings demolished and washed out to sea, and the country for miles under water four to fifteen feet deep. The levees in many places have been destroyed.

While no official estimate has been obtainable of the storm damage, persons familiar with the territory believe that it will approximate $12,000,000.
