The proposal stated that "business is paralyzed" as a result of the strike.

"The Western Federation of Miners is attempting to reach out and control all of Arizona as it now controls the Clifton-Morenci district," asserted Norman M. Carmichael, general manager of the Arizona Copper company.

HEIRS MUST PAY ATTORNEY FEES OF MAN HANGED

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 5.—The Oregon supreme court today upheld the validity of a mortgage and deed given to A. W. Norblad and C. W. Mullins of Astoria, by Oswald C. Hansel for services by them in defending him for murder.

Hansel was executed several years ago for killing Judge Frank Taylor of the state circuit court, who had decided against him in a divorce suit. Hansel's heirs alleged that undue influence was exercised by the attorneys in obtaining the instruments and that the fee demanded by them was excessive. The court held against both of these contentions.

The defendants valued the property conveyed to them at $50,000.
