

SWEDEN BOYCOTTS COMMERCE WITH ENTENTE ALLIES

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 26. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Admiral Lindman, former Swedish premier and present leader of the conservative party, denied in an interview with a correspondent of the Associated Press today that Sweden was prepared to make concessions in her trade dispute with England. It has been rumored in Stockholm that upon the return of the English commissioners and the resumption of the conference, Sweden would be forced by her serious shortage of coal to waive the principle of free commerce which she has insisted upon, and to comply with England's request that she no longer delay the transit of supplies to Russia.

"It is unfortunate," said Admiral Lindman, "that no league of neutral powers was formed at the beginning of the war to safeguard the rights and privileges of the neutral nations, but since that was not done, it is now the duty of Sweden to defend these rights. One of these rights is her commerce with another nation like the United States. In her dispute with England, Sweden is upholding this sovereign right and she will continue to uphold it.

"England's action is equivalent to forcing us into a partnership with her, for we regard it one of the requirements of neutrality to treat both sides impartially in regard to the transit of materials. Now that England has made it impossible for us to send goods to Germany, our only way of correcting this is to refuse to permit transit of supplies to Russia and England."

ASHLAND DOUBLES LYCEUM SCHEDULE

ASHLAND, Oct. 7.—Acting on the assumption that two are better than one, a second lyceum course is being planned here. The attractions are those furnished by the Ellison-White bureau, which will be "staged" at the Methodist church under the auspices of the local ministerial union. The respective talent includes Ralph Parlette, Oct. 21; The Oxfords, a musical organization, Nov. 23; The Apollo club, Dec. 4; Judge Alden, lecturer, Jan. 28; Ye Old Town Quartet, Feb. 2; Sidney Landon, impersonator, March 7. Season tickets will be $1.50; single admission 50c. High school students can secure the season ticket for an even dollar. The ministerial union is composed of the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Congregational, Nazarene, Christian, and Episcopal churches, and the pastors of those denominations are canvassing the city for pledges in the way of course tickets, the amount necessary to be raised approximating $800.

TALENT TALK

Mr. Prader and L. J. Davis of Wagner creek started for the hatchery on Rogue river Monday, where they expect to spend a couple of days. Dr. W. R. Bagley and family expect to leave for their old home in Duluth, Minn., in a few days, where the doctor will follow his old profession. Dr. Bagley has leased his ranch to J. B. Robinson for a period of four years, at the end of which time he intends returning. J. M. Stephens of Medford spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Abbott, of Wagner creek. J. F. Dunham returned Friday from Spokane, Wash., where he has been attending to business matters for the past two weeks. Rev. Adams was a guest of Mr. Spenser at the reception for the teachers last Thursday evening. Mrs. W. J. Quackenbush left last Saturday for Dorris, Cal., to join her husband, who is working in a box factory. Mr. Deen purchased a Ford last Saturday. Mrs. Cox of Phoenix was visiting her daughter, Mrs. James McAsdin, last week. The Olympic society of Talent school, composed of the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth grades, held their first session of the season last Friday morning in the assembly room. As there were no officers left from last year except the vice-president, Winifred Reynolds, she took charge of the chair and appointed Alta Scott secretary pro tem and Bernice Finley sergeant at arms pro tem, and Glenn Terrell treasurer pro tem. The object of the meeting was to decide on a time for the primary and general election, at which time the officers of the society for the following year will be chosen. October 15 and October 22, respectively, were the dates set.

There was a little misunderstanding in certain clauses of the constitution, which provides for the legality of voters, and a sharp discussion followed, but as nothing was accomplished as a means of settling the question the conservatives challenged the liberals to a debate, which was readily accepted and the date set for October 5 at 2:30 o'clock.

The question reads as follows: "Resolved, that the words 'each year' in article iv, page 75, of the present constitution of the Olympic society should be construed to mean from time of last general election to time of next general election; also that amendment 1 of article iii could not therefore exclude any pupil of the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth grades who has signed the constitution and paid dues of 5 cents since date of the last general election."

Miss Gertrude Schultz, the Anderson creek school teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, who reside in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Delsman visited Mrs. Delsman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bailey, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Delsman are visiting friends and relatives in Ashland before their departure for their future home in Hayden, Ariz.

Arthur Chase, the rural school supervisor, visited the Anderson creek school one day last week. Last Tuesday Mrs. J. J. King and her daughter, Katherine, spent the day visiting friends in Medford. Mrs. Ada Standard, the primary teacher of the Talent school, was a guest of Mrs. G. A. Morse Thursday evening.

Mr. Burgen died of Bright's disease Friday morning. A short service was held in the home, after which Mrs. Burgen, accompanied by two relatives, started for St. Cloud, Minn., where the body will be interred. The teachers of the Talent high school met last Monday night to decide what books to buy with the money contributed by the Community club. The money was earned by a food sale at the time of the school fair.

Mr. Kline, who has charge of the lookout on Mount Wagner, is down for the winter. Leroy Vantassel, who has been the guest of his uncle, Lewis Brown, is on his way to his home in Terrytown, N. Y. He expects to stop over at St. Cloud, Minn., and Chicago. The Missionary society meets on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wellborn Beeson. Miss Alice Vandershus has been ill with a cold the last few days, but is better now. The Rebekah lodge is preparing for their president, Mrs. Palmer, who is expected on the 29th of this month. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown entertained Mrs. Deerdorf and family of Ashland at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fleck of Portland have just returned from an extended trip to Crater Lake and are now spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. Carpenter. Mrs. Giminiane of Baker City, Or., is visiting her niece, Mrs. M. J. Carpenter. Vance Wolgamott and family, who are employed for the winter at the Nigger Boy mines in California, will leave for their Wednesday. Frank Oatman and family are moving to the McFadden residence on Bear creek. The Epworth league will hold a business meeting Saturday evening. Every member is requested to come. Mr. Dunham of Klamath Falls was the guest of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, Tuesday. Mrs. Emma Armstrong of Medford is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Carpenter. G. A. Morse and son, Wilmer, returned Saturday from a week's visit at the state fair at Salem. Miss Edythe Gibbs of Talent left Monday for Medford for an extended visit. There will be a debate at the Talent high school Friday at 2:30 p. m. on the constitution of the Olympic society. All outsiders are invited. The conservative party of the Olympic society held a meeting on Thursday for the purpose of nominating officers. Alta Scott presided. The meeting was called to order and the nominations were as follows: President, Bernice Finley; Alta Scott, Alfreda King; vice-president, Helen Adamson, Bonita Taylor; secretary, Anna Anderson, Elva Coleman; treasurer, Lucile Holdridge, Lucy Oatman; sergeant-at-arms, Ruby Gutches, Albert Bruley. The campaign managers are Alta Scott, Bernice Finley, Bonita Taylor, Clem Clarke. Anna Anderson, secretary pro tem. Miss Ada Kingery expects to leave soon for Edgewood, Cal., to visit her relatives. The fifth and sixth grades of our school gave Miss Pierce a fruit shower Monday. The Talent school is having music Tuesday and Thursday morning. Miss Standard is leading the singing. Rev. Reed of the Methodist church was out shooting pheasants last Friday. He is visiting in the community today. Mr. Ames and family have moved from the Beeson house to a flat over the Talent mercantile store. Mrs. E. W. Scott, Mrs. C. Holdridge and Rev. Adams were visitors at the Talent school last week. Thursday evening the teachers of our school were given a reception by the community. After a pleasant social hour cake and coffee were served. The Parent Teachers' club met on the evening of the 28th. The topics under discussion were: "How Can the School Library Be Made of Greater Value to the Community as a Whole?" and "What Shall We Do With Our Boys?" The discussions were interesting and profitable. All were invited to write out and hand in such topics as they would like to have discussed at a future meeting. After the meeting was adjourned many of those present inspected the library and took out books. The question, "What Shall We Do With Our Boys?" is gaining interest and a mass meeting has been called for October 8 at 8 o'clock at the schoolhouse. Many advocate renting a large building that can be heated and converting it into a boys' club.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Perry Foster and Jasper Hannah were on Elk creek Monday. Mr. Wyatt and son, James, of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. Corner of Missouri were the guests of the C. E. Bellows home several days last week. Professor C. E. Johnson was an Eagle Point visitor Saturday. Henry McCabe is visiting his father, T. McCabe, and family. Louis Sager has returned home from Crater Lake. A truck came out Wednesday morning and took a load of apples from Thomas McCabe's to Medford. Hunters are as thick as bees in May. John Warner, aged about 65 years, was found dead near his home last Wednesday morning. Heart trouble is supposed to have caused his death. He had lived on Trail for about fifteen years. He leaves a wife and nine children. John Winghamam went to Medford Friday. He was a ranger this summer and the season closed October 1. School opened in the Debenger Gap district with Mrs. Marie Foster as teacher. W. H. Crandall and Mrs. Jettie Charno were married in Medford Monday and went from there to the fair at Frisco. Joe Hannah, Sr., is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Peter Betz. Miss Ma Hannah is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tim Daily, at Medford.

DUTCH STEAMER TAXELSTROM SUNK; TWENTY SURVIVORS

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Dutch steamer Taxelstrom has been sunk. According to present advices there were twenty survivors. The Taxelstrom was launched last year and was of 1601 tons gross.

Fire Warden Finney and his wife, in company with Bob Finney and his bride, passed through here on their way to Steamboat where they will spend a few weeks. Nina Wright has gone to Grants Pass to spend a few days. Quite a number of men from here went up Thompson creek to fight a fire that is doing considerable damage in that community. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Chute are contemplating going to the fair at San Francisco some time this month. Miss Page and Mrs. Bennodet spent Sunday afternoon at Wright's. Otto Hansen was enrolled in the freshman class this week. The total enrollment so far is forty-six. Mr. Benson went to Grants Pass Tuesday. Word has been received that Ralph Pitcock and Eva Gordon were married at Oakland last Saturday. The bride and groom are expected here after a three weeks honeymoon. A dance is to be given at Socialist hall a week from next Saturday night.

Good music has been secured for that night and everyone is invited. An eight pound girl came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlas Topping Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley of Thompson creek also have a new daughter. Mr. Frye and son are sending one to Mr. Turner and it runs $28 to the ton. The teams practiced basket ball at Rose's Hall Tuesday night. Quite a few players were there but all of the players are expected next Friday night.
