WOMAN UNIVERSITY REGENT STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR WOMEN'S MEMORIAL BUILDING

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 9.—The nest egg for the proposed $100,000 women's memorial building at the state university was raised yesterday by the students and faculty and by the town people of Eugene. The means used was a progressive dinner, served in courses of two circuits of five houses each, of which 900 persons partook.

The campaign for the women's memorial building, which for many years has been a dream of alumnae, women students, and faculty women, was finally begun over the state by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Dallas, the one woman on the university board of regents.

The building is to house all the social and indoor athletic activities of the university women. It is to contain a gymnasium, social rooms, rooms for corrective gymnastics, rest rooms and game rooms, a large swimming pool, a running track, locker rooms, dressing rooms, a kitchen with supplementary quarters, and a suite of rooms for a matron.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Grizzlies was held at the library Thursday evening, at which time it was decided that beginning with November there will be an all-day trip the first Sunday of each month and a half-day trip the third Sunday of each month. Following the business session, the club adjourned to the large hall of the Natatorium, where an informal social evening was enjoyed. A short program, including impersonations by Lester McDonald, and a violin solo by Professor E. C. Root was given and very much enjoyed. The remainder of the evening was spent with dancing, social conversation and cards. The social committee consisted of George Treichel, the Misses Lounsberry, Treichel, Frazer and Daily.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist church held a social meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Johnson on South Oakdale. About 30 ladies were in attendance. After an interesting program, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and young lady assistants.

church and congregation, presented Rev. Hawkins with a handsome traveling case as a remembrance. Rev. Hawkins responded in his always pleasing manner and told of the way he had been taken from a people to whom he and his family had become attached; of the ups and downs as well as the pleasures and rewards of ministers, also expressing his appreciation of the kindness to be and his family, by the Medford people and of their co-operation with him in his work.

Miss Dorothy Conner of Medford, daughter of Mrs. Charles H. Conner and sister of Boudnot Conner, who survived the Lusitania disaster and spent the ensuing five months in English and French field hospitals, landed in New York Tuesday and will leave for Oregon next week.

The executive committee of the Parent-Teachers' circle of the Roosevelt school held a meeting Thursday afternoon to arrange for a Halloween entertainment, which will be given Friday, October 29, at the school building. There will be fortune telling, fish ponds and a vaudeville performance. In fact, something of interest to both young and old.

Mr. D. T. Lawton also spoke a few words on behalf of the young people of the church and the pleasant associations with Rev. Hawkins and family, and their influence would be a lasting one upon the work in Medford.

Dr. Howard Fisher of Washington, D. C., Miss Conner's brother-in-law, who went abroad with her and has been doing hospital duty in France, has also returned.

A large concourse of members of the church and congregation and friends were present to say farewell and wish he and his family the best of everything and the greatest of success in their new charge. This affair was entirely formal, it not being known until but a few hours before that Rev. Hawkins would be sent to the new field.

Not only the Medford church, but the entire city of Medford, will greatly miss Rev. Hawkins and family as this pastor's influence was far extended outside of the church as well as within it, and he leaves this city at the close of one of the most successful years that the church has had in its entire history, but what is a loss to this city will be a gain to the city where this pastor and family take up their work.

Miss Conner, who is with relatives in New York, is in good health, notwithstanding her strenuous experience in the army hospitals. She does not expect to return to Europe.

Victoria music of well selected pieces was rendered during the evening and an interesting talk was made by Mr. C. A. Meeker, president of the Epworth League of the church, in which he called to mind a few of the excellent things, and work the pastor had done during his one year's stay in Medford, and on behalf of the church and congregation.

At high noon last Saturday Miss Ruth M. Merrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Merrick of this city became the wife of Mr. Raymond P. Canfield of Oregon City. The ceremony which was witnessed by only the immediate family took place at the bride's home. Rev. W. F. Shields of the Presbyterian church officiated. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Canfield of Oregon City, parents of the groom, Miss Stella Merrick of Long Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Merrick.

A wedding breakfast followed the marriage service and the bride and groom left on the north bound train for Government camp by Mt. Hood, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mrs. Canfield is a graduate of the local high school and also of the University of Oregon at Eugene, and has been a teacher in the local high school for the past three years. Mr. Canfield is also a graduate of the University of Oregon, at which institution the young couple became acquainted. He is now associated with his father in the banking business in Oregon City, where they will make their home.

These young people, so well qualified for life and with such bright prospects before them carry with them the best wishes of their many friends.

A number of quiet affairs complimentary to Miss Merrick have been given the last few weeks.

Last Friday evening a surprise dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nye in honor of the bride and groom. The dinner was tendered them by a company of friends who have celebrated Thanksgiving together for a number of years. The Merrick family were ostensibly invited over for an informal supper. The first intimation the young couple had of something unusual taking place came when they found themselves marching in to the strains of a wedding march. During the evening the customary tokens were presented to the honor guests.

Those present were Miss Ruth Merrick, Mr. Raymond Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lake, Mrs. Alice Watt, Mr. Jeff Terry of Kingston, La., Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nye, Miss Stella Merrick, Miss Helen Watt, Mr. Will Watt, Mr. Stephen Nye and Miss Mildred Nye.

On the afternoon of October 6 the Wednesday Study club held its initial meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Hutchison. The affair was in the nature of a coffee klatch and thoroughly enjoyed by all the members. The Hutchison home was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and flowers. A social program with many amusing contests and diversions was offered, and later delicious refreshments were served by the following good times committee: Mrs. Page, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Cathcart, Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Hutchison. Mrs. O. C. Boggs was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Mrs. F. R. Roberts entertained on Saturday afternoon at her home on North Peach street with a luncheon and bridge party in honor of Mrs. F. B. Patterson, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Soutter. The guests included Mrs. F. B. Patterson, Mrs. H. C. Stoeckman, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. F. G. Hyatt, Mrs. W. T. Dozier and Mrs. R. F. Antle.

Mrs. W. L. Holloway entertained last Saturday afternoon with a dinner and bridge at her ranch home south of Medford for Mrs. A. Conroy Fiero, who left Tuesday for New York. The guests were: Mrs. A. Conroy Fiero, Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Mrs. Robert Ruhl, Mrs. William Sooy-Smith and Mrs. Corning Kenley.

The College Women's club meets this afternoon in Phoenix with Mrs. Malmgren hostess and Mrs. Thayer social chairman. American art in architecture will be considered. Mrs. West dealt with its development, Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Moody telling of Richardson and Hunt. After the short program refreshments and a social hour will complete the afternoon.

Mrs. J. Vilas Beckwith returned home Wednesday from a visit to southern California at the exposition.

Mrs. F. R. Roberts was hostess to the Samedai club Friday afternoon at her home on North Peach street.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of William Ulrich at 358 South Oakdale avenue Wednesday, October 6, Gertrude Ulrich and Thomas Carlton being the contracting parties. Promptly at 2 o'clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, that was played by the bride's sister, Lorain, the prospective bride and groom took their places before the assembled guests where Rev. Shields performed the ceremony that united the happy pair. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. The bride looked sweet and dainty in a gown of white crepe de chine, wearing a headdress of orange blossoms worn by her mother at her wedding. The groom wore the conventional black. A dainty luncheon was served, after which the newly married pair left for Ashland, where they took the train for San Francisco and will visit the Panama exposition for ten days, returning to reside upon Mr. Carlton's farm near Eagle Point.

The following guests were present at the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Carlton and two sons, Herbert and Lyle, Mrs. Harry Carlton, Mrs. Vroman, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. L. E. Enayrt, Wm. A. Young, Luke Ryan, Misses Annie and Loraine Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ulrich and Mrs. Julia Mittenburser.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ulrich of Medford, Oregon, and the groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Carlton of Ashland, Oregon.

The Foreign Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon with about fifty ladies in attendance. A very interesting and instructive paper on "The Conditions of Children in Heathen Lands" was given by Mrs. W. W. Glasgow. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. E. Palmer, taking as the text, "Harvest." A playlet entitled "The Messenger" was presented by the following five ladies: Mrs. L. L. Cathcart, Mrs. C. O. Hatt, Mrs. C. R. Ray, Mrs. J. A. Torney and Mrs. E. N. Warner. The ladies then adjourned to the chapel, where a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. W. H. Gore. The table decorations were symbolic of the autumn season, having autumn leaves as place cards and fruit and flowers for center decorations.

A good attendance and a good time was the verdict of Olive Rebekeh lodge Tuesday evening. An entertaining talk on financial matters was given by Mrs. Maud Stickle of Gold Hill. Mr. Usher proved a good story teller. Mrs. Lockwood gave a solo, and also Mr. Bennett. Mrs. Hines entertained with two fine readings. The banquet room reminded one that fall was here with its beautiful autumn leaves, vines and berries, for decorations, including pumpkin pie.

The regular business meeting of the Rebekahs was held at the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening, followed by a social time spent with cards and a short program, which was as follows: Solo, Mrs. R. J. Lockwood; reading, Mrs. Heine; vocal solo, Mrs. Louis Bennett; musical number, W. W. Usher; piano solo, Mrs. Hubler. Refreshments were served in the banquet room at the close of the evening. The tables were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and roses.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Patterson, who have been visiting Mrs. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Soutter, on North Orange street, left Tuesday to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition en route to their home at Dodge, Neb.

The Catholic ladies entertained with a tea at the parish hall Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. G. C. Garrett and Mrs. Henry Callahan were hostesses.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade returned Thursday from San Francisco, where they have spent the past ten days at the exposition.

Mrs. Homer Rothermel entertained the Girls' Thursday Bridge club at her home on Geneva avenue Thursday afternoon.

The last children's party of the season was held at the Country club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. A. Bird of West Tenth street left Friday for Salt Lake City. Mrs. Reginald and son left Friday morning for Seattle.

Miss Theone Carlin entertained the young ladies Armona Bible class Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, at her beautiful home on Reddy avenue, with a real New England dinner at 6:30 o'clock p. m., served cafeteria style, the guests finding their places at a number of small tables to enjoy the delicious menu of baked beans, scalloped potatoes, brown bread, pickles and sandwiches followed by pumpkin pie and coffee and fancy candies. The tables were decorated effectively with autumn leaves and pink La France roses, the spacious rooms giving a lovely setting that only can be appreciated under the soft shades of evening light.

After all had done justice to the splendid dinner the business meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Carlin, Mrs. Bessie Medley leading the opening prayer, then came the election of officers for the ensuing six months. Miss Theone Carlin was again chosen president, Miss Eunice Davis, first vice-president, Miss Josephine Clark, secretary and treasurer, Miss Grace Bratney, entertainer, Miss Helen Lawton, reporter. Four new members were added to the class roll. Reports given from the teacher, Mrs. E. J. Stewart and officers' personal work including twenty-eight call having been made this month by the different members and ten calls by the teacher during the past month. The Monday afternoons of each week at Mrs. Stewart's home have proven a great help and a social success. All who have attended appreciate Mrs. Stewart's splendid efforts. The next Bible study meeting will be held at her home Wednesday evening, October 21. Plans were discussed to raise the missionary money now due and local work started for the winter season. The business meeting adjourned, Mrs. Stewart having charge of the Bible study program after which music and a social hour found the evening well spent. A rising vote of thanks was given the hostess and the other members of her family who had so helped make this delightful party one long to be remembered by about twenty-eight girls of the Armona class. All strangers and visitors to our city are invited to meet with this class at the First Baptist church on Sunday mornings at 9:45 o'clock.

The alumni hop which occurred Tuesday evening in the large hall of the Natatorium, proved to be one of the most pleasing affairs given by the younger set. The hall was prettily decorated in red and black. The stage was partially concealed by a network covered with chrysanthemums. The patrons and patronesses who served were: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford, Mr. and Mrs. William Budge, Mrs. R. F. Antle, Mrs. F. W. Thorne and Miss Ray.
