

KLAMATH INDIAN FOUND GUILTY OF CATTLE STEALING

A jury in the federal court this afternoon returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Elmer Lynch, a Klamath Indian, accused of cattle stealing. A sentence of six months in the Multnomah county jail, without costs, was imposed, after a plea for leniency had been made by Attorney B. F. Mulkey, and a kindly lecture had been administered by the court. Lynch is the father of eight children and heretofore a law-abiding red-man.

In the case of David Alexander, accused of bootlegging, the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Alexander is nearly 70 years of age and has often been in the toils of the local police.

The Lynch trial marked the close of the present term of court, Federal Judge Wolverton leaving for Portland this afternoon. The remainder of the officials will leave Friday, the work of paying off jurors being under way this afternoon.

ED ANDREWS TELLS OF RUTH ST. DENNIS

There is perhaps a mistaken impression among some of the playgoers as to just what the entertainment of Miss Ruth St. Denis is to be. While the entire evening's performance is to be one of dancing, yet the dancing is of a different kind from anything Medford has ever seen. Miss St. Denis, Pavillon and Jenais are the exponents of the pantomimic dance.

Centuries before the Christian era the Greeks were very proficient in the pantomimic dance. They had dances of joy and of sorrow, even a dance that was used at funerals to express sorrow. Miss St. Denis is among the few that have revived these classic dances which have found so much favor in all the large cities of the world. London, Paris and New York have acknowledged Miss St. Denis as the pantomimic dancer par excellence of modern times.

Be sure to see Miss St. Denis Friday night at the Page, for she is one of the three greatest dancers living. ED ANDREWS.

dally on the city of London. "The docks of London, the water-works at Hampton, near London, and Woolwich also were heavily bombarded with incendiary bombs. "At all the places attacked important explosions and great fires were observed. "All the airships returned safely, although they were vigorously attacked on passing over the English coast."

ACCUSE DR. HILLIS OF FRENZIED FINANCE IN TIMBER DEALS

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The charge that the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, made "quick fortunes" through selling British Columbia timber claims to ministers and other friends, was made today in an affidavit filed by Frank L. Ferguson, former chairman of the board of trustees of the church, and for five years manager of Dr. Hillis' business affairs.

Dr. Hillis had procured an order to examine Dr. Ferguson before a referee and Mr. Ferguson obtained an order requiring Dr. Hillis to show cause why he wished to examine his former business manager. When argument on the latter order was called today before Supreme Court Justice Kelly, attorneys for Dr. Hillis asked for additional time in which to answer the Ferguson affidavit, which they termed "false and misleading." The argument was postponed until October 19.

Mr. Ferguson in his affidavit stated that he had turned over all documents and matter connected with Dr. Hillis' timber deals in British Columbia and denied that his testimony is necessary for Dr. Hillis in the libel suit filed against him by his nephew, Percy D. Hillis, of Victoria, B. C.

Mr. Ferguson further alleged that Dr. Hillis had between $3000 and $5000 when he began speculating in timber lands, but through sales to other ministers and friends he made enormous profits within a year.

Dr. Hillis' financial troubles, Mr. Ferguson alleged, were brought on by his own business follies and wild action. He explained how the pastor had contracted to purchase more than $750,000 worth of timber lands, and Mr. Ferguson declared that he had personally borrowed and turned over to Dr. Hillis more than $200,000 in an effort to meet his obligations.

WANTS AIRSHIP RAIDS ON GERMAN TOWNS

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Globe, which has been conducting a campaign advocating reprisals for Zeppelin attacks, says today: "The public knows now that the Zeppelin, choosing its own time and circumstances for attack, is practically immune against the ordinary weapons of aerial warfare. The only way to hit the enemy is to strike at him as he strikes at us—to bomb his sleeping towns."

50-50 BASIS OF BONDING AGREED TO

The citizens' bonding committee and all of the city council, with the exception of Councilman Medynski, conferred Wednesday night upon the remodeling of the Miles rebonding plan. The 50-50 basis of payment of the paving indebtedness was approved. The work of untangling the details of this plan will be ready for acceptance or rejection at the next regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night, when the matter will be further discussed.

In the matter of the recall petitions, there were no new developments today, and the circulating of the petitions is at a standstill. It is claimed enough names have been secured.

SMALLEST REPUBLIC CONGRATULATES BIGGEST

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Lawrence Grant of London arrived here today on the French liner Chicago with a letter from President Pierre Font of Andorra, the oldest and second smallest republic in the world, to President Wilson, as head of the largest republic.

The letter congratulates President Wilson upon the stand taken by the United States for neutrality and also upon the material aid rendered to Belgians. Andorra, which is located on the southern slope of the Pyrenees, adjacent to France and Spain, became a republic about the year 799. It contains 175 square miles and has a population of approximately 6000.

RUSSIA'S SUCCESSES DUE TO MUNITIONS

THE HAGUE, Oct. 14.—Russia's recent successes are declared by a Dutch correspondent in the eastern war theater to have been due to the overwhelming superiority of her supply of ammunition which took the Austro-Germans completely by surprise, and with which, it is stated, they were unable to cope.

MARTIAL LAW RULES THE HAGUE

THE HAGUE, Oct. 14.—Martial law in a specified and partial form was proclaimed here today. The proclamation affects the various trades which furnish supplies for the army.

The proclamation, announcing that The Hague was placed under a minor state of martial law, was placarded this morning. The measure affects movements of workmen employed in the trades which provide military supplies. These workmen hereafter will be compelled to obtain military permits if they desire to go to other districts. Foreigners are not affected by the decree.

TAGGART SEEKING IMMEDIATE TRIAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—Efforts to obtain an immediate trial for Thomas Taggart, indicted by Mayor Joseph E. Bell, who yesterday was acquitted of conspiracy to commit election frauds, were made today before Special Judge W. H. Eiehorn. Prosecutor A. J. Rucker opposed immediate action, as he said he had been worn out by the Bell trial. It was agreed to take up the matter again in about a week and dispose of it at that time.

$2520 A PIECE FOR PHILLIES' PLAYERS

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Members of the Philadelphia National league baseball team today received their losers' share of the world's series receipts apportioned to the team. Twenty-two players and Manager Moran each received $2519.99.

Final financial arrangements for the trip to the Pacific coast for a series of exhibition games have not been made with the Pacific coast interests and until an agreement is reached the personnel of the team "will not be decided."

Serbia Fight Gamely

Serbian resistance to the Teutonic advance south of the Danube is described in the current Austrian war office statement as "most severe." The Austrian attacks, however, are reported as everywhere progressing.

Serbia took the initiative at one point on the Bulgarian frontier on Tuesday, according to a Sofia dispatch to London, and crossed the border but were defeated after an all day battle in their attempt to occupy the heights west of Belgradechik, Bulgaria.

NEAT, NOT GAUDY CLOTHES PRESCRIBED FOR UNDERTAKERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Fashions in dress for funeral directors should be neat, but not gaudy, according to a dictum laid down at the national convention of funeral directors here by Fred E. Jerve of Los Angeles. The delegates to the convention had Pierce's address before them for a discussion today, as well as several other matters relating to their trade.

In his address Pierce also outlined what in his opinion the funeral director should be. "The true funeral director," he said, "is serious, but not gloomy, dignified but not morose, gentle but not fawning, self-possessed but not self-conscious, quietly masterful, but not rashly, alert but not fussy, watchful but not nervous, sympathetic but not lachrymose—a kindly, unassuming master of ceremonies."

Regarding dress, the speaker said: "In his dress the undertaker should always avoid anything looking toward the flashy or striking. His dress should be neat and correct, his clothes perfectly pressed and the whole appearance quiet, modest and unassuming. Never should he make a coarse and vulgar display of jewelry, as is the manner of some, nor aim to convey the impression that he is seeking to enroll in the millionaire class or with other gamblers."

That many funerals are "spoiled" by ministers was the statement of the speaker, who said:

"With all due respect for the cloth, I have observed that some preachers would spoil any occasion, and that they are certainly adepts at spoiling funerals. There is such a want of appreciation of the occasion and such a doctrinal and unnatural coarseness, such a stilted want of feeling, such noise and bluster, such a woeful want of appreciation as to the element of time, that probably the least said on this subject, the better."

SEATTLE, Oct. 13.—The national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union today elected these officers: President: Mrs. Anna Adams Gordon, Evanston, Ill.; vice-president, Mrs. Ella A. Boole, Brooklyn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Francis P. Parks, Evanston, Ill.; recording secretary, Mrs. Sara H. Hoge, Lincoln, Va.; treasurer, Mrs. Margaret C. Munns, Seattle. These were all re-elections except in the case of Mrs. Munns, who succeeds the late Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson.
