"An apology is due to the Medford Elks. We understood that Governor Withycombe visited the Elks in Medford and was given barbecued venison priday in the city attending to busbut the fact was the governor is a member of the fish and game commission, and it was that body which met in Medford and the Rod & Gun club of that city borrowed our deer for a feed for the commission and falled to replace it with another," says the Rogue River Argus. But it was not the Medford Rod and Gun Club that gave the barbecue, but the G. O. P. county committee. Consequently the C O. P. owe Rogue River one deer.
