EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett

Senator H. Von der Hellen returned last Tuesday evening from Corvallis and Astoria where he had been on business.

Bert Highbotham of Flounce Rock district was with us Tuesday night. He had been over in the valley for a load of apples.

Tuesday being a holiday and school had the regular courses up to two p. m, and then the children and principal had a game of basket ball among the larger pupils, and the smaller ones enjoyed a game of volley ball and spent a while in that kind of amusement and some of the larger grils seemed to be quite proficient in the art. Our school seems to be getting along nicely and the teachers and pupils seem to be on splendid terms and we are in great hopes that the school will prove to be a great success. I am sending with this letter a report of the first month of of the members of the school,

Mrs. Manley Conley came out on teh Lake Creek auto stage last Wednesday expecting to go to Butte Falls that day but found when she reached here thatt he train did not go until the next day so she and her two children spent the night at the Sunnyside. Mr. Conley came out from the home of his mother, Mrs. Hessler, the same day that she went up to Butte All are invited to be present. Palls and was also a guest at the Sunnyside.

The same day, October 13-now poison oak, don't tell me that 13 is an unlucky there are four at least that think that they were lucky that day yes, the same day, one of our former town boys, Thomas F. Nichols and Miss Eva H. Farlow of Lake Creek were married in Medford. The groom is the son of Gus Nichols and Mrs. E. O. Nichols, formerly of this place, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farlow, one of the prosperous families of the Lake Creek section, and the young couple have a host of people up there who will give them a hearty greeting in their venture on the matrimonial sea of life.

G. L. Ferguson, superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York, was here Thurs- Francisco. day doing business.

Grover Mitchell and C. H. Mathason of Madara, California, and U. S. Collins, representing the New York | | Norcross to the New York market School Supply company and P. M.
