

NEW ROASTER TO SMELT ORES AT CHEAP COST

ASHLAND, Oct. 21.—The Oregon Reduction & Development Co., a new organization, has recently been formed here. J. W. Turnbull and O. L. Young of Ashland, Newton W. Borden of Medford and A. C. Brown of Talent are incorporators. The plan is to install mining reduction plants after the pattern of the Garver gravity roaster and solution tank, of which A. J. Garver of Clarkston, Wash., is the originator, with Mr. Turnbull as associate. A plant already ready installed at Troy, Idaho, demonstrates the satisfactory handling of a copper proposition with by-products, though other ores readily respond to treatment. Specific advantages claimed are that fumes and gases are conserved and confined within condensing chambers, a minimum of fuel is required and the operation is automatic and continuous from receiving chambers to precipitation tanks. The average plant unit, capacity twenty-five tons a day, can be installed for $3000. The main advantages from the installation directly at the mine are that low-grade ores can be handled as to roasting, solution and precipitation, without shipping long distances, the process being instantaneous.

Contracts for the installation of these units are contemplated on the Nigger Boy property in the vicinity of Hornbrook, and in the Blue Ledge section of Josephine county. Opportunities for installing units are open to mining operators by guaranteeing stipulated ore supplies as may be agreed upon.

HARVARD HEAD WOULD CURB MILITARY SPIRIT

BOSTON, Oct. 21.—A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard university and Charles W. Eliot, its president-emeritus, today took issue with those who would carry military preparedness into the grammar schools. Military drills in these schools, President Lowell said at a hearing before a executive committee were of no importance whatever in the development of soldiers and the teaching of military history, he thought, while of some value in the high schools, would be useless among boys in the lower grades. He opposed any plan of drafting young men into the militia.

The great need of the United States army at the present time, Dr. Lowell thought was a sufficient number of officers. He believed the colleges could and would co-operate in the education of such officers. Harvard, he added, would be glad of an opportunity to take part in the work. Dr. Eliot said that his objection to military drill in the public schools was based principally on the fact that it was a bad form of physical exercise. The army spirit, he asserted, was un-American; assistance on implicit obedience meant subjection to another's will, and that he held was not a good way to train young Americans.

EDEN PRECINCT

Mrs. Noah Chandler of North Talent spent Monday in Medford.

A. S., F. E. and Colver Furry are out in the Dead Indian country looking after their stock.

Earl Davis of Portland came to Phoenix last Thursday to visit his sister, Mrs. Colver Furry, for a short time.

Those from Phoenix who spent Saturday in Medford were: Mrs. E. G. Coleman, Mrs. L. A. Reams, Professor Seoby and wife and little son, J. T. Edwards.

From North Talent Mrs. J. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stanciliff and daughter Vivian, Miss Meda Daley.

Welborn Beeson of Talent took some fine ewes down to a man near Medford Tuesday.

Many farmers are selling off their hogs on account of the low market prices and are not feeding many for meat.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader write they are enjoying fine weather while seeing the exposition at San Francisco.

Guests over Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey's were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knighton of Eagle Point, Mrs. Montgomery of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shearer of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norman of South Medford spent Sunday in Talent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grafies and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of East Eden spent Saturday in Medford.

Mrs. J. B. Coleman and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gutman of Talent spent Friday in Medford.

Jessie Adams of Talent is able to be about again after having been quite ill.

Freckles and His Friends

Talent has been very unfortunate in having so many fires lately. The last one was the confectionery store occupied by J. Luke. The building belonged to Mrs. Ollie Walters. Miss Meda Daley of Smith River, Cal., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. S. Stanciliff. Miss Daley is on her way home from the San Francisco exposition. A bunch of hogs running at large has become a public nuisance between Talent and Phoenix. Report says five of them running on the railroad right of way met a sudden end.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

I omitted to state in my last that A. S. Bliton, at one time editor, proprietor and publisher of the Medford Mail, was out and took dinner at the Sunnyside last Friday. He was here this time in the interest of the Medford Flouring Mills and seemed to be meeting with some success.

L. K. Sunderland of Oakland, Oregon, was also a caller the same day. Mr. Sunderland was raised near here by his uncle, Mr. McCarty, who has a homestead on Kamsashun Gulch, and has lived there for several years, but now is living in Oakland, Oregon.

Last Saturday I started out to see what I could do for the Mail Tribune and what I could find of interest to write for the readers of that live paper. And the first place that I stopped was at the orchard of H. B. Tronson and found them as busy as niggers packing and hauling apples, but did not find Mr. Tronson as he had gone a fishing with a friend, but he surely had a fine lot of apples and is shipping as fast as he can get them boxed and carted. My next place was at the beautiful home of Fred Pelouse, not on business for the Tribune particularly but on other business, but found the house vacated. Going on to the A. Corbin orchard I met Mr. Quackenbush on his way to Eagle Point but went on to the ranch and found Mrs. Quackenbush and she gave me a check to renew their sub to the D. M. T., and later I met Mr. Corbin Monday morning, and Mr. Quackenbush in Eagle Point, and they had a basket of apples that would compare favorably with any apples in the state, that they were taking to Medford to let people know what kind of apples they grow on sticky. They told me that their entire crop this year exceeded their expectations. They finished up hauling the fruit off Saturday. It seems as though it pays to use water in an orchard or as to that on any other land in this country. My next move was to the Lewis brothers farm and there I met Charles Lewis, the junior member of the firm. The reader will perhaps remember that about three weeks ago I made mention of my being there while they were cutting their clover to thresh for seed and I asked what the result of the undertaking was and Mr. L. told me that they threshed almost 1400 pounds of seed and had sold most of it in Medford at a good figure and they are so well pleased with their experiment that they intend to raise in the course of time put the whole place in clover. They already have a large tract sown this fall and are now sowing their corn ground. They raised the clover seed that they threshed in their orchard and by that means raised two crops on the same land and by that means they claim they can raise apples at a very low cost. They are very strong advocates for the use of water on their land, and I have noticed that those who use water generally have a good crop. I asked him about using water on small grain and he told me that they had a field of wheat and on the part that they could get the water on it yielded from 150 to 200 percent more grain than the other did. Now I want the reader to understand that I am not in the employ of any water or irrigation move but what I see convinces me that it pays to have water on the land. I next went to Mrs. Kate Welch's and found her at home and had her renew her sub to the W. M. T. She is putting in her grain in the dry. She owns one of the best farms in that section, Wellen, and knows how to handle it. L. Dewees and Mr. Calkins recently from Iowa moved Sunday, Mr. D. into one of the James Owens' houses and Mr. Calkins into the Wm. Von der Hellen house. Last Sunday was a busy day at the Sunnyside when C. E. Johnson and I left for Reese creek they were still eating and when I returned I asked my wife how many there were for dinner and she said just 43 and the following is a partial list of the comers: F. L. Heath, wife and daughter, Miss Francis, Wm. Von der Hellen, wife and two children, Dr. W. W. P. Holt, wife and daughter, Miss Helen, T. F. Boltz, R. A. Petty, Marion Trusty, George H. Wamsley and daughter, Miss Mabel, Gus Nichols and wife, Harvey Stanley and wife, Mrs. Ware of Dayton, Ohio, J. V. McIntyre and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Behling, of Medford, besides quite a number whose names I did not procure. Ralph Waldo Elden of Central Point was here interviewing the farmers with regard to the use of fertilizers that he is agent for. He is known around here as the fertilizer man. Robert R. Minter has sold his entire band of sheep, about 1300 head to M. S. Martin of Shasta valley, Siskiyou county, California. H. D. Hoffman and N. C. Hoewell, two traveling salesmen, were here Monday. W. W. Martin of Brownboro and his brother, C. M. Martin of Yakima, Wash., were here for dinner Monday. Miss Louisa Bliss and her brother John were dining business with F. L. Heath Monday and report that their father, the old ferry man on Rogue river free ferry, and his wife, have gone Sunday to Rogue River to visit relatives. Since my last report Dr. W. H. Nuding of Brownboro, J. S. Quackinbush, E. P., Mrs. Katie Welch, Wellen, Charles Cingadeo, E. P., Henry Town, L. C. and Ed Dutton of E. P. have renewed their sub. to the Mail Tribune. Some of them cry hard times, but say they cannot do without the Mail Tribune. Since writing the foregoing Mrs. R. A. Whitman has paid up their sub to the D. M. T.

ONE SPOONFUL GIVES ASTONISHING RESULTS

Medford residents are astonished at the QUICK results from the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka. This remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and is so THOROUGH a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL of Adler-I-ka relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it, the gases rumble and pass out. L. B. Haskins, Drugist.
