The winter social season is to be appropriately ushered in on next Wednesday evening when the officers and members of the Seventh company give a reception and ball to Governor and Mrs. Withycombe and military staff, who come to Medford to dedicate the new armory, which has been constructed for the Seventh company. Governor Withycombe and staff are en route to the Panama-Pacific exposition in their official capacity to represent the state on Oregon day at the fair. The party will arrive on Wednesday morning and at 1:30 p. m. the governor will deliver an address at the armory, to which all are invited. It is expected that the governor will discuss military preparedness and his attitude on this present live issue. The welcome address will be delivered by W. H. Gore, who will also discuss the military questions now before the country.

Hon. B. F. Mulkey will be heard for the last time before a Medford audience, as he will soon remove to Portland to reside. The dedication exercises will be interspersed with music and other features appropriate to the occasion.

In the evening will be held the reception and military ball, to which all are also invited. The reception will begin at 8 o'clock and continue until 9, when the ball will begin. Governor and Mrs. Withycombe will lead the grand march.

Gore, Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. Bert Anderson, Mrs. H. A. Thierolf, Mrs. R. W. Ruhl, Mrs. C. E. Gates, Mrs. J. C. Mann and Mrs. A. E. Reames.

It is expected that the spacious rooms will be taxed to accommodate the very large crowd that will attend. The entire First company of Ashland will attend the reception and ball and many prominent residents of southern Oregon have sent word that they will come to meet the governor and party.

In spite of the threatening weather, a large audience was present Friday afternoon at the Roosevelt Parent-Teachers' meeting. Mrs. Canode presented a splendid paper on "The Value of Rhythm in Education," followed by a discussion by Superintendent Hillis. The white ribbon special, bearing the national officers and workers of the W. C. T. U., passed through Medford Monday, the 18th, on their way to the annual convention at San Francisco. This train was allowed a stop of thirty minutes by special request and arrangements at the City Beautiful, Ashland. At this time the city of Ashland did itself proud as royal entertainers. The Commercial club and its friends distributed freely to these workers their famous lithia water, also grapes, peaches, pears and apples, such fruits as Ashland and the entire Rogue River valley is justly proud. While there Miss Anna Howard, the national president of the W. C. T. U., was presented with a basket of beautiful roses, compliments of the city. Miss Howard thanked the friends for their kindly interests in the welfare of the workers and their glad welcome to their beautiful city. While in Ashland Miss Anna Howard, Miss Mann, Mrs. Stevenson and Mrs. Tillmann all briefly addressed the people. After the train bearing these noble women had left the city a convention of W. C. T. U. workers was called at the First M. E. church with County President Mrs. T. A. Howell presiding. At noon the Ashland Union, under the direction of the local president, Mrs. Melina Ashcroft, served a delicious chicken dinner to the visitors. At 2 o'clock another session was called by President Mrs. Howell, when the different unions gave reports, suggestions, etc. Mrs. Ashcroft gave a report of the state convention, which recently convened at Newberg. Mrs. Ashcroft was very much enthused with the work and deeply in earnest when she begged the different unions to go back to take up their work in earnest and do something that was worth while. After a rising vote of thanks to Ashland for its royal manner of entertainment and the local union for their gracious hospitality, we sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," with benediction by Rev. Simmons of Eagle Point.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Lincoln school held its regular meeting on Friday afternoon. Miss Robinson, our librarian, gave a most helpful talk on "Books Children Should Read." That at the library they had lists of books for each grade arranged in order of their value to the child, and parents and teachers were very welcome to consult these lists. That about November 1 there would be a set of books here from the state library which would contain the best books to buy for Christmas, and the patrons of the schools and library were urged to use these books freely. She also stated that the story telling hour would be resumed on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and connected programs would be carried out during the year.

C. E. GATES TO MANAGE BEET SUGAR CAMPAIGN

The beet sugar committee held a meeting at the Commercial club headquarters Friday. C. E. Gates was elected chairman of the sugar beet campaign with headquarters at the Commercial club. He will devote his entire time to this work.
The entire proposition was gone over carefully with the sugar beet company representatives and the committee are thoroughly convinced of their sincerity and that the only requirement to secure the factory is the signing up of 5000 acres of land that will grow beets. Regardless of any statements to the contrary we expect to know inside of thirty days what the result will be. Mr. Nibley assured Mr. Gates that he will make a public announcement as soon as we have secured enough acreage to insure the balance being signed for.
W. H. Gore signed the first contract for 100 acres.
