Since I last wrote I have been traveling the most of the time, so have but very few items of interest to write of a local character,

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Qunckenbush and family motored into town Saturday morning on a business trip. Mr. Quackenbush is the foreman on the A. Corbin orehard and was in the act of spraying the orehard when the nice rain commenced to fall yesterday (Friday) afternoon, but he is satisfied with the long-looked-for and much desired rain?

On Tuesday ,the day that I left for the hills, William Butler and his son, John, were here for dinner. They were engaged in sawing up a lot of wood for F. M. Stewart with their wood-sawing machine. Ralph Bieberstedt was also a caller the same day.

Mr. Hildreth, Sr., of Butte Falls, came over on the P. & E. car Saturday morning and stopped off on bus-
