

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Miss Blanche Harvey, of Grants Pass, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Charley Piening, of this city.

Rev. Alonzo Coslet and family, who stopped off here last week to renew old acquaintances, left Sunday morning for Roseburg, where he delivered a sermon at the M. E. church. The following morning they left for Portland, for a visit with relatives, after which they will return to Roseburg, or its vicinity, to make their future home.

Homer Adams, lately of Roseburg, but formerly of this city, spent the latter part of last week at the ranch home of his brother, B. E. Adams, near this city.

In a letter from Miss Johnnie Glenn, of Hayden, Arizona, to her sister, Mrs. J. F. Dietrich, of this city, she tells of a serious experience she is just recovering from. While out horseback riding with a party of young people, she was thrown from her horse and unconscious for some time, but recovered enough to ride her pony home. The following morning, however, she became worse, and was confined to her bed for ten days with danger of brain fever. She is now very much improved. Miss Glenn was a resident of Gold Hill about three years ago, and is contemplating an extended visit to this city again next summer.

J. B. Palmer, local photographer, who has been in charge of the Weston studio at Medford, is home again. Mr. and Mrs. Weston have returned from their 8000 mile auto trip, which embraced fourteen states. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller, of this city, the first of the week.

Charley Farmer, at one time proprietor of the "Blue Front" grocery store in this city, but who has been mining on Foothills creek the past year, left for Ashland Thursday. He will visit with his family there for several days before leaving for Trinity county, California, where he expects to secure employment on one of the large mines.

Attorney A. E. Kellogg was in Medford Wednesday on legal matters.

Miss Viola Myers of Rogue River, spent the week-end with her former schoolmate, Miss Elsie Miller, last week.

Charles Brown and Joe Vasbinder left Monday evening for Bisbee, Arizona, where they have been assured employment in a copper mine.

Another car load of fine Sams valley hogs were shipped to Portland the first of the week. H. Van Hovenburg made the trip to attend to the disposal of the porkers.

"I have fished in most of the famous Pacific coast waters, and I do not hesitate to remark that the sea-trout or steelhead, of the Rogue river, afford the finest sport obtainable for the fly-caster," declared G. F. Shelby, of Denver, while here last week on his annual vacation. "You should advertise your fishing—in the east they never dream such sport is to be found." Mr. Shelby is a true fisherman, and we anticipate his return here again next year. The Chinook salmon are now working on the spawning riffles, their first noticeable appearance being last week.

The Pleasure Pavilion is now entirely enclosed and the work of more effective lighting has been going on this week. Tonight, Saturday, a large Halloween dance will be held there. An indoor baseball series is being planned for this winter and probably basketball and tennis will also be played in the pavilion.

H. A. Ensign, manager of the Sleepy Hollow ranch, one mile west of Gold Hill, visited his mother at Eagle Point last Saturday. Mrs. Ensign injured her right hand while attempting to save some of her valuables at the time of the fire which destroyed the Sleepy Hollow home recently.

Mrs. George T. Woodbury, of San Francisco, returned there last Saturday, having spent almost a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Redfield, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Conger left Tuesday morning for their home at Sigourney, Iowa. They had been visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. P. Chisholm for the past week. From here they left for the fair and also Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Grant Harrison arrived home from Weed, California, last Saturday evening, after having spent two months there.

D. H. Miller and R. H. Moore were auto visitors to Medford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beeman, J. F. Dietrich, Dr. W. P. Chisholm, and Fred Witt were called to Portland the first of the week to give testimony in the case of Carson vs. the Southern Pacific. Several years ago while Carson was in the employ of the S. P. at this point his hand was so badly injured as to disable it, so he affirms. The suit is the out-growth of his statement.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Boyd visited friends here on Monday. Mr. Boyd was at one time S. P. agent here, and he and Mrs. Boyd have just returned from a vacation trip to the east coast as far south as Florida.

The local high school has been designated by the state superintendent of public instruction as one among the number found to meet all conditions of the standard four-year course of study requirements. Under the new law, districts maintaining this standard are entitled to receive tuition pupils from districts which constitute territory not maintaining high schools. As a result a number of students from Talent and vicinity are attending the Ashland high school and in the course they are duly accredited with the proficiency which they have attained elsewhere.

C. H. Gaunt of San Francisco, general manager of the Western Union in Pacific coast territory, went north early in the week in the private car "Electric." Included in his party were H. F. Dodge, assistant general manager; H. C. Chace, traffic superintendent, and J. L. Ord, head of the plant department, all of San Francisco. A chief object in the trip to Portland is to perfect plans for the installation of the multiplex system in wire traffic between northern and southern terminals.

W. E. Glendenning of the government entomological service, was summoned to Scott Valley, Siskiyou county, on Monday, owing to the critical illness of his brother, John Glendenning, chairman of the board of supervisors of that county, who has been suffering from a siege of typhoid fever with complications.

Halloween pranks which exceeded the bounds of propriety were the breaking into a local physician's garage and confiscating several gallons of cider; also the robbery of a residence on North Main street, the occupants of which miss several articles and a sum of money belonging to the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church.

Among recent homecomers from the exposition are Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter, who have visited various portions of California; also Rev. Mr. Vallandigham, pastor of the Christian church.

By an unlucky score of 13 to 13, the Etna union and Siskiyou union schools, in a football game at Yreka, Saturday last, tied a struggle which will have to be repeated at a later date in order to settle all contentious over referee decisions.

E. E. Bailey and wife of Racine, Wis., left for the south on Tuesday after a brief visit with Ed Stannard, operator at the municipal electric light plant, who is an old friend of the visitors. Mr. Bailey represents the Gold Medal Camp Furniture company of his home town. This was his first visit to the coast and he was much pleased with southern Oregon and the development which is going on in Ashland. Hal McNair of this city and C. A. Brown, postmaster at Talent, accompanied by their wives, motored to Eagle Point early in the week, dining at the Sunnyside inn and enjoying such a repast as has made that hostelry famous.

J. M. Mashburn, former resident, now ranching in the Little Shasta valley, has been in town this week attending to business matters.

E. L. Abbott of South Bend stopped off here on Monday for a brief visit with B. C. Hubbard, a cousin whom he had not seen for nearly fifty years. Abbott is a soap manufacturer and years ago while visiting certain sections of northern California made a careful investigation of the soap bark of that region as to merits which it might possess in connection with the industry which he represents.

Ed Wolcott, Mrs. Augusta Eggleston and daughter, Ruby Palmer, left for San Diego on Monday, to remain indefinitely. Mrs. Eggleston and daughter will engage in chicken raising.

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggard. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.
