A farmer of this district expresses the opinion that he will profit by trying horse beans as a cover crop, instead of vetch. Horse beans will not do well as a cover crop in this climate. They will not equal in value of yield any of the better legumes in this climate, notably winter vetch. Their value as a feed, except for sheep, is not equal to that of vetch, mixed with winter oats. The crop may not be as conveniently handled, and it costs more money to treat it properly for the market or the mow, after the harvest.

Chesterfield's Powers

"Are Wonderful" Says Wm. J. Bryan of Chesterfield

"His powers are wonderful to me—it is simply marvelous the gifts this young man has." So said William Jennings Bryan in the Paxton Hotel at Omaha not long ago.

He has just had an audience with Grant Chesterfield, the eminent clairvoyant.

Seen in his parlors at the Palm Rooming House, 130 West Main St., the celebrated enigma was surrounded by a throng of people waiting to know what was in store for them. Some wanted to know if they would soon make changes in their business conditions; others if their recent difficulties would soon cease; others if they would be fortunate in their love affairs; some wanted to know what their sickness was and if they would be cured. It is said Professor Chesterfield will be obliged to remain in Medford several days longer. His parlors remain open to the public until 8:30 p. m.—Adv.

ITALIAN LINER TORPEDGED

ROME, Nov. 10.—The Italian liner Ancona has been sunk by a large submarine flying the Austrian colors. She carried 422 passengers and sixty in the crew. Two hundred and seventy survivors, some of them wounded, have been landed at Bizerta.

For several months before Italy's entrance in the war the Ancona was engaged in carrying home Italian residents from this country and supplies for the Italian government. On one of her trips from New York to Naples late in August last year the Ancona was stopped by the British at Gibraltar and twenty-four Germans and one Austrian were taken off the ship. Late last summer the Ancona lost here for Italy with 75,000 bushels of wheat, 2,000 tons of hay and five hundred horses for the Italian government. On the same voyage she carried 200 Italians in the steerage who went back because it was said at the time they could not get work in the New York subway.

When the Ancona left New York on her last voyage October 17 she was in command of Captain Pietro Masardo.

LIBRARY TO KEEP SUPPLEMENTARY SCHOOL BOOKS

No successor was elected to R. F. Mulkey, as member of the board of education at the monthly meeting Tuesday night, as Mr. Mulkey's resignation has not been filed.

The board accepted the proposition of the library board to keep supplementary school books. The contract was, therefore, signed.

This is a proposition on which Superintendent Hills and Miss Robinson, librarian, have been working assiduously since last fall and they are greatly pleased this morning with the school board's conclusive action last night.

In the system proposed, the supplementary school books will be distributed to the pupils by the heads of the school departments, thus making it possible to reach them with more directness and with less loss of time by the pupils in the matter of study of the proper books, histories, and so on, than under the old system. The teacher of each department will know just what books to select for her pupils. The books are being classified now and the new system of distribution will soon be applied.

Last year the board appropriated $200 for the services of a special school librarian, whose duty it was to distribute the supplementary books, but the system was not satisfactory. The new system will incur no extra expense, but will add many advantages.

The principals of the ward schools were appointed to begin the work of taking the new school census at once. This is an innovation that appears to have several advantages, also, inasmuch as the teachers will have the assistance of parents and pupils in their wards and will also be able thus to meet the parents in such a manner as to yield benefits in the more intimate acquaintance thus formed. The high school boys have organized a band. They have begun the work of acquiring proficiency with much earnestness and are enthusiastic over the prospect of having a fine organization. The board voted to encourage them by the purchase of an

Kidney Trouble May be Sapping Your Life Away, Medford People Have Learned This Fact

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, weak kidneys may be the cause. The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is too serious to neglect. Doan's Kidney Pills have earned their fame by their effectiveness in strengthening the kidneys and keeping them well. Can Medford readers demand further proof of their merit than the following statement?

Mrs. Jane Waterman, Phoenix, Ore., says: "Any exertion or being on my feet much caused backache and pains across my loins. I had headaches and dizzy spells and blurring before my eyes. All these showed that my kidneys needed attention. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to all the claims made for them. All the ailments that distressed me so much were removed."
