PREPAREDNESS

ADOPTION of an immense military preparedness program by the peace-loving administration is extremely disheartening to humanity.

Europe today, torn and bleeding, with five millions slain and twelve millions under arms, with the resources and industries of all the people devoted to unholy slaughter, is the answer to the military preparedness program. It was the possession of large armies for defense that occasioned the war.

If barbarism and butchery are the chief aims of civilization, the United States, following in the footsteps of Europe, is in a fair way to realize them. Yet there never was a time in the history of the nation when there was less need of armament. Isolation makes invasion impractical, despite the lurid shrieks of jingoes. The war's conclusion will leave an exhausted world—no matter who is victor. Years of recuperation will be necessary before any power recovers sufficient strength for a war of conquest.

While no one advocates non-resistance and all believe in some preparation for defense, the degree of preparation is the issue. Certainly the need of the nation does not call for the monster two billion dollar military establishment outlined. If a half-billion dollars is necessary this year, a billion dollars will be declared necessary the next year. A standing army of a quarter of a million will be declared inadequate, and a million, then two millions and then the entire nation in arms. And we will be asked to keep the barbaric ideals of militarism alive by training school boys for future slaughter, under the sham pretence that the nation is endangered.

Why this frenzied stampede towards militarism? Why this expenditure of hundreds of millions in warships before we know whether a battleship is of any use in war? Why not wait to secure all the lessons taught by conflict before wasting our money in structures obsolete before completion? Science is revolutionizing warfare—why not secure the benefits of the revolution before expending the blood money of the people?

The example of America in spending two billions for militarism will be followed by other nations, just as Germany's example was, and this will force America in turn to increase armaments, and the insane rush will be on to culminate in another world conflict. Why plunge the nation into such criminal folly?

Mr. Roosevelt stands ready to sacrifice his program of economic reforms for militarism—but because Teddy is a miniature edition of the kaiser is no reason for the nation's sacrificing these reforms. The causes of war are economic. If economic justice prevails, the cause of war is removed. Military preparedness cannot prevent war, though the issue raised may sidetrack social and industrial reforms vital to the life of the nation. That nation is unconquerable in which social justice prevails. Securing it is the best preparedness.

HERRICK ASSERTS G. O. P. REUNITED

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Causes that led to a split within the ranks of the republican party have, in a large part, vanished and the forces are to be reunited, Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, told the members of the Hamilton club in an address today.

The republican party has become progressive, Mr. Herrick said, and through the willingness of each party to go half way in effecting a compromise, many progressives have returned to their former allegiance. "This is a two-party country," he said. "It has never had, and I presume never will have, those multiple divisions by which the citizenship of some other nations is split. Between the two wings of our party there is no difference as to the route or direction, but only as to the speed limit."

CHURCHILL OFF TO JOIN REGIMENT ON BATTLE LINE

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty and chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, in the uniform of his regiment, left for the front this morning. His wife bade him farewell at the railroad station, where he passed unrecognized on the platform as he waited to enter a special car.

Mr. Churchill became widely known as a soldier before he began his political career. He entered the army in 1885, after being graduated from Sandhurst. He served with the Malakand field in 1897, was present at the operations in Bujdur, served with the Tiah and Nile expeditionary forces, being present at the battle of Khartoum. He also saw service as a lieutenant of South African light horse before he became a newspaper correspondent to report the Boer war.

Mr. Churchill is listed as a major of the Queen's Own Oxfordshire Hussars, and it probably is this regiment which he has left to join.

ITALIANS CAPTURE HEIGHT OF GORIZIA

ROME, Nov. 18.—A victory for the Italian forces which are attempting to capture Gorizia was announced tonight by the war office. A strong Austrian position northwest of the city was captured. The statement follows:

"On November 14 the enemy fired twelve-inch shells into the villages of Loeza and Besseneva, in Conca valley. Yesterday the enemy's batteries directed bombardments against the once flourishing towns of Mussa and Lavinio, on the Irono plain. These towns are now heaps of smoking ruins. "Our infantry took by assault a strong entrenched position on the height northwest of Gorizia."

Thoughtful Woman: "My mother," said the thin man in the smoking compartment, "was the most admirable housekeeper in the world. She was a missionary in Africa and was finally eaten by cannibals. And when they thrust her into the pot she cried out with her last breath: 'Don't forget the salt and pepper!'"

RAILROAD MEN PREPARING TO ASK EIGHT HOUR DAY

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18.—The four railroad brotherhoods, including more than 350,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen in all railroads in the United States, announced today they are preparing to make formal demand about March 1 that the railroads grant them an eight-hour day with the same pay they now get for ten hours.

Action will be taken at a meeting of the executive committee of the brotherhoods in Chicago, December 15, when ballots for a referendum will be prepared. The votes, it was said, are expected to be tabulated before March 1.

The eastern association of the general chairmen of the engineers' and firemen's brotherhoods in joint session here last night decided to join the conductors' and trainmen's brotherhoods in the eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime demands. Similar action is expected at the meeting of southern associations of engineers and firemen at Washington next Monday, and of the western associations at Chicago, December 19.

SEES WITH HIS MIND

Most Miraculous Are the Powers of Grant Chesterfield. Grant Chesterfield, the noted thought reader and clairvoyant who has startled the populace in all the large cities on the Atlantic coast, possesses powers most marvelous in the statements of the most prominent citizens of Medford are to be believed. They claim that he has given them readings, immediately told them of the past, diagnosed their physical condition, described their present situation of affairs, and then proceeded to define for them their future.

They further aver that many predictions made by the enigma have already come to pass. Seen at his parlors at the Palm Rooming House, 150 West Main street, Chesterfield said:

"Possibly some reports are exaggerated, but then you must remember that I have been endorsed by such authorities as the Press Club of Chicago, practically by such universities as St. Petersburg and a long string of others. Again among the noted personages whom I have read for are the most distinguished of other hemisphere, so I hardly think this report you have heard is at all exaggerated."

"Do you read one's future?" was asked.

"I read the past as well as the future."

"Do you give legal advice?"

"Yes."

"The same is in the certain cases, I diagnose one's condition and advise accordingly how to recover their lost nerve, energy, and power and what to do to take care of their health in the future. Some have certain business changes they should make, others have marriages, divorces, lawsuits in store for them; still others have mining interests or geographical changes to undergo, and so it runs on."

"How many readings do you give daily?"

"Oh, that's hard to say. In Omaha I read 2000 in several weeks. Now come up another time and I'll give you a reading."

Then the wonder worker, who kept New York, Boston, Copenhagen, and other cosmopolitan cities in a flurry called "next," and vanished into his consulting room.—Adv.
