

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector John Summerville left for Portland Monday after having made inspections in Southern Oregon and the Klamath country.

Good dry wood $1.50 per tier on ground. R. F. Montgomery, 619 S. Riverside. 221*

Messrs. Howard Warner, Clarence Burk, Leman Robbins and Bert Stancil returned from the fair Saturday. They had an enjoyable time.

Alex Hoagland, of Indianapolis, Indiana, who has been visiting a few days in the upper valley districts, where he has interests, is in the valley metropolis today, making interesting investigations into our stock business during the past three or four years. He believes that, with the advent of irrigation, the stock business of the valley will be more than doubled because of the greatly added production of feed. He declares that Rogue river valley and adjacent ranges ought to turn out more than a millions dollars' worth of cattle, hogs and sheep every winter.

J. O. Gerking, the best all around photographer in southern Oregon. Always reliable. Negatives made anywhere, time or place. Studio 228 Main St. Phone 320-I.

The fine line of personal engraved Christmas cards sold by the Medford Printing company are proving very popular. You should see the line before you decide on your Christmas remembrances. These little engraved remembrances fill in many a niche where more expensive presents would prove a burden.

Bert Cornwall, formerly of Jacksonville, but now of St. Paul, Minn., will return this week to his St. Paul home, after a visit here of three weeks. Bert declares that he will return to the Rogue river valley when his contract expires in St. Paul. He has traveled about a great deal since leaving here five years ago and has found no place that suits his fancy for a permanent home as well as Jackson county.

Try a King Spitz cigar and encourage home industry.

The regular mid-monthly Bible Study meeting of the Amoma class of the Baptist church will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Stewart, 504 Pennsylvania avenue. All old and new members are requested to be present.

Don't forget to order some kind of ice cream, frozen plum pudding or cherry sherbet at McBride's for your Thanksgiving dinner. Phone. 211*

Dave Gibson of Bakersfield, Calif., brother of Mrs. M. M. Ahrens, is visiting here for a few days.

Home made taffy at De Voe's.

Regular meeting of Reames Chapter Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th, Masonic hall, 7:30. Initiation work.

Exclusive use of the alleys by the hour to private parties, clubs and organizations at the Box Ball alleys. Phone 134.

The juvenile court desires to thank those who yesterday generously contributed clothing for the three boys of Mrs. Rhoten of Gold Hill. The clothes will be sent to the needy mother today.

Chocolate creams, caramels, chips, peanuts, etc., only 30c a lb. at De Voe's.

George Kohlhaugen, of Roseburg, was an over-night visitor in Medford. Candles, birthday cake and holders, all colors, two lengths for candles. Medford Book Store.

Ralph Stanley, of Butte Falls, is in the city on business.

Boiled ham and bacon at DeVoe's. Mrs. Leach, Abdo-Support and Barely surgical corset, at 326 N. Bertlett.

Ben Ringery, of Lake creek district, is doing business in Medford today.

Butte Falls Wood Yard, Phone 48 or 223. Wood all kinds. 229

D. W. Merrill, of Albany, is a business visitor in the valley metropolis.

When better insurance is sold Holmes The Insurance Man will sell it.

Allen Cooke, of Des Moines, Iowa, will leave for his home tomorrow, going by way of San Francisco. Mr. Cooke has devoted ten days to familiarizing himself with the advantages of Southern Oregon and has seen enough in that length of time to convince him that he would like to have a home here.

Phone 100 for Hall Taxi Co. Country service only. Reasonable rates; large comfortable cars.

Charles J. Wrenn, of Yuma, Ariz., came to Rogue river valley some days ago in the hope of finding vacant government land to homestead, but, in the absence of that advantage to homeseekers, he will try to rent a farm this year and establish himself in that way until he can sell his Yuma property.

De Voe buys beer bottles.

Andrew Antgen, of Corvallis, is in the valley in search of a home. He will probably locate in an irrigated district.

Miller T. Grove, of Bloomington, Illinois, tarried in the valley two or three days on his way to Chehalis, Washington, on a business errand. He is much pleased with Southern Oregon and will stop on his return for a more thorough investigation.

Henry Mellis, who sustained a broken wrist while at work with young horses on the Randall place a week ago, will leave tonight for week's visit in San Francisco.

Will Tetro, of this vicinity, will go to the Panama exposition next week and from San Francisco he will go to Fresno to visit with friends for a month.

For Thanksgiving pop corn see "The Poppery" opposite the May Co.

There is nothing new about personal greeting cards with your name engraved on them. We have them every year. Samples for your selection. Medford Book Store.

C. O. Jenks, vice president and general manager of the P. & E. and vice president also of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Co., will pass through Medford in the morning enroute to San Francisco by way of Portland, stopping long enough here to take along a fine sample or two of Rogue river valley fruits.

Beautiful line of engraved and illuminated personal Xmas Cards, with envelopes to match. See the line at the Medford Printing Co.

Mrs. Kirk and son, of St. Paul, Minnesota, who have been visiting with the family of D. W. Luke, in the Orchard Home district, will leave today for their home, being on their return from a visit to the Panama exposition.

Fresh roasted peanuts at De Voe's.

For watch work that satisfies, Johnson the Jeweler. 220*

Alex Nibley will leave on the 4:20 train this afternoon for San Francisco, where he will meet his father. Should his report of the sugar beet situation here be sufficiently favorable, it may be that Mr. Nibley, Sr., will return with Alex Nibley to Medford and initiate the work necessary to close the deal for the best sugar factory. Otherwise, that formality will be delayed until the farmers in this valley shall have signed up the acreage required. This they have not yet done. 500 acres are shy.

Buy your fat Thanksgiving turkey direct from the ranch. Phone 14-F22 for delivery tomorrow. 219*

The Thanksgiving round-trip rate on the Southern Pacific from Medford to San Francisco and the exposition will be effective tomorrow morning, the first train on which the rate may be used being the 2:18 in the morning. The round trip tickets cost $16.80, the cheapest rate yet given. On sale only on the 24th and 25th.

Special prices on engraved cards for a few days, either from old plate or with new plate. Medford Printing Co.

B. J. Reech came in this morning from the Fish lake country and reports that snow has been falling heavily at times in that region during the past several days.

Larwees pure New York Buckwheat Flour, 9 lb. bags. Schiefel's Grocers.

Arthur Coleman, of Portland, arrived in this city today on the 10:45 for a visit of a week among stockmen. While here he will also investigate the orchard by-product feed question. It is his opinion that a good deal of fruit is going to waste in this valley and that it ought to be utilized for hog feed.

60c for round trip to Ashland on Nov. 25th to Ashland vs. Medford foot ball game. Cars wait during game. Phone 100 for seat reservation. Hall Taxi Co. 211*

Peter E. Wainwright, of the Palouse country, Eastern Washington, is a city and valley visitor in the interest of two or three families who want to exchange their Palouse homes for farm lands in the Rogue river country.

Hot Tamales at the Shasta. 231*

A. C. Allen has returned from the state horticultural meeting at Corvallis.

The public market will be opened Wednesday, Nov. 24th.

Roderick Macleay of the Macleay Estate Co., of Wedduburn, left Tuesday for San Francisco. Upon his return he will speak to the members of the Rogue River Fish Protection association.

Smoke a King Spitz cigar, 5c. They are home-made.

Three persons tied for the largest number of spares in any one game at the Box Ball alley last week. In bowling off the tie, Al Hagen made the highest score, 169, and received a "Bud Lid." E. V. Coffin was second with 125 and A. McCain had 115 for third.

Special prices on engraved cards, new and from old plates, for a few days at the Medford Printing Co.

George E. Sanders, vice president of the Oregon-Utah Beet Sugar Co., resident at Grants Pass, is in the city today on business connected with the final acreage campaign.

$4 Casseroles for $1.79, Wednesday only. Crater Lake Hdq. Co.

M. J. Bradley, travelling engineer of the California-Oregon Power Co. is in Medford today on business.

Exclusive use of the alleys to private parties, clubs and organizations at the Box Ball alleys. Phone 134.

F. J. Glidden and wife, of Tacoma, are registered at the Hotel Medford, Mr. Glidden having come on a mission of business and investigation.

De Voe delivers the Oregonian to you every day for 75c a month.

Judge R. E. Platt, of Elgin, Illinois, is visiting with Mrs. Agnes Howell, an elderly sister, who resides in a suburban district near Medford. Judge Platt, who is 80 years old and yet quite hale, says if he were younger he would be tempted to abandon the old homestead at Elgin, where he has lived 43 years, and make his home in Medford. He regards the Rogue river valley as one of the choicest places for residence on the Pacific coast.

60c Guernsey Ware, Individual combination tea pot 35c. Crater Lake Hardware Co., 223 E. Main.

Carl Von der Hellen of Wellen was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

Try one of those big ice cold 5 cent milkshakes at De Voe's.

Joe Kelly of Griffin creek is doing business in Medford today.

Special low prices on all pipes at the Medford Cigar Store. 211*

Mrs. Wm. McPhee of Portland is a visitor in this city today.

Insure your auto in the Alliance against theft, fire. C. Y. Tengwald.

Special AT THE DAISY FOR THANKSGIVING DAISY

BUTTER 65c PER ROLL

Cranberry Sherbet. Ice Cream Turkeys. Maple Nut Strawberry and Vanilla Ice Cream.

Whipping and Coffee Cream. Order now.

We give Green Trading Stamps.

White Velvet Ice Cream Co. PHONE 481. 231 EAST MAIN

YOU SHOULD BE THANKFUL

That you have a market where you can get the best of everything to be had when you want it, and be sure of satisfaction.

WE ARE THANKFUL

To be able to supply your every want and guarantee to please you.

Let us remind you to leave your order now for that Turkey, Chicken, Duck, Goose or Meats for the Thanksgiving dinner. We have lots of choice Rogue River birds.

ECONOMY MARKET PHONE 46

Page theater was crowded to its utmost capacity Sunday afternoon to hear Ex-Congressman Richmond P. Hobson's speech for national prohibition. Rev. W. F. Shields presided and H. E. Edmeades led the singing. Dr. E. L. Stearns, national secretary of the Anti-Saloon league outlined the campaign and appealed for financial aid, for which Mr. Hobson made a vigorous attack upon the demon rum concluding with a stirring account of the sinking of the Merrimack during the Spanish-American war.

See the Medford Printing Co. for engraved calling and business cards for Xmas presents. Special prices for ten days.

It will pay you to come to Crater Lake Hdq. Co. Wednesday.

R. L. Gay, of Grants Pass, is a business visitor in the valley metropolis today.

Buy Medford made candy at the Shasta.

Captain A. J. Vance has returned from a business trip to Salem.

The Medford high school football team is being put through the finishing touches of the season's training for its big game with Ashland on Thanksgiving day on the latter's grounds. The game played in Medford resulted in a tie score. A large number of tickets have been sold in Medford and a good sized legation will go to Ashland to root for the local players.

Drs. A. R. and Louise Hodges, chiropractic physicians, Stewart building, 235 East Main St.

Mrs. Charles Lower, Mrs. C. E. Sholl and Harold Lower, of Prospect, are visitors in Medford today.

Weston Camera Shop for first class Kodak finishing and Kodak supplies.

Fred Hanson, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific, is registered at the Hotel Holland from Portland.

Butternut bread at De Voe's. Judge C. R. Gay will go to Portland tomorrow on official business.

Postage stamps at De Voe's.

Louis G. Gentner, county pathologist, returned this morning from Corvallis, where he went to attend the state horticultural convention and fruit show. He reports a large attendance and a very busy session. The students of the college prepared the fruit show, a feature of which was the presence of fruits from several eastern and mid-western states for purposes of comparison. The fruit display was attractive.

Magazine subscriptions at the Medford Cigar store. Lowest rates. 211*

Col. Geo. P. Mims will leave tomorrow for a visit to San Francisco and the Panama exposition.

See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office Mail Tribune Bldg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Folger will leave for Chicago this evening for an extended visit.

Lignett & Myers premium depot at the Medford Cigar Store. 211*

Something new. Personal, engraved Xmas greeting cards. See the line at Medford Printing Co.

The funeral of Mary Boase Mosher, wife of John Mosher, who died in Medford, Nov. 21, will be held at Weeks and McEowan's chapel Wednesday, November 24 at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Rollins officiating. Interment in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

W. J. Webb, formerly of Medford, died at his home at Talent Saturday evening, Nov. 20, aged 64. He was buried Tuesday at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, Medford. Rev. W. F. Shields officiating. He was a shoemaker by trade and has been a resident of the valley for the past ten years.

110 acres Butte Creek bottom, all under irrigation at a cost of ten cents an inch. Will grow all grains, alfalfa, clover, onions, celery, sugar beets; one fourth mile to depot. This is a proposition that will interest you if you want something good at almost the cost of water. From the owner to you. Box 114, Eagle Point. Harry Reames, of Phoenix, who came to Medford yesterday, returned today.

Advertisement for Golden Rule featuring a woman with a turkey, the text 'WE THANK YOU', and a list of ladies' silk waists and coats with prices.

Advertisement for Victrola pianos featuring various models and the text 'Why Not a VICTROLA at Your Thanksgiving Family Reunion?' and 'HALE'S PIANO HOUSE'.