HERE'S GEM OF MRS. GAULT'S TROUSSEAU

The jealously guarded secret of Mrs. Gault's trossseau is out. The chief morsel in the outfit has been described by no less a person than the modiste who is making it—Mrs. Margaret Wade Grinager, wife of Alexander Grinager, New York artist.

It is an evening gown with a foundation skirt of pale violet charmeuse. Over this is a skirt of orchid colored chiffon with a wide ruffle of rich gold lace, which is caught at the top at intervals by orchid colored roses and gold leaves. Over this is a very full skirt of paler orchid colored net, opening in front and back, revealing the richer skirt beneath. The bodice and top of the overskirt are of a rich gold and orchid brocade, the band on the overskirt being of the most cowboy chiffon. The corsage is of orchid net, with roses as garniture.

The Greater Medford club will hold their first musical for the year Monday, December 6. Mrs. J. M. Rader of Phoenix will sing a Vannah "Lullaby." Mrs. Rader has a contralto voice of rare depth and sweetness, and this number will be especially interesting to those who have not heard Mrs. Rader in solo. Miss Francine McNasser of Central Point will sing a number. Miss McNasser has been heard in recitals in Medford and always with a great deal of pleasure. Two piano numbers, one by Elizabeth Gore of Phoenix and the other by Ethel Dean of Central Point, will bring out two young pianists with most promising ability. Miss Marjorie Myer and Miss Flora Welch will each appear in readings. Two other numbers and the complete program will be announced in next week's paper.

Admission to Greater Medford club members will be free, to non-members 25 cents. This brings to mind the fact that club dues are payable before the first of the year, and many are taking advantage of this opportunity to pay their dues before the musical. The regular meeting of the Greater Medford club will be announced later.

The Arts and Crafts league, recently organized by a group of twenty Medford artists, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend an opening exhibition of the productions of the members of the society to be held on the 3d and 4th of December in the display rooms donated by the May company for the use of the league, on the second floor of their store. Music for the occasion will be provided through the courtesy of Hale's Piano House.

The object of the Arts and Crafts league is the advancement of all branches of arts and crafts and the sale of the production of the members of the league. This includes painting, modelling, work in leather and metal, and needlecraft. Applications for membership will be considered. Those interested may communicate with the president, Mrs. T. G. Heine.

The Fraternal Brotherhood met in regular session Friday evening, and after transacting the business of the evening, Mrs. Atwood, who recently transferred to this lodge from the San Diego lodge, invited the members to the boxball alleys, where she and Mr. Atwood furnished the entertainment for the evening. All entered heartily into the game, and many high scores were made, and every one thoroughly enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wahl attended the Recreation club dinner given Thanksgiving day at the club's home near Gold Hill and report a very enjoyable time until a late hour. An abundance of turkey and all that go with it completed a dinner of unusual excellence.

The Degree of Panchontas spent a very pleasant evening Friday, November 26, bowling at the Atwood boxball alleys. About thirty members were present, all returning home

The Military ball on Thanksgiving night was the most successful of any yet given by the O. N. G. boys. Fully one hundred couples were in line during the grand march. The club rooms and hall were beautifully decorated in keeping with the significance of the day. The flocks of turkeys, real corn shucks, pumpkins and other features blending harmoniously with the other decorations of a military character, which have attracted so much attention in the past. Comment on the Thanksgiving decorations was freely expressed that the hall was the most beautiful of any ever arranged in Medford.

During the evening many were shown through the various rooms of the armory quarters and the technical instruments explained by the artillery boys.

Games of billiards and cards were in progress at all times by those not inclined to dance, and the club rooms were congregating centers for small impromptu gatherings of a social nature not usually found at dancing parties. The seventh company rooms are rapidly becoming the social center for the dancing parties of the present season.

The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Latta, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Riddell, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Perl, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thierolf, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell.

Gold Seal Pop-Overs

Mix two cups of flour
With two cups of milk,
Then beat in two eggs
Till it's all smooth as silk.

Fill a teaspoon with butter—
"Gold Seal" is the best—
Add a spoonful of salt,
Let the stove do the rest.

Pour the batter in muffin pans,
Hot and well greased,
Then bake fifteen minutes,
And, last, but not least,

When they pop up, and light as a bubble they feel,
Just eat 'em with butter (yum-yum)—use Gold Seal.
