

CIVIL WAR HERO DEAD: DISABLED BUT FOUGHT ON

D. C. Rose, commander of Chester A. Arthur Post, No. 47, Grand Army of the Republic, of Medford, was born April 26, 1841, near Stuttgart, Germany, and died at his home, 112 Cottage St., Medford, from cancer at 5 o'clock p. m. Dec. 2, 1915, aged 74 years, 7 months and 6 days, passing away as peacefully and quietly as if simply going to sleep.

At the age of 12 years Mr. Rose with his father and family emigrated from Stuttgart to the United States and settled in Newport, Ky.

Early in 1861 he was among the first to respond to his country's call and enlisted in the 4th Ky. volunteer infantry for 3 months service. After being honorably discharged out of that service he re-enlisted Dec. 16, 1861, as a private in Co. K, 71st regiment Ohio volunteer infantry at Cincinnati, Ohio, for three years, which regiment was shortly afterward sent to Paducah, Kentucky, to join Sherman's army and from there up the Tennessee river to Pittsburg Landing, engaging in that battle during which Mr. Rose was shot through the right leg just below the knee, and as a result he was sent home on furlough. While recovering from his wound he began learning the cigar-makers' trade. He was later ordered to report at Camp Chase near Columbus, Ohio, for examination, and the officers in charge recommended his discharge on account of his wound, and on Dec. 26th, 1862, he was discharged at Columbus, Ohio, by reason of surgeon's certificate of disability. Returning to Newport, Ky., he proceeded to complete learning his trade as a cigar-maker until October 7th, 1864, he re-enlisted in Co. F, 106th regiment New York volunteer infantry to serve one year, but the examining surgeon rejected him. He persisted in his efforts and was finally accepted and mustered into the U. S. service and with his regiment he went to the front at Petersburg at which point he had the peak of his cap shot off. From Petersburg he went down through Richmond, Va., and on to Appomattox, and was present at the surrender of Lee, and afterward took part in the parade and review at Washington, D. C., and received an honorable discharge at Ogdensburg, N. Y., on July 5, 1865, returning to his home in Newport, Ky. From there he later went to Laurensburg, Ind., Kansas City, Mo., and to Ellsworth Co., Kansas, where he followed farming for 12 years. In the fall of 1882 he sold out there and moved to Portland, Oregon, and resumed cigar making and bought a good farm near there which he sold in a few months to good advantage and in 1883 he changed his residence from Portland to Corvallis, where for nearly 35 years he was engaged in a cigar factory of his own and also operated a ranch near by. Disposing of these interests in 1911 he came to Medford in the fall of 1913.

In September, 1865, Mr. Rose married Miss Raunetta M. Berry, who died at Corvallis, Sept. 2, 1894, leaving five children, Oliver, Lottie E., George C., Edwin and Daisy A. Two years later Mr. Rose married Mrs. Georgia Berry Stevens, of Corvallis, a sister of his first wife. Mr. Rose was loved and highly honored by all who knew him for his high and lofty ideas of right and honesty of purpose in every walk of life. He was a life long and honored member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Grand Army of the Republic, having served a term as commander of Ellsworth Post, No. 19, G. A. R., at Corvallis, and one term as commander of Chester A. Arthur Post, No. 47, G. A. R. of Medford and died in office.

The G. A. R. will hold their ritualistic services over the remains at Perl's mortuary chapel at 3 o'clock p. m. Friday, Dec. 3, and with the K. P. committee will escort the remains to the S. P. depot in time to go to Corvallis on the 8:20 train Saturday. The remains will be accompanied by the sorrowful and faithful wife who has nursed and cared for his every want for the past two years or more, and his daughter, Mrs. Lottie English of Portland, who has been at her father's bedside for the past two months. In addition to the five children mentioned Mr. Rose leaves to mourn his passing away, one brother, A. W. Rose of Lents, Oregon, one sister, Mrs. Mary Hildebrand of Newport, Ky.

POULTRY SHOW MEETS APPROVAL OF ASHLAND MAN

"Whits Wyandots are my choice for a fancy pen," said F. B. Sankey yesterday, during a visit to this city in company with Manager Bergner of the Vining theater, Ashland, in which theater Mr. Sankey is operator.

"I am in hearty sympathy with the people of Medford and other points in the valley in their effort to organize a poultry show to be held in your city in January or February," continued Mr. Sankey. "Rogue river valley is far behind in that respect. It is proportionately behind, therefore, in poultry production. A poultry show here this winter will go far toward stimulating the chicken business in this ideal poultry region. Although I have gone out of the poultry business, largely from lack of time, I have my business engagement so arranged now that I can devote ample time to it. Hence, I have been thinking seriously of getting back into the pleasure of handling a pen or two. My choice is still White Wyandots; and I will do all in my power to interest others in your proposed poultry show. I know its value to those who have not yet learned how valuable a flock of good chickens may be made by proper care and progressive breeding. It will be of especial value to the farmers whose wives or daughters and son would like to make a little pin money on the side and have been reading up a bit on poultry. The show will give them practical lessons that could not be duplicated in months of hard study of poultry literature; although the latter is of great advantage at all times. You may count on me to encourage and patronize the poultry show."

Mr. Sankey resided in Medford for five or six years, during which time he was connected with the Page and the Isis theaters. He and Mrs. Sankey have many friends here who are glad to learn of their success in their new location.

CLEVELAND TEAM WILL BE SOLD

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 3.—It was announced today that the Cleveland American league club would be sold unless President Ban Johnson of the American league can convince its owner, Charles W. Somers, and the bankers committee in charge of its affairs, that it will be to his interest to retain the presidency. President Johnson is expected here next week to discuss the situation. George W. Steele, head of the bankers' committee, said today.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Stamford, Conn., Nurse Tells How She Found Health

Stamford, Conn.—"I am a nurse and suffered from a nervous breakdown. I had no appetite and could not sleep at night, and nothing seemed to help me. By chance I heard of Vinol, and after taking the first bottle I noticed an improvement, and four bottles made me well and strong. It gave me a hearty appetite, so I can sleep soundly night or day. I consider Vinol a wonderful tonic." Edith R. Forbes, Stamford, Conn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in overcoming such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and goes to the seat of the trouble. It is the greatest strength creator we know—due to the extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, combined with peptonate of iron and beef peptone, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine.

We have seen so many wonderful recoveries like this right here in Medford caused by Vinol, that we feel perfectly safe in offering to return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit. For sale at Medford Pharmacy.—Adv.

WIND AND RAIN SWEEP WEST COAST; GALE ON OCEAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—A high southeasterly gale came down the coast last night while rain fell over most of the interior valleys and the northern half of the California coast. The weather bureau predicted a heavy storm over all the North Pacific and the spread of the rain belt into southern California.

The wind today was blowing down the coast forty-seven miles an hour. The Standard Oil barge No. 1, lying at anchor at Richmond, was swamped by the heavy seas coming through the Golden Gate and sank.

An unidentified two-masted steam schooner beating down the coast lost her deckload a half mile south of Point Reyes, thirty-three miles north of here.

Storm warnings sent out to all vessels were continued today when the gale grew in violence.

TRAFTON IDENTIFIED AS STAGE ROBBER

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 3.—Testimony designed to prove the government's contention that Edward B. Trafton, on trial on a charge of highway robbery in United States district court was in or near Yellowstone park just before and after the holdup of twenty-three stages, loaded with tourists, was introduced by the prosecution at the opening of the second day of the trial today.

Witnesses yesterday testified that Trafton was the lone bandit who robbed the travelers.

OPEN HEARINGS MISCONDUCT OF GOTHAM OFFICER

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Governor Whitman today opened the hearing at which E. E. McCall, chairman of the first district public service commission, answers charges of misconduct in office, neglect of duty and inefficiency preferred by the Thompson legislative investigating committee. The investigating committee charges that McCall owns shares of stock in the King County Electric Light & Power company and that this makes him ineligible to act as a public service commissioner.

Mr. McCall asserts that he has made a "free gift" of the stock to his wife.

It was reported that as soon as Mr. McCall read his brief and faced his accusers he would tender his resignation.

GERMANS DENY, BRITISH PROVE

BERLIN, Dec. 3 (by wireless to Sayville).—"In spite of the German denial of reports circulated by a British news agency that a British aeroplane had sunk a German submarine, the news agency now gives details of the alleged combat," says the Overseas News agency.

Field Marshal Sir John French in an official report given out to the press bureau in London, November 29, said:

"In the afternoon of Sunday a British aeroplane destroyed a German submarine off Middlekerke. It was seen to break in halves."
