Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Carpenter left Tuesday for San Francisco. They will be joined by Mr. Jack Morrill and will leave soon for Honolulu where they will spend the winter.

The recital given by part of the pupils of Mrs. E. V. Coffin proved a very pleasant event. The company assembled at 8 o'clock at her studio, 60 Rose avenue, Friday evening.

The pupils rendition of their piano numbers showed exceptional talent. They were warmly congratulated by the guests present on their rapid progress. After the program the hostess and her daughter, Miss Inez Coffin, gave several very pleasing selections. The rooms were decorated with rosebuds and autumn leaves. A buffet lunch was served and all departed voting the evening a great success.

The program was as follows:

Piano solo, "Marshall's Duet," by Presser, Dorothy Latta.

Piano duet, "Presser," also a solo, "Ding Dong," Ned French.

Piano solo, "In the May Sunshine" and "Who Will Dance With Me?" Presser, Edwin Kelly.

Piano duet, "Over the Waves," Juvenino Rossas, Lulu Wilson and Goldie Wilson.

Piano solo, "To the Waltz," Impromptu, by C. Bohn, Patricia Miksche.

Piano solo, "Adonis," by L. Strea-bog, Goldie Wilson.

Piano solo, "Loin Du Bal," by Ernest Gilbert, Lulu Wilson.

For the pleasure of the Oak Grove Good Times club and their many friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nordman entertained with a dance at their home at the Hollywood orchards Saturday evening. The music was furnished by the Graphophone. The old time square dances were revived, and all went merry as a wedding bell. Dainty refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, pickles and coffee. After many thanks for the kind hospitality extended, the crowd returned to their homes.

The Iowa society will entertain their members on Wednesday evening, Dec. 8th, at St. Mark's with a banquet followed by a program. The banquet will be served at 6:30 followed by the program, after which an orchestra will furnish music for an informal dance.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. L. F. Root, at her home on Rose Ave., Thursday afternoon.

A male quartet composed of the Messrs. C. A. Meeker, Louis Bennett, Nolo Lindley and Herbert Alford has recently been formed under the direction of Mrs. Ed Andrews.

The quartet is doing some very good work and no doubt the public will hear from them in recital in the near future.

Miss Jean Budge was hostess to the High Jinks club at her home on West Tenth street Thursday evening. Those present were Gladys Pearl, Joan Andrews, Frances Kenny, Leah Walther, Jean Budge, Flora Welsh, Kathryn Swem, Laura Page, Maurine Hiatt, Louise Williamson, Margaret Soutter and Sadie Lacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bowman entertained with a dinner party Monday evening at their home on Laurel street. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. King, Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKee and Miss Boss Blackford.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moody, 311 N. Central avenue, Wednesday evening, this being their regular monthly business meeting. The subject for discussion was "Missions." Mrs. J. T. Carpenter had charge of the program, ably assisted by Mrs. Jones, a state worker, and Mrs. A. A. Moody of this city. At the close of the program Mrs. Moody served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Quigley. The members and friends were present as follows: Rev. and Mrs. Harry E. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Schuler, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Van Gilder, Mrs. B. F. Mulkey, Mrs. M. E. Darnell, Mrs. John Belling, Mrs. A. W. Walker, Mrs. E. R. Seely, Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Mrs. Gertrude Kipratic, Mrs. A. R. Coffin, Mrs. Emma Piel, Mrs. W. J. Scott, Mrs. Marietta Quigley, Misses Agnes Robinson, Marybelle Henson, Dorothy Tucker, Victoria Mulkey, Marjorie Tucker; Messrs. Floyd Quigley, Donald Moody, March Mulkey, Joseph Moody Moody, Benjamin Mulkey.

"Commerce and Transportation of South America was the topic under consideration at the last meeting of the Wednesday Study club. In behalf of the Drama league, Mrs. Brackinreed met with the study club to solicit their co-operation and interest in the Drama league. In her delightfully interesting manner Mrs. Brackinreed gave a resume of the beginning, work and result of the League of America and of Medford in particular.

After an open discussion by the club of current events, the regular program followed. Mrs. Stoddard gave an entertaining talk on the commerce of South America. Mrs. Wakeman read an interesting paper on the "Intercourse of Waterways" which was both instructive and entertaining. Mrs. Alford kindly extended an invitation to the members of the club to meet with her at her home on West Tenth street on December 15.

The regular homecoming of the Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church met Tuesday afternoon, with good attendance, representing the several divisions or circles. A large amount of business was discussed and plans laid for work during the winter months. Ladies of the Lo alty Circle will attend to church decorations for the month of December. A very attractive program, enthusiastically received, was as follows: Piano duet, Mrs. Van Scoyoc and Miss Vroman; reading, Mrs. Heine; address, Rev. Rollins; vocal solo, Mrs. Van Scoyoc. The company was then invited to the church basement, where delicious refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served.

The Women's Missionary society of the M. E. church South met in regular business session at the church Wednesday afternoon. After a brief business session officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. H. M. Brannan; first vice-president, Mrs. F. S. Brannan; second vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Bennett; recording secretary, Mrs. Riley D. Henson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Riley D. Henson; auxiliary treasurer, Mrs. William C. Rice; local treasurer, Mrs. William C. The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church meets in the church Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 7. Mrs. Carlton Jones has charge of the program, which will be musical. Hostesses, Mrs. E. S. Palmer, Mrs. P. J. Johnson.

The ladies of the St. Mark's Guild entertained members with a cafeteria luncheon Thursday afternoon in the St. Mark's Hall.

Mrs. C. J. McPike of Dunsmuir who is en route home from an extended visit through the east, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. O. Webster.

The Alumni Thanksgiving informal which was given Saturday evening in honor of Medford's victorious football team, proved to be one of the most pleasing informals ever staged by the younger set. The new armory dance floor and club rooms were procured for the occasion, thus enabling those not caring to dance, to indulge in cards, pool or billiards. Excellent dance music was supplied by a four-piece orchestra which consisted of piano, drums, banjo and mandolin.

The hall was beautifully decorated with a profusion of red and black streamers, pennants and posters as well as numerous turkeys, cornshocks pumpkins and other seasonal Thanksgiving decorations. Even the dance programs carried out the spirit of celebration, the color scheme being in red and black, while that long-to-be-remembered score, 7 to 0, was given a prominent place thereon.

A great deal of enthusiasm was shown when, after the 10th dance, a short intermission was announced, for the purpose of hearing a few remarks from Coach Klum and various members of the championship football team of southern Oregon. Mr. W. H. Gore started the ball rolling by a pleasing congratulatory address, in which he expressed the general opinion that much of the credit should go to Coach Klum for the splendid showing made by the team. The coach, however, when called upon for a speech, gave the credit to the untiring efforts of the boys, outlining a small part of the daily work. They had undergone and commenting on their "pepful" spirit which won the decisive game with Ashland.

The speeches following, made by Captain Lundberg, Torony Calhoun and other members of the team, awarded the credit for their victory to their coach, for whom they could not say enough in commendation of his methods.

Following the speeches, Cheer Leaders Rosenthal and Bennett led a series of yells for Coach Klum and the team, dancing then being resumed for the rest of the evening.

About 12 p. m. the party broke up, the team expressing their gratitude to the alumni for a most enjoyable evening. The following patrons and patronesses were present: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bennett, and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Soutter.

A "stag dinner" was held at the Hotel Medford, Thursday evening, for the purpose of forming a new club in Medford's social circles. This club, which is composed of the following young men: Herbert Alford, Lyle Walther, James Vance, Earl Hubbard, Charles Ray, Will Beveridge, Horace Bromley, Milton Schuchard, Frank Ray, Carter Brandon and Francis Bennett will be known as the "Comrades." This name being chosen from the French as properly expressing the spirit of membership. After partaking of an elaborate eight course dinner which was interspersed with numerous songs, stories, and speeches, a short business meeting was held and an executive committee elected. This committee will be composed of Messrs. Frank Ray, Milton Schuchard and Horace Bromley. Before adjourning the following affairs were outlined for the coming week: Monday evening, smoker at the Ray residence; Thursday evening, theatre party for "Twin-Beds," and Friday evening an informal dancing party at the Alford residence on West Tenth street. After a motion to adjourn was carried, the "Comrades" left the hotel and embarked on a serenading expedition, the details of which are more or less vague and uncertain.

The Hustlers Sunday school class of the M. E. church were uniquely entertained Friday evening at the box-ball parlors on Grape street, as the guests of their teacher, George J. Kuzman. Those present were: Misses Ethel Anderson, Nellie Campbell, Edna Marquis, Irene Francis, Angie Bailey, Lee Bailey, Hazel Wiley, Margaret English, Jannie Smith, Doris Layne and Mrs. Kuzman. Miss Ethel Anderson received the honors of bowling the largest score.

Mrs. August Lawrentz was hostess to a large crowd of her friends and neighbors recently, when she entertained with a dance at her rural home in the Oak Grove district.

About sixty five were present to partake of her generous hospitality. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, after which were served refreshments of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee. About midnight the crowd dispersed thanking their hostess for one of the many pleasant evenings spent at her home.

The regular business meeting of the Grizzlies was held at the Public Library Thursday evening at which time plans were made for a sheet and pillow case party to be held in the Natatorium hall, Dec. 10th.

The Neighborhood Shakespeare club met at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Johnson when the completed the study of Othello. The next study to be taken up by the club will be The Merchant of Venice.

In response to a general request for a series of informal weekly invitation dancing parties by the many devotees of dancing in Medford, particularly those not having a membership in the one or two dancing clubs of the city, arrangements have been made to organize a dancing club to which invitations will be issued, good for the entire series.

The club rooms and hall of the Seventh company have been engaged for the winter and the music will be furnished by Miss Jeunesse Butler's orchestra, thus assuring music of the highest class. The first ball will be given Saturday evening, December 11, from 9 to 12, and thereafter on every Saturday evening until further notice.

It will be the purpose to make the parties the week-end social event for those devoted to dancing, providing a place where the various social "sets" can arrange to congregate and hold their regular dancing parties without the necessity of financing an exclusively arranged ball.

In addition to the dance program, the parlors and billiard rooms of the Seventh company will be at the disposal of the guests, thus affording a pleasant diversion for those not caring to dance on the program.

It is expected that the series will be very popular, as there are very many who enjoy an occasional dance, but who do not care to take a membership in or assume the obligation of assisting to maintain an organized dancing club. The invitation list will be select, but will be extended to the surrounding towns of the valley in order to make the parties a general meeting place for those socially inclined.

An invitation to the regular series will be as much coveted as invitations to the previous balls given at the Seventh Company club rooms, and which have been so popular.

Miss Orbie Natwick was hostess at a delicious five course luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. M. Andrews on Roosevelt avenue Sunday evening for the pleasure of Miss Kathryn Deuel, who left Wednesday for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

The table was prettily decorated with lavender, chrysanthemums and ferns tied with pink tulle and hand-painted place cards. The guests were Misses Frances Kenny, Joan Anderson, Kathryn Deuel, Babe Cochran, Thomas Scantlin, Frank Ray, Horace Bromley, Dave and Harry Rosenburg.

The Country Club will give a series of musicals to be held Sunday afternoon at the club house during the winter months.

The first musical was given Sunday afternoon Nov. 28th. Solos were rendered by Mr. S. Vilas Beckwith, Mr. H. W. Bingham, while impromptu selections were given by Mrs. Frank Owens, Miss Margaret Hubbard and Mr. E. F. Guthrie.

A merry party of friends were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Duff at their hospitable home Saturday evening, November 27. Dancing, games, music and social converse were the order of the evening and the hours sped merrily by. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served and all departed after thanking their host and hostess for a most pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Irwin left this week for Chicago where they will spend the winter.

The ladies of the Catholic church will hold a fair December 15, 16, 17 and 18.

MAMMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED

Look at Tongue! Move Poisons From Liver and Bowels at Once.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Co.
