

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

ASHLAND, Dec. 3.—On Wednesday the city council went over the budget and pared down the estimates. The levy is to be 18.2 mills instead of a trifle over 20 mills, as originally made. The several levies, with the amounts to be raised, are as follows:

General, 6.2 mills, $17,204.94; street, 1.5, $4,162.48; fire, 0.9, $2,497.49; park, 1.2, $3,329.99; library, 0.9, $2,497.49; auxiliary water, 0.4, $1,100; publicity, 0.2, $555; interest and bonds, 6.9, $19,147.43. Total, 18.2 mills, yielding $50,504.82. The assessed valuation is $2,774,990, of which $2,409,990 is real and personal schedules and $365,000 corporation.

Added to the above will be the county and state levy of 15 mills, and the school levy of 9 mills, making a grand total of 42.2 mills.

Including the council there wasn't a baker's dozen at the hearing, although the announcement of the final revision had been widely advertised.

A portion of the Oregon building on the exposition grounds will eventually reach Ashland in the dim future. The structure having been disposed of to the highest bidder for $1520, its logs will be converted into matches, consequently upon a reasonable hypothesis a portion of these lighters will appear here sooner or later and "go up in smoke," as did the original removal enterprise.

Mrs. Edith Deardorf, residing here, has traded residence property in Portland to G. W. Scott for his house and lot on North Main street. The exchange as to possession occurs January 15 prox.

Jim Porter, old-time railroad man in these parts, is revisiting friends here and renewing allegiance to various Masonic orders while on a business trip to Portland. He is now in the employ of the Western Pacific, with headquarters at Oroville, Cal.

On Wednesday evening Malta commandery No. 4, Knights Templar, elected the following officers: W. E. Newcombe, eminent commander; Stuart Saunders, generalissimo; O. Winter, captain general; E. V. Carter, treasurer; W. H. McNair, recorder; O. F. Carson, senior warden; George T. Collins, senior warden; W. E. Newcombe, installation, December 15.

The condition of Postmaster Kaiser continues to improve rapidly, and if no complications ensue he will go home to his old home around again. A rather hospital patient, is C. C. Weisenburg, operated upon recently for hernia, whose case is progressing favorably.

The city election will occur Tuesday, December 21, and on Thursday evening the council at a meeting of the adjourned regular classification perfected arrangements as to the places, judges and clerks of election. Millard Grubb, recently with Hossler's cigar store, is the new clerk in the postoffice, having succeeded to the position by virtue of passing a most satisfactory examination under the civil service months ago.

Judge C. B. Watson has returned to the practice of law, re-entering a field with which he is eminently familiar. He does this after a most strenuous experience with the "back to the soil" movement, inaugurated the past summer on his broad acres east of town. For the present he has offices with E. D. Briggs in Pioneer block.

The trenchant pen of W. W. Watson, as general utility man on the Mail Tribune, is noted with evident satisfaction, particularly in connection with signed articles on the beet propaganda, irrigation and other phases of industrial development.

Rev. F. W. Carsten of Medford, pastor of the Baptist church, will read a paper on "Christian Science" at the sessions of the Rogue River Valley Ministerial association, which

The condition of M. G. Lawrence of Buckhorn Lodge, east of Ashland, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, remains serious. He has been removed from home surroundings to a local hospital. The stroke came on while he was at work on the ranch.

The Misses Mary and Fannie Scott of Wilkesburg, Pa., who have been visiting relatives here in the Myer and Anderson families for several months past, left for Pasadena, Cal., this week, where they will remain during the winter.

Mrs. Jessie Ferguson, wife of Jas. Ferguson, inspector of engines at the S. P. roundhouse, returned on Tuesday from the exposition. She also visited a sister and other relatives residing in the vicinity of San Francisco.

Members of the Odd Fellows fraternity, including subordinates and Rebekahs, united in holding a social on Tuesday evening, at which the customary hospitality of the order was exemplified both prodigally and proverbially.

F. H. Carter of Eugene is renewing the acquaintance of a host of friends here on his way home from the exposition. He made the southern trip by the "wet" route, having taken a sea voyage from Portland to San Francisco.

W. J. McEnaney of Dunsmuir, S. P., master car builder, has been in town this week inspecting work at this terminal.

George Milner is now helper with John Creek's crew of bridge and tunnel workers, with headquarters here.

Mrs. F. C. Hollibaugh of Sisson has been visiting Ashland friends this week. As Miss Ethlyn Hurley she was formerly one of the popular teachers in the local schools.

F. S. Bramwell of La Grande, active promoter of the beet sugar enterprise, will be here on Friday and Saturday of this week. In company with R. N. Harris, an old-time acquaintance who now conducts the Atlas rooming house, he will make a canvass of local territory in behalf of securing more beet sugar acreage.

Wren Byrum expects to leave next Monday for his boyhood home in North Carolina.

The school meeting last Saturday did not draw much of a crowd, only seven voters being present. The board explained that owing to the decrease in children of school age in the district and the amount that they draw from the county fund being cut down that a tax of 2.5 mills would be necessary to meet the expenses of the next school year. The tax was unanimously voted and a movement was launched to have the well sunk several feet deeper, parties present promptly volunteering to donate the work.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamberg's Hot Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamberger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone. Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

"TWIN BEDS"—Not a Motion Picture

An important event announced for the Page theater on Thursday, December 9, will be the initial presentation of "Twin Beds," a rollicking farce of life among the flat dwellers, by Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo, author of "Habs Mine," which comes here direct from a record run of an entire year in New York City, where press and public acclaimed it as one of the funniest the American stage has ever known.
