

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Something tangible has developed in regard to the hotel problem here. The owners of the Hotel Oregon property have given the hotel committee a signed pledge agreeing to expend $15,000 in the way of remodeling and equipment, provided citizens raise $1800 in the way of a bonus. This is deemed reasonable, and some have even raised the question why the citizens' share in the guarantee should not have been larger. As a consequence, the hotel atmosphere has been cleared, inasmuch as it is taken for granted the $1800 will be speedily forthcoming. As a starter, the Ashland Printing Co. (Tidings office) has pledged $100 toward the fund, provided the $1800 is fully subscribed for. The outlook promises an early beginning of the improvement work which will remodel the Oregon into an up-to-date hotel in keeping with the position Ashland is assuming as a pleasure center.

Mrs. Sarah Emeline Cotter, mother of Bert Cotter, Southern Pacific conductor, died in this city Tuesday morning. She was 62 years of age and a widow. Her remains were taken to Dunsuir for burial.

Mrs. Frank Burgess, wife of the deputy superintendent of the Metropolitan Life at Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Puraker. The Burgess family formerly lived at Medford.

Elvidge McWilliams is now stationed across the Mexican border in the vicinity of Calexico, Cal., superintending the shipment of cotton, of which staple he reports an extra heavy crop this season throughout the Imperial valley and adjacent Mexican territory.

The "White Pennant" auto line is a new feature in the jitney service between here and Medford. M. L. Meadows is proprietor and his Ford car leaves Ashland at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. and 4:10 and 7:40 p. m., stopping anywhere en route on signal.

Siskiyou Chapter, No. 21, Royal Arch Masons, will hold its annual election of officers on Thursday evening, December 16. This body has recently received a number of chapter pennies to which members are entitled.

Dr. A. W. Swedenburg plans to leave here in the near future and goes to Chicago, from which center he will decide upon a location. He is succeeded here by Dr. E. A. Woods, formerly of Rogue River. Dr. Gordon McCracken of Medford, homeopathic practitioner, will occupy Dr. Reeder's former offices, 71 Gresham street, Tuesday and Friday each week from 10 to a. m. till noon.

A. C. Joy, proprietor of the Produce-Consumer orchards, out on the Boulevard, now that the fruit season is over, is turning his attention to the shipment of potatoes on a large scale, the spuds being in good demand this season. These have been shipped mostly by parcel post in 50-pound sacks, the consignments aggregating several tons. Practically all were sent to Sawyer's Bar, in Siskiyou county. The postage on each sack was 54 cents in that particular zone.

The private car Pacific, occupied by Chief Engineer Barlow and party, out on a tour of inspection, was at this terminal Monday.

It has transpired that Charley Moore, residing in the Bellevue neighborhood, was the victim who was inveigled into accompanying the Old Fellow contingent to Medford on Monday night, when a class was initiated into the mysteries of the order.

Frank Snyder, whose house was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon, also lost a ton of dried prunes, stored upstairs in the dwelling.

Mrs. Kate Green of Montana has been visiting of late with the family of G. E. Carpenter, residing on Liberty street.

One of the buildings on the Normal grounds has been turned into a "bug house," which means that the government entomological station which heretofore has been located near the high school, has made a change of base to normal surroundings.

The American Motorist, official journal of the American Automobile association, published at Washington, D. C., in its December issue has a full-page illustrated article dealing with Ashland in general and specifically with its automobile park and other recreation grounds, from the pen of Morris J. Duryea, publicity manager of the Commercial club.

The publicity department of the Commercial club has in press a large edition of sixteen-page pamphlets, the text of which will dwell particularly on the climatic features of this section, also affording an analysis of Ashland's various mineral springs-waters, pertinent subjects which could not, for want of space, be given sufficient publicity in the "glass of water" booklets.

R. B. Riley of this city, in the Portland Journal, is taking issue with other correspondents over the vexed theological question of Joshua commanding the sun to stand still, contending that no such literal command appears in holy writ, and in support of this contention quotes both ancient and modern prophets. This is no Josph.

C. W. Winne of Ashland appears in a recent report of the state industrial accident commission as having sustained a sprained knee. Occupation, railroading.

The civic improvement Christmas bazaar was held in the Cunningham block, corner Main and Granite streets, on December 15. An oyster supper, followed by an entertainment, will be given at the Baptist church Friday evening, December 17, and on the same evening a hard times social will be held at Bellevue schoolhouse, proceeds of which will go toward the annual Christmas tree fund of that enterprising district.

J. M. Mashburn of Little Shasta valley, and former resident here, is in town on a business matter involving a realty deal.

Joe Brown of Medford, "the man who sells dirt," was here on Tuesday attending to business matters.

Harry B. Brophy of Polk county, a former warden of the state penitentiary, and who accidentally shot himself recently with fatal results, was a native of Jackson county and near relative of the Brophy and Beeson families of Talent.

Two local scoundrels were haled into the recorder's court Tuesday morning, and one of them was fined for assault and battery in the sum of $10. The offense occurred last Saturday night. Prosecution was delayed awaiting result of plaintiff's injuries, he having been roughly handled in the fray.

WILLOW SPRINGS

Frank Ferguson of Foots creek was transacting business here Saturday.

Roland Burkholz entertained Richard Low Saturday afternoon.

Karl Hammond is spending several weeks with his brother, Frank, of this district.

Lola Blackford was dinner guest of Lucy and Ralph Kiden Saturday.

Several persons from Willow Springs enjoyed the comedy "Twin Beds" at Medford Thursday evening.

J. P. Hoagland and family, H. M. Porter and family motored to Gold Hill Sunday.

Grove Cook returned to his home Tuesday morning from Butte Falls.

O. S. Blackford attended the irrigation meeting in Central Point Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone arrived in Lewistown, Idaho, Friday. They will celebrate the yuletide with their daughter, Mrs. L. M. Foss.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sisty were dinner guests at the Glen Ridge orchard Thursday evening.

The high school orchestra of Central Point were entertained at the home of Miss Ethel Dean Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kennedy and daughter Ruth moved to their new home in the Illinois valley Monday. Mr. Clarke of Talent accompanied them to the new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lake and son, Harland, spent Sunday with Will Lewis and family of Kane's creek also Mr. and Mrs. John Sisty visited the family one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond was host and hostess to the following guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindley of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merriman of the Modoc orchard and Karl Hammond of Medford.

A number of the young people of this district attended the old fashioned spelling match at Tolo Friday evening. The teacher of the school had the program in charge and was well paid for her efforts as there was a large attendance.

Chrysanthemums adorned the pretty dinner board of Colonel Mims, who on Sunday had for guests Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Mrs. Frank McKee, daughter and son.

The meeting of the Grange Saturday evening proved to be a busy one. The election of officers was the main topic of interest. Nearly all the officers were re-elected. The installation of the officers of the Agate and Willow Springs Granges will be held at Central hall the first week in January. The road between Seeno-ville avenue and the hill road is impassable, so a petition was signed by all the Grangers and will be presented because swollen glands or inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows. As Nature's corrector of throat troubles the pure cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue; its tested glycerine is curative and healing, while this wholesome emulsion relieves the trouble and upbuilds the forces to resist tubercular germs and avert the weakening influence which usually follows. If any member of your family has a tender throat, get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion today. Physicians prescribe it to avert throat troubles, overcome bronchial disorders and strengthen the lungs. No alcohol or harmful drugs. Always insist on Scott's.

to the county court for action. The gravel is only thirty feet from the road, and yet, it is the worst piece of road in the district. Work must be done before the first of the year or there will be "something doing."

Mrs. George Pankey was hostess at one of the most charming parties of the month when she entertained a bevy of ladies at her home on Millonaire Drive Thursday afternoon.

The rooms were handsomely embellished with great shaggy chrysanthemums in shades of yellow, pink and white. Miss McNasser was content after winning high honors of the afternoon entertainment and Miss Hamerick demurely accepted the consolation. Toothsome viands were served to the following ladies, Mesdames Shipley, Ross, Wayne Leever, Kenneth Beebe, James Cornutt, May Childers, R. W. Moon of Grants Pass, Erail Lewis, Percy Merrill, George Pankey and Misses Pearl Ross, M. Hamrick, and Francine McNasser.

Muffins

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. When muffins are on the breakfast table, nobody cares for meat or eggs and they would be served more often if this meal were not prepared so hurriedly that there is no time to make them. If K. C. the double-raise baking powder is used, the batter may be stirred up the night before, put in the pan ready for baking and nothing to do in the morning but bake them.

One-Egg Muffins 2 cups flour; 2 slightly rounded teaspoonsful K. C. Baking Powder; 1 teaspoonful salt; 4 egg sugars; 4 cup melted butter or lard; 1 egg; 1 cup water or milk. Sift dry ingredients together three times. Add to this the unbeaten egg, melted shortening and water or milk. Then beat all together until perfectly smooth. Oil muffin or gem pans and have even sold until the muffins come to the top of the pan, then increase the heat to bake and brown the muffins. This recipe makes 12 large muffins. Raisins or currants may be added if desired.

Graham Muffins 1 cup graham flour; 1 cup pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K. C. Baking Powder; 1 to 2 level tablespoonsful sugar; 2 teaspoonsful salt; 1 egg; 1/2 cups milk or water; 2 to 3 tablespoonsful melted butter; mix and bake as One-Egg Muffins. Graham batter should always be quite soft to insure light and moist muffins. To get 85 other recipes as good as these, send us the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder, and we will send you "The Cook's Book" by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill. Handsomely illustrated. Jacques Mfg. Co., Chicago.
