

A joyful family reunion was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bunnell, 246 South Ivy street, on Christmas day, members of the family meeting at that time who had not met for twenty-six years. Among those present were: O. B. Bunch of Fort Klamath, R. J. Bunch of San Francisco, Mrs. Eva Smith of Portland and Ray Bunch and family of Dunsmuir, Cal. The eldest son, residing in Portland, found it impossible to be present. Reminiscent stories were told of experiences since members of the family had met, fortunes and misfortunes were compared and a general flood of converse of family interest was enjoyed. The chef of the day, having been bountifully supplied by a good Santa Claus, provided a meal fit for the royal family. Altogether, it was a day of interesting communion among brothers and sisters and parents.

The Alumni annual Christmas ball, which occurred Monday evening, Dec. 27th, was indeed a fitting conclusion for a successful social year, in which the Alumni figured most prominently. The affair took place in the large hall of the Natatorium, the music being in charge of Hazelrigg's five-piece orchestra. An elaborate scheme of decoration had transformed the large hall into a lovely bower of holiday greens for this occasion. The dance floor was entirely surrounded by a hedge of fir trees, forty or fifty in number, creating a realistic outdoor effect. From various points in the ceiling were suspended huge clusters of mistletoe tastefully decorated with red poinsettias and streamers. On either side of the stage stood a large Christmas tree with myriads of tiny colored lights shining forth. The stage itself was almost entirely concealed by a network of natural ivy and red chrysanthemums white here and there hung red Christmas bells. The Alumni colors, red and black, decorated all entrances to the dance floor, combining beautifully with the profusion of natural greens, used throughout the hall. A plentiful supply of delicious punch was dispensed from a punch booth, artistically covered with fir boughs and natural moss. Even the programs were unique, being beautifully embossed with the Alumni monogram in red and black.

One of the most brilliant scenes ever witnessed in Medford was presented when over one hundred of Medford's younger set assembled for the grand march. From that time on the evening was one continuous round of enjoyment for everyone, the last dance being hailed with regret.
