

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Professor W. E. Buchanan, wife and son, Key, of Ashland, stopped-off on their return from Butte Falls, where they had been to spend the holidays, and visited some of their old friends here.

Benj. H. Brophy, son-in-law of one of our townsmen, Thomas E. Nichols, was in town last Tuesday, and while here renewed his subscription to the W. M. T.

Mrs. J. M. Riggan and her niece, Miss Gladys Holmes, of Derby, came out on the P. & E. the first of the week and spent the night with us on their way to the Medford hospital.

George L. Nelson, who has a home-stead near the junction of Big Butte and Rogue river, has been time-keeper on the Pacific highway under Chris Natwick, returned to his home Thursday, having come out from Medford the day before and spent the night with us, and while here gave me his subscription for the Daily Mail Tribune.

A. G. Bishop, proprietor of the Hollywood orchard, was doing business among us last Thursday.

William Almy of Yreka, Cal., came in on the P. & E. last Thursday, took dinner at the Sunnyside and went on up to visit his mother, Mrs. Martin Bows, of Lake Creek.

Mike Hanley and his son Mike, Harry Young and William Heckathorn, were also here for dinner the same day.

E. P. Anthony of McMinnville, Or., who is out buying up hides for the Albany Tanning company, was also with us Thursday.

Thursday night the Eagle Point and Central Point basketball teams played in the opera house before a good audience, and the result was that the Central Point boys came off away behind, the score standing: Eagle Point, 32, and Central Point, 15, and the next morning one of our lady boarders was so hoarse that she could not call "Number, please."

Robert Polonze, formerly one of the Medford high school boys, but now a student in the University of California, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, assisted the Eagle Point team very materially.

We have a stock law in our little village and our mayor is very particular to see that if any of the farmers' stock ventures over the line that the marshal runs them into the pound, and a short time ago he ran four hogs in and they were advertised for sale and duly sold, and they brought $3.25, and the feed bill was $11, so the original owner lost his hogs and the town was in debt $7.75—a very unprofitable business for the town.

Charles Bacon, the conductor on the Pacific & Eastern railway, spent the night with us Thursday. He stopped off to attend a meeting of the lodge of the I. O. O. F.

Rev. Taylor has been conducting services here during the week, but the attendance has been very small, owing perhaps in part to the fact that since he commenced his meeting Friday night, that night there were two or three little social gatherings and Saturday night there was a dance in the opera house, Sunday night a picture show, Monday night basketball practice, Tuesday night basketball game, Wednesday night there was nothing of note that I heard of, Thursday night the E. P. and C. P. basketball game and dance and meeting of the I. O. O. F. lodge, and Friday night it rained so that some had to stay away from church on that account. But notwithstanding the hindrance there seems to be some good being done, and I understand that it is to be continued all next week, until and including Sunday, January 9.

Fayette Sunderlin of Medford was out and spent two nights with us the last week.

Sam Sandry, the fish warden of Rogue River—the town—and George Atkins of Medford were here Thursday. Mr. Sandry was trying to find out where the ditches are that he may put in traps to prevent the fish from going down the ditches, and Mr. A. just came along for an auto ride.

Miss Alma Gould, who is teaching school in the Lake Creek district, and has been taking a lay-off, returned to her school home Saturday on the E. P. and L. C. stage. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Beebe of Agate, who was on her way to reopen her school in Brown-shore.

Since my last report B. H. Brophy and L. A. Smith have renewed their subscriptions to the W. M. T. Geo. H. Nelson of Prospect has subscribed for the Daily Mail Tribune and S. F. Coy has renewed his subscription to the D. M. T.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown and daughter of Talent were week-end visitors at the home of Prof. F. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Morcom and Misses Etta and Margaret Morcom came down from Ashland last Friday to spend New Year's with relatives living here.

Miss Marion B. Towne of Phoenix spent a few hours in Jacksonville Tuesday.

Misses Mildred and Mae Thompson returned to their home in Portland Monday, having spent the holidays with their sister, Mrs. C. J. Numan.

Mrs. Sam Walsch entertained the Royal Neighbors with an old-fashioned quilting bee at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry L. Porter of Gold Hill is visiting relatives living here.

Frank Nell of Prospect is spending the week in Jacksonville.

Wm. Usher of Ashland attended to business matters at the county seat Thursday.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Paul S. Bandy Wednesday when she entertained the sewing club. Additional guests were Mrs. Roy Smith and Mrs. Helen Porter of Gold Hill.

Adel Chapter, O. E. S., held their installation on Thursday evening, the following officers being installed: Jennie Florey, worthy matron; Chauncey Florey, worthy patron; Nellie Fick, associate matron; Nettie Thompson, conductress; Olga Smith, associate conductress; Lulu Williams, secretary; Anna Langley, treasurer. A regular program was rendered, followed by a banquet.

The Misses Alice and Edythe Hoef entertained Saturday evening with a farewell party in honor of their brother, Henry Hoef, who left Sunday morning for Seattle to rejoin the navy. The house was beautifully decorated in the national colors, red, white and blue flowers being used as a centerpiece on the dining room table. The favors for the evening for the girls were silk flags and tiny kiewpie sailors for the boys. The invitation list included Gretchen Puhl, Emma Wendt, Minnie Kelly, Flora Thompson, Laura Thomas, Cora Thomas, Marion Bower, Jewell Bailey, Etta Morcom, Margaret Morcom, Chester Wendt, James Francis, Denver Marsh, Sidney Abbott, Julian Abbott, Lester Thompson, Alfred Norris, Lou Baker, Fred Collins, Dan Bagshaw and Babe Kennedy.

Miss Dorland Robinson will give an exhibition of her painting at the Hotel Holland next Friday afternoon. The exhibition is under the direction of the Greater Medford Club and a large crowd is anticipated to view the young artist's work. Miss Robinson is a native of Jacksonville and has studied both in San Francisco and Philadelphia and at present is devoting her time to portrait painting.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Elbert Glass is very sick with a gripple. Dr. Chisom of Gold Hill has made several visits, and we are glad to hear that the patient is improving under his care.

Dr. Bowen and Victor Creighton are improving their fine Beagle ranch. They have built an addition to their barn and are clearing the land adjoining the public road, near the Beagle store.

Mrs. Nelson of Medford is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Frank Murdoch.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stacy were visiting the home folks Sunday.

Mr. Kincaid and sons are busy these winter days clearing their land with an up-to-date stump puller.

William Jones, the Beagle ranger, was attending to business in the valley towns Monday.

We were not surprised to learn that our road master got tired by the commissioners. Joe knows what the good hook tells us—no man can serve two masters, and he was trying to

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up. Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more snoring, sneezing, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, sanative, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.
