ASHLAND AND VICINITY

A mobilization of entertainments is planned here on the occasion of celebrating the formal opening of the mineral springs project. The dates are Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 3, 4 and 5. The attractions include a sweet pea festival, a children's pageant, also Shrine ceremonial and minor diversions. The major feature, however, will be the "dedication" of the big resort project which Ashland has had under way for a year past, involving the expenditure of $200,000. Fountains and statues from the San Francisco exposition are on the way here to further embellish Lithia park, and by the dates mentioned elaborate ornamentation of the entire park and camp grounds system will be complete. Following in rapid succession will be the annual chaunauqua assembly, with all the social and literary features which the gathering implies. The celebration of the springs installation will not be confined to Jackson county or even southern Oregon, inasmuch as many from outside of state boundaries have signified an intention of being present.

Adjutant General White, Colonel Creede and Captain Collins, who were in this city early in the week on a tour of inspection of the Coast Artillery status here, visited the high school on Tuesday morning, escorted by officers of First company, and addressed the students on both civil and military topics to the delight and edification of pupils of that institution.

Mrs. P. Provost, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, has been removed to the home of her son Sylvan, residing on Meade street. Her daughters, the Misses Helen and Laura, of Portland, have returned here to care for their mother. Miss Helen is a trained nurse connected with St. Vincent's hospital in the metropolis.

Matt Johnson, residing up the canyon at 428 Granite street, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Monday. He was a former employe of the ice plant.

Sami Theller, the well-known moving picture operator at Yreka, has fallen heir to a specific bequest of $15,000 from his mother's estate, Mrs. Annie Theller of San Francisco, having left $100,000 to be divided between four sons and two daughters.

Jim Hersey, residing on Helman street, is pruning and spraying his busy bees preliminary to a productive season looked forward to next summer. He has 280 stands which returned extra dividends last year. They are colonized in a favored locality across the California border.

City ordinance No. 613, in effect after December 27, 1915, deals exhaustively with the electric light, power and heat service under the merger of the municipal plant with the "old" corporation, which means the California-Oregon Power Co. Among a multiplicity of regulations, section 13 provides that "the electric light committee of the council is authorized to install a meter for a customer at any time it deems of advantage to the city." All the various classifications of major importance are subject to a minimum rate of $1 per month. Flat rates for lighting are on a sliding scale from $1 per month for four lights up to $2 per month for ten lights. A notable exception is made for "curling irons" at 25 cents per month. All flat rates are due and payable in advance on the first of each month. For range and complete cooking outfit for one family the rate is $3 per month. The meter service covers a wide range. A special electric light fund is also created in which all light and power revenues are segregated from other municipal receipts. All payments are due at recorder's office in city hall.

The season's basketball schedule includes a game with Eugene high at the local gym on Saturday, January 22, also a contest with the military on January 25 and 28, and dual games with Roseburg high on local grounds February 2 and 3.

George Stephenson, pioneer engineer, who has been seriously ill for some time past at his residence on Factory street, is reported improving.

The interscholastic debating status up to date is to the effect that Ashland won over Talent; Medford beat Grants Pass and will next compete with Ashland, the winner to try conclusions with Klamath Falls as a finale in determining the championship of southern Oregon.

Mrs. Ed Andrews of Medford met with the young ladies of the moral class of the civic improvement auxiliary on Tuesday evening at the library in the capacity of coach.

The Business Men's association met on Monday evening in the Commercial club rooms with only a corporal's guard present. Consequently no business was transacted. They will meet again in the same rooms next Monday evening, January 24, when election of officers will be in order. Indications point to a decision that the proposed merger with the commercial body as a bureau of that organization will not materialize.

Jackson Richardson of Hornbrook, who died last week, was the father of Mrs. B. Kennedy of Ashland, and was a well-known resident of Siskiyou county.

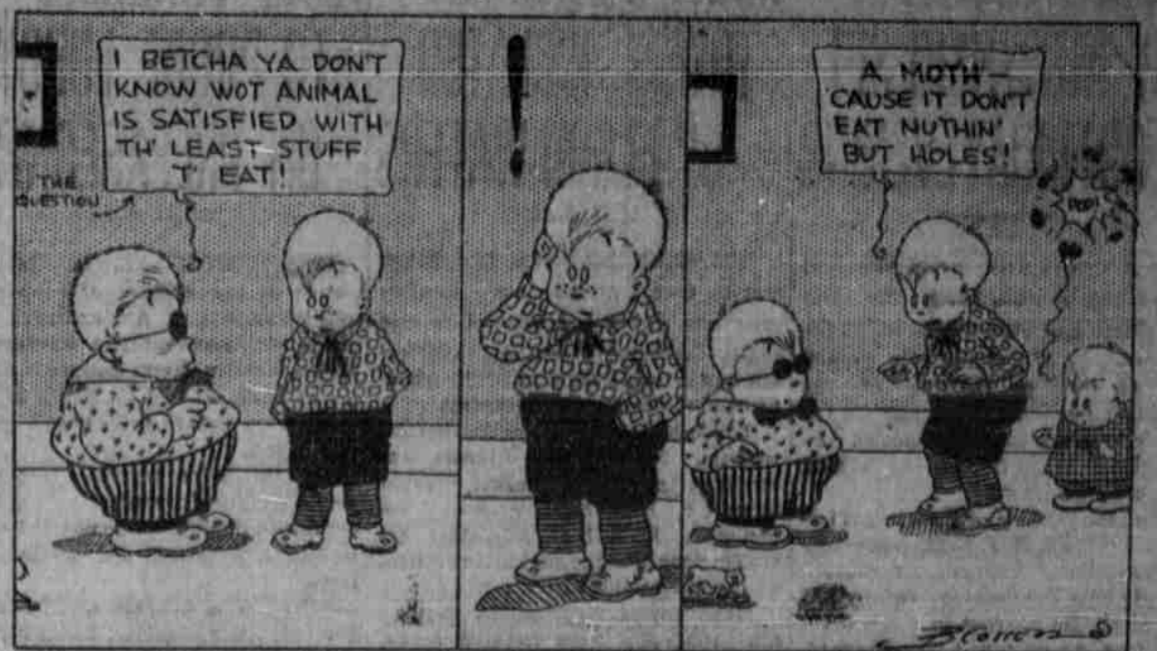

Letter-writing week is being duly observed here, the public schools taking the initiative, inasmuch as pupils have already had considerable experience along this line. Oregon as a state, Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties as subdivisions, the Rogue River valley as a favored spot and the beauties of Ashland as a municipality, come in for their share of exploitation and praise. A fair estimate places 5000 letters as the extra number which will be mailed from this vicinity within ten days under the "glass of water" enclosures.

A. J. Daley, a pioneer of Jackson county, who died recently at Eagle Point, aged 82, was the father of Mrs. Roseetta Potter of this city.

J. H. Dill, recently chosen chairman of the board of directors of the Fruit & Produce association, is a retired professional man from Oklahoma, now domiciled on an orchard tract in West Ashland.

Contractors are looking over plans and specifications of improvements on the Hotel Oregon, with as yet no definite results. It is conceded a major portion of labor on the job will be by day's work instead of specific contract.

"Dud" Dollarhide, proprietor of the old toll road over the Siskiyou, was in town on Tuesday looking for hay, there having been a shortage the past summer in his locality. He was referred to Charley Lindsay of this city, who this winter has been hauling over 500 tons in the vicinity of Edgewood, Cal.

O. H. Sneed, Western Union installation and repair expert, is in northern territory these days attending to repair work extensively. At last accounts he was at Seattle, extending the trip as far north as British Columbia. His family remains here.

The Portland Journal in its national guard notes of recent date, announces that Ed Thornton is mentioned as a candidate for captain of First company, the local contingent of the Coast Artillery corps. Thornton is a former captain of the company here before it was merged into the artillery branch of the service. He is a Spanish war veteran and saw service in the Philippines not long after Dewey bottled up the Spanish fleet in Manila bay.

many desired to go. We will miss the good kind friend and neighbor from our midst and our deep sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

Roy and Uriah Vaughan came home Saturday and the rest of the family will follow soon. Mr. Vaughan and Mrs. Guss Ditsworth have la grippe at present.

Mrs. Sid Nichol has been very sick for some time. Dr. Holt came up Saturday night and Sunday morning performed an operation, after which she will probably get better, though she is very weak.

Dr. Holt also made a professional visit to Mrs. Ditsworth as the gripe was about to get the best of her. She has begun to improve a little now. Miss Lytle was also "gripped" for a week or more.

John Orlove has "it" now, and Mr. Lewis had "it" for several days.

Ed Hollenbeck has had "it" too, but was able to be out on business Saturday and Sunday. He spent Saturday night with Frank Ditsworth.

In future it will be more of a news item and less of a task to chronicle the names of families who have not had the la grippe, instead of those who have. Can any family send in their names now to go on such a list.

Mr. Willits has been gathering cattle in this part of the country lately and spent Saturday and Sunday nights with the Gordon boys. He says Mrs. Willits has been sick with the gripe.

Chas. Manning spent one night recently with Dee Blanchard.

Mrs. Earl Ulrich has returned to her mountain home.

There has been no Sunday school or prayer meeting the past 2 weeks because of sickness and deep snow.

Mrs. Chartraw returned to her home at Derby Sunday and Bert Higbotham and family are now staying with his parents.

Miss Pearl Peyton had a very enjoyable party Saturday night, it being her birthday anniversary.

Messadams Dawson and Vinson spent Saturday night at Mr. Peyton's and attended the party.

Paul Peyton spent Saturday night at home.

Harold Peyton is visiting in this vicinity at present.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Not less meat if you feel backache or have bladder trouble—Salts due for Kidneys.

Most forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side, headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The uric acid is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uricous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent. It is a water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush this through faded, lifeless locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

LOOKING FOR WORK Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and healthful digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even housework, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Insist on Scott's. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 19-35
