To the men and women of Medford and the Rogue river valley, who by their attendance and support in many other ways, contributed to the splendid success of yesterday afternoon's Art exhibit at the Holland hotel, the ladies of the Greater Medford club extend their sincere thanks.

The ladies are particularly grateful to Mr. John A. Westlund, the management of the Hotel Holland for the many courtesies extended, to the Medford Mail Tribune and the Medford Sun for the valuable space they gave us, to the Medford artists for their delightful program and to Dr. J. Lawrence Hill for his gift of five dollars.

To the ladies of the various committees who worked so diligently and uncomplainingly to make the event a joyous one to all who attended, particularly to the ladies on tea tables committee and the eight young ladies serving tea, who added so much to the beauty of the scene—all of whom denied themselves the pleasure of the program—the chairman of the civics department wishes to express her personal gratitude.

One of the chief pleasures of the afternoon afforded, was the opportunity of which many availed themselves to meet Miss Dorland Robinson, her mother, and grandmother. The affair was in the nature of an ovation to this young artist.

In order that all our towns-people may have an opportunity to see this beautiful collection of paintings, it was decided to keep the exhibit open Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock and 7 to 9 o'clock, Sunday afternoon and evening same hours. Admission ten cents.

While the main attraction of the afternoon was the fine art exhibit, a splendidly selected musical program added greatly to the pleasure of the guests, each member receiving several encores.

Piano solo, Mrs. F. W. Isaacs, Ta Rantella by Lescheperky.

Readings from Shakespeare, Mr. Ed Andrews.

Violin solo, Mrs. Paley.

Vocal solo, Mrs. Frederick Lunge, Sunshine and Rain, by Blumenthal.

Vocal solo, Miss Bess Bryan, Life's Merry Morning, by Eben Bailey.

Vocal solo, William Vawter, Mavis, Vocal solo, Herbert Alford, My Dearest Dear.

Piano solo, Miss Inez Cross of Portland.

Wednesday evening a number of friends of Gerald and Ora Wollam, who will leave soon to make their home in Los Cruces, New Mexico, gave them a pleasant surprise at their home on North Central ave.

The evening was spent with games and music followed by refreshments. The following were present: Misses Hazel Wiley, Ethel Anderson, Stella Anderson, Julia Wiley, Ruth Daniels, Mary Tinker, Vera Roundtree, Velma Woods, Georgia Whitlock, Mildred Heine, Lucretia Bateman, Georgia Williams, May Lindley, Alice Lyons, Grace Brainard, Esther Martin and Katherine Conner, Messrs. Curtis Darby, Cloyd Bishop, Harold Wiley, Dean Carder, Duane Goodman, Bernard Roberts, Nolo Lindley, Ralph Balem, Norman Maxwell, Melburn Harvey, Walter Wilson, Arthur Hess, Joseph Bateman, Lloyd Smith, Harold Leonard, Gerald and Ora Wollam.

Mr. Louis Gentner was pleasantly surprised by a few of his friends Friday evening at the home of Dr. E. R. Seely. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Seely assisted by Marybelle Henson and Agnes Robinson. Those present were Agnes Robinson, Emma Wendt, Lillian Pierce, Helen Pierce, Lenore Godlove, Margaret Mansfield, Marybelle Henson, Vera Hammond, Grace Perry, Marie Seely, Beulah Fausher, Nana Seely, Messrs. Clarence Pierce, Howard Grover, Louis Gentner, Chester Wendt, Ivan Wiley, Russell Wallace, Herbert Berrian, Claire Seely and Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Seely. Mr. Gentner leaves soon for the University of Wisconsin.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the young people of the First Baptist church Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carlom, on Laurel street. The program consisted of music, a society newspaper and a short debate. After the program an art contest was held and refreshments served.

The ladies of the Colony club met at the Hotel Medford Tuesday afternoon to continue the work of making bandages for the use of the Red Cross society.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Atwood left Thursday for San Francisco. From there they have engaged passage for Honolulu and will sail January 26.

Last Tuesday evening at 6:30 the Live Wires young men's class of the First Methodist Sunday school held a banquet in the social hall of the Methodist church in honor of their first anniversary. It was served by the Ladies' Aid of the institution, who certainly gave satisfaction to all of the twenty-eight present. The table was splendidly decorated, a row of shaded candles in the center, and other things attractive to the eye as well as to the stomach. The foremost of the menu was spring chicken, seasoned to suit the palate perfectly, accompanied by cranberry sauce, chicken gravy, mashed potatoes, corn, salad, celery and other nutritious foods, with cocoa and cake as a finishing touch.

The program opened with two splendid selections of Heine's two-piece orchestra, to encourage the appetite; then came the "rats" and everyone was filled to the brim. Following the dinner were toasts and music. Gerald Wollom, a prospective member of the class, acted as toastmaster, in which several of the members took part. Of these, H. A. Canady, the teacher of the class, was the first, giving a splendid address to the young men, telling them of the opportunities ahead of them, and that they were still boys and forever would be, for the stone that marks our lives is not the tombstone of our graves, but the character that we leave. Then the pastor, Dr. Rollins, told of the opportunities in belonging to a young men's class as the main theme. Following were toasts by the class president, Walter Hess, telling of the class activities, then by Ralph Balem and George Kunzman, telling of the name "Live Wires." Then a quartet by Messrs. Balem, Lawton, Lindley and Carder. Following were toasts from Miles Power and Dean Carder. The program was concluded by three selections from the orchestra, a toast by the pastor in honor of the ladies who served the banquet, one by Ralph Balem in honor of Gerald Wollom, who will leave for New Mexico next Monday, and another by Nolo Lindley in honor of the orchestra.

The banquet proved a success in every way and those present were well awarded in coming. The Live Wires are progressing slowly, but surely, and intend to make the banquet an annual affair, if not semi-annual.

The Dubious Decorum club and their friends passed a very enjoyable day Sunday, January 16, coasting on the foothills of Baldy mountain, making the trip there by wagon. There was an excellent picnic lunch spread at 12 o'clock, then more coasting, and a light lunch served, making it back to Medford about 6 p. m. Every one was slightly tired, but all had a very enjoyable time. Frank Wallace received a severe cut on his thumb, as he was sliding from his sled, which was the only thing to mar the pleasure of the day. Those making the trip were: Freda Binnis, Arthur Trautfeher, Ethel Trautfeher, Frank Wallace, Gertrude Trautfeher, Earl Hyatt, Iva McClain, Charles McClain, Tina Hartwig, John Whisenand, Mae Meadows, Homer McClain, Zenta Roberts, John Parker, Myrtle Purkeypile, Harold Hull, Chaparones: Mrs. M. L. Meadows and Mrs. C. A. Brown, William H. Stinson.

Last Saturday afternoon Master Albert Benjamin Collins gave a party for a number of his little friends at his home on West Tenth street, it being the occasion of his seventh birthday. The afternoon was spent with games and social amusements, after which refreshments were served. At the appointed hour the guests departed for their home, wishing him many more pleasant birthdays. Those present were: Ralph Barley, Almon Loomis, Ulen Hillis, Owen Walker, Maynard Putney, Kenneth Childers, Everett Noble, Sunnie Austin, Alfred Davis, Herschel Hazelton, David Wilcox, Arthur Stinson, Bernard Ticker and Albert Collins.

WIFE OF U. S. NAVAL OFFICER WHOSE BEAUTY MADE HER LEADER IN WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Mrs. L. W. Clarke, wife of Ensign Clarke, U. S. N., a Washington society woman and noted beauty.

It is regrettable that a larger attendance could not have enjoyed the session of the High School Parent-Teachers' circle last night. Its features of entertainment were especially enjoyable, while its program of instruction was unusually meritorious. Mrs. George Andrews and Mrs. Frederick Lunge delighted those present with a superb musical program, while Mrs. Porter J. Neff read an educational paper on "Home Reading and the Use of the Library." It was the product of a careful study of the subject under discussion and should have been heard by every teacher and school patron in the city.

The meeting was devoted to a sincere and earnest consideration of matters of special moment to teachers and parents alike. But the dearth of attendance lent an air of regret and disappointment to the assembled faithful few and served to diminish the desired measure of enthusiasm with which those features of public work should be received. Counter-attractions, of which there were several last night, served to reduce the attendance at the Parent-Teachers' meeting.

An enjoyable reception was given by the senior girls of the high school last Saturday afternoon at St. Mark's hall. The object of the entertainment was to welcome the girls of the Klamath Falls basketball team and to bring together the girls of the high school socially. The hall was appropriately decorated with pennants and pillows. A short program was given. Miss Bess Bryan, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Tucker, gave two delightful vocal selections, Miss Fedias Moran, a high school student, accompanied by Miss Lura Fouts, pleased everyone with her singing. The time was pleasantly spent in dancing and conversation. Later in the afternoon light refreshments were served. All left thoroughly satisfied with the pleasure of the afternoon and all pronounced the affair a complete success.

The dancing party which is to be given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Catholic church next Wednesday promises to be a very enjoyable affair, as no pains are being spared by the young ladies to make it a success. There will be special music by Hazelrigg's orchestra.

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church gives a lecture on the life of David Livingstone—"By Canoe and Caravan Through the Heart of Africa" Thursday evening at 7:30 in the church. This is a stereopticon lecture—a good lecture with pictures.
