JOBLESS MAN WITHOUT RIGHTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—(Ben Guidon), who spent $50 to appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals because of his arrest at Juneau, Alaska, March 15, 1915, for being on the streets of Juneau after 11 o'clock at night when without apparent means of support, was refused redress today by the higher court.

Guidon sought relief on a writ of habeas corpus from the federal district court at Juneau on the theory that a "man without a job" had the same constitutional rights on the streets at night as one "with a job." The federal courts upheld the Juneau ordinance under which the arrest was made.

ASHLAND PLAYERS BEAT THE UMPIRE

Referee Stephenson's decisions in the Roseburg-Ashland basketball game at the latter place last night appear to have excited the suspicion on the part of the Ashland players and fans that they favored Roseburg openly and palpably. When the game was concluded, with the result of 21-19, in favor of Roseburg, a number of furious fans seized the referee and, before he was rescued by a number of Medfordites, was severely beaten. It is reported today.

Friends of the referee and the Roseburg team got them in an automobile and hurried to this city for a safe and quiet night's rest.

The Missionary society held an interesting meeting at the Presbyterian church last Thursday afternoon.

The many friends of Mrs. Sarah Jane Nelson will be grieved to hear of her death, which occurred at her home Wednesday afternoon of heart failure. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon by the Christian Scientists, when a large number of friends paid their last tribute. Mrs. Wilson is survived by three sons, John Wilson, E. S. Wilson and Corley Wilson.

In a recent issue of one of The Dalles' leading papers, an extended account appeared of a party given by the Misses Reuter, the guest list numbering 100.

The Misses Reuter are sisters of Miss Elizabeth Reuter of this place and former Jacksonville girls.

Mrs. Anna Broad entertained the Royal Neighbors and a few additional guests at her home Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with needlework, followed by refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee and fruit. Following is a list of those present: Mesdames Lola McIntyre, Deatur Davis, Matilda Himke, Alice Ullrich, Ella Cook, Laura Ryan, S. E. Dunnington, Ada Bughaw, Lizzie Crommiller, Ella Walsh, Roundtree, Mattie Wilson, Roy Ullrich, T. J. Kenney, Nell Finney, A. L. Gore and Mrs. C. E. Conklin of Medford.

To Make Skin Clean

Don't worry about skin troubles. You can have a clear, clean complexion by using a little Zeno, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or extra large bottle at $1.00.

Zeno easily removes all traces of pimples, black heads, eczema, and ringworm and makes the skin clear and healthy. Zeno is neither watery, sticky, nor greasy and dries quickly. It is easily applied and costs a mere trifle for each application. It is always dependable.

Zeno, Cleveland.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Honors are easy between Ashland and Roseburg in respect to basketball results this season. The victory of Ashland over the visitors last Wednesday night, 25 to 14, was reversed on Saturday night, Roseburg winning by 21 to 19. The final game was in reality a tie within schedule limits, but the time was extended five minutes with results as above noted.

F. G. McWhorter is on the sick list, having been confined to the house since last Wednesday, but is now improving.

One only has to go across the state border into California to discover that fifty rules are in effect regarding mining as applied by the state industrial accident commission. These regulations are under various captions and are printed in English and Canton languages.

G. W. Crawford, for years night attendant at the depot hotel in this city, left Saturday for his old home in Michigan, called there by the illness of a brother.

Last Saturday evening the hospitable home of Wah Chung, 282 A street, was resplendent with Oriental decorations typical of the advent of the Chinese new year, though the observance was a trifle belated owing to the delay in the arrival of epicurean delicacies from the far east. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. W. Newell Wright.

The banquet occasion extended from 6 to 8 p. m. and was in keeping with the traditions of the flowery kingdom both as to extent and variety of entables and drinkables. Parrying of chop suey was required, although the manipulation of chopsticks was optional. Ashland's Chinese mandarin and his amiable wife, assisted by their daughter and son, were prodigal in the way of welcome and entertainment of their guests.

Theological discussions in the Lanekin realty offices in real interest bid fair to detract from attendance at the Fourth street mission. Argument parlades of both orthodox and heterodox opinion, with a trace of agnosticism occasionally on the side. Discussions are not confined to laymen, as quite often the voice of the clergy is heard elevated to concert pitch. The Old Testament has been reviewed and argument is now focused on the gospels and epistles, with baptism either by sprinkling or immersion as a favorite theme. Preparedness militant and the church triumphant are also topics which are rampant. A lively discussion can be precipitated at most any old time. Hours from 8 a. m. till 5 p. m., except on Sundays. To hear the text of St. John the Divine expounded will be a revelation. Bring your testimonials and hymn books, also a light lunch, if you remain over the noon hour.

The Western Union private car "Electric" went north last Friday afternoon, occupied by M. T. Cook, the new general manager of the Pacific division, this being his initial trip as head of the system in coast territory.

Grants Pass, formerly from Iowa, and well remembered by other Hawk-eagle residents now living here, has filed as republican candidate for district attorney of Josephine county. He represented the Josephine district in the last legislature.

Jim Yoo vacated his barber shop on North Main street, in the Allen block, February 7, and will join Nate Bates in conducting the Hotel Oregon shaving and both parlors, which will be equipped with further accommodations in line with extensive improvements now being made on that popular house.

C. H. Metcalf, bookkeeper for the springs commission, has been transferred to the offices of the publicity department of the Commercial club, under Director Duryea, as accountant and stenographer.

H. P. Holmes is making improvements to the store front of his grocery on North Main street.

An endless procession winds its way daily to the springs in park addition. Classified as to flow up to date, the sulphur delivery is gurgling, soft, intermittent. Pending adjustment, the main element also fluctuates, as until intricate machinery connected with pumps and charging apparatus is regulated permanently, "nobody knows when lithia flows." It may take weeks to perfect the system, during which period jugs, bottles and demijohns may from time to time be placed on the retired list. Contractors are bending every effort to untangle complications.

Mrs. Leah M. Collins, who died last week on the Mt. Pittview ranch in Table Rock precinct, was the daughter of Mrs. C. J. Foster of Ashland. The deceased leaves a husband and nine children. Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery.

John M. Grimsley, a new arrival from Montana, has bought the J. V. Kaiser ranch of ten acres, on the Erb road, two miles east of town. He is already in possession, and the place which has been neglected of late already takes on the appearance of great improvement. Kaiser is now a resident of Manton, Cal. The sale was made by the Beaver Realty Co.

In spite of a wide range of proclamations posted so that all who run may read, acts of vandalism are this early in the season being committed in the parks and on the scenic drives. On the latter particularly it is considered so cute to upset the rustic seats which have been placed at convenient spots where the canyon walls are the steepest. Mutilation of trees and shrubbery has also been noticed. "For the love of Mike, do not mar our pike!"

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Powers, originally from Albany, who came to this vicinity some time ago, have just returned here from an extended eastern visit, which took them as far as Washington and New York. For the time being they are stopping at Archie Miller's, on Hargadine street.

Among purchasers of Southern Pacific railroad lands, of which 371-634 acres has been sold in this state, the Ashland Manufacturing Co. is credited with being the holder of 2020 acres. The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. is the largest holder, owning 71,906 acres. The Hammond-Winton Lumber Co. owns next with 45,972 acres.

Yrebo's troubles over its Carnegie library, in which a small company was involved as guarantor, have been satisfactorily settled.

Albert H. Otto, residing south of the city limits on an orchard tract which was being cleared, died last Friday morning of pneumonia, after having been removed to a local hospital. He was a native of Wisconsin, 48 years old and unmarried. He was somewhat of a scholar, active in debate, and took a prominent part in the recent "out-to-win" prohibition campaign in the state, notably among southern Oregon workers. His remains will be taken to Appleton, Wis., for burial. Julius Otto of Medford is a half-brother of the deceased.

Miss Anna Hargrove left Saturday for San Francisco to inspect latest styles in millinery creations at the caputium in that city.

OVERWORKED MINISTER

Tells How Vinol Restored Strength and Vitality.

Medford people will realize that we could not publish such letters as the following if they were not genuine and truthful statements of fact. The Rev. Mr. Hughes, Holly Springs, Ark., says:

"I am a Methodist minister, and suffered from broken-down nerves, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. I was weak, my circulation was very poor and I was not able to do my duty in my parish as I felt I should. I had tried various remedies, but did not seem to get any better. Through Mr. Cartlin of Bearden, Ark., I learned of Vinol, and it built me up. I regained my appetite, can sleep better and do more work."

There is no secret about Vinol, it derives its power to build up the overworked, broken-down, nervous system from the medicinal extracts of fresh cod livers without oil combined with tonic iron and beef peptone.

Anyone in Medford, who wishes to try Vinol can do so with the understanding that we will return their money if they are not satisfied. Medford Pharmacy.—Adv.
