CHAPTER ONE.

Luke Leher worked in a clam foundry and the quitting whistle had just blown. Slowly he laid down his clam knife and kicked off his boots, Luke had a heavier load on his head than his hat, and his heart was all aflutter. On the way down to the 'mazuma' window he passed Aaron Aroma, the manager of the clam chasing department, in which Luke was now at present. "Hello Aroma," Luke said, as Aroma went by, but Aroma just gritted his teeth.
