There have been several openings

merly lived here at intervals. What is now known as Ivy cottage was originally built thirty-five years ago and is a landmark of the Hargadine street locality. It has been in the possession of Judge Watson for twenty-six years. The house was built by O. A. Steggs, one of the pioneer as well as one of the best carpenters who ever worked in Ashland.

Among recent Shasta division assignments out of this station, the Ashland-Dornsuir through freight, carhouse No. 7, new positions are now manned by Conductor C. A. Cotter and Brakeman F. R. McConnell, J. H. Swaggart and H. D. Philpot. R. C. Morris is now brakeman on the Ashland-Hornbrook local freight, Nos. 225-226, via J. H. Philpot. Carhouse No. 245 on Ashland-Dornsuir runs replaces carhouse No. 7.

George C. Howard, former orchestra leader and at one time secretary of the Commercial club, now living in Portland, has been a visitor here this week, renewing old friendships incident to canvassing the state in behalf of the candidacy of Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa for the presidency. He stated that the name of B. F. Mulkey has been mentioned as candidate for delegate to the approaching national republican convention.

Prevailing interest in high school circles centers on the production of "Carmen" by students of that institution at the gym Friday evening of this week.

Cummins of Iowa is carrying his presidential candidacy into Oregon. Papers are being circulated in his behalf by friends throughout the state. Thomas B. Kay of Salem is chairman of the Oregon campaign, and George C. Howard of Portland, secretary and manager. The latter was here early in the week lining up a following for Iowa's favorite son. Headquarters of the organization are at the Imperial hotel in Portland. Locally, C. B. Landin, W. H. Gowdy, Jr., John F. Patty, H. A. Barney and others are enthusiastic for the Hawkeye candidate and are displaying buttons and banners in order to give the Canvass boom an impetus.

"Timely Tips to Fishermen," contained in a series of weekly bulletins, are being issued by the Southern Pacific in opportune season, in line with the policy of the management of that road to keep its patrons posted on matters of current interest. In this particular instance hints to anglers are made a specialty.

Morris J. Duryea, erstwhile publicity manager for the springs commission may appear here soon or later in the minor role of a chautauqua platform orator, he having accepted an engagement with the Ellison-White Co. in the assembly-circuit field, so report says.

John Glaser of Oakland, Cal., who owns two tracts of nine acres in the Rogue River orchard holdings, is paying Ashland a visit noting the condition of his property and at the same time investigating conditions with a view of locating here permanently. He is an expert horticulturist.

Railroad grounds in the vicinity of the station, in accordance with civic improvement efforts, are assuming a phase of beautification which promises to progress from season to season. The installation of the springs pavilions is a further incentive towards permanent improvements. In due time these grounds will vie with those at Chico, Cal., admitted to be among the prettiest surroundings of any of the park surroundings on the entire Southern Pacific system.

Why not register today, even if the books do not close until April 18? Multnomah county sets the seal's price by registering only $8,000 to date, a record which other counties should not relatively follow. Attend to this important matter before April 1 instead of delaying further.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic looking men, women and girls with pasty or mucky complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowel the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasal breath, rheumatism, colds, and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowel do.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Subject to a special election authorizing the proposed issue, the city of Ashland has agreed to return $43,500 of its bonds. Specifically the issues include $34,500 street intersection, $6,000 septic tank, and $3,000 fire protection securities.

These will be refunded on a 5 per cent basis instead of 6 per cent, which the old bonds bear. This refunding offer is made by the lumbermen's Trust Co. of Portland. The issue runs for twenty years, payments being optional in installments after ten years. The city is to receive par and accrued interest for any of the old bonds which may be presented for payment before the refunding series are ready for delivery, which will be issued in denominations of $500 each. At a meeting of the council March 20 that body voted to accept the proposition, subject to ratification at the polls. The expense of a special election, averaging $100, would be soon met by the refunding measure.

With the reappearance on duty of Assistant Postmaster Estman, local headquarters now have a full quota of employees on the regular list. The general assistant was off duty for a time on account of illness.

The circumstance that Medford, Oregon city and various other towns up and down the line, either have or are securing federal buildings, prompts the inquiry as to when Ashland is to come into its own in this respect. An unusual feature in regard to Medford's government buildings is the fact that it is to be ready for occupancy by April 1, several months ahead of schedule time.

Several business men are removing to different quarters. L. J. Orres, tailor, has exchanged his location in the Allen block on North Main street for rooms in the Billings property on Oak street. The place he recently vacated will be occupied by E. La Belle, a newcomer from St. Paul, Minn., who will install a modern bakery, an institution which West Ashland has not had except in a minor capacity for some time past. The rooms lately vacated by Miss Hartgrove, near the Plaza, will be occupied by C. J. Perrine with his stock of clothing and notions on April 1.

The approaching season will continue to witness the installation of municipal betterments. On Granite street alone nearly 1000 feet of curb and gutter improvements have been petitioned for, with about 500 additional feet yet to be heard from as far as property owners are concerned.
