

HOLLAND HINTS ENTENTE PLANS FOR INVASION

Dutch Public Convinced Paris Conference Considered New Method—Official Statement Clears Situation—Bourse Figures Show Drop—Dutch Minister Optimistic.

THE HAGUE, April 1, via London, April 3 (delayed).—The Associated Press is again authoritatively informed that all apprehensions regarding any impending embolment of Holland with any foreign power are wholly unfounded, but a considerable section of the public persists in believing that the expected coming of the allies supposedly planned at the Paris conference holds the possibility of danger to Holland's neutrality. Public anxiety has been considerably allayed, but has not wholly disappeared, in the absence of a statement from the government to clear up the situation.

An alarming bulletin published on Friday was not issued at the instance of the government.

The Hague agency of the Bank of The Netherlands was the scene of a small run for specie in exchange for paper, especially on the part of money changers who have been apprehensive of a return of the panicky conditions of the early days of the war, of which, however, there is so far no indication.

The Amsterdam Bourse reflected a feeling of uneasiness. After a temporary recovery it closed depressed. Government bonds were again fractionally lower.

The Dutch minister of foreign affairs, when asked by the associated Press representative what his views were on the situation, replied:

"Optimistic, of course. There is nothing to worry about."

STYLE SHOW, DRAMA, COMEDY, PAGE TODAY

Style show with living models, screen stars in drama and comedy and P. H. Anderson in organ interpretations for good measure is the bill of the Page Theater starting today. Aloha Oe is a Triangle Ince production and from a dramatic and scenic viewpoint, is positively the best Triangle the Page has shown. Mr. Ince's ability for staging difficult scenes in an artistic manner is demonstrated in Aloha Oe which has for its spectacular features a shipwreck and a volcanic eruption. The storm and ship wreck, especially, are wonderfully done and realistic.

Willard Mack, who is well and favorably known for his acting and authorship of Kick In and So Much for So Much, will gain new laurels in his appearance at the Page today in Aloha Oe, a story of a white man's regeneration through the love of a beautiful Polynesian Princess (Elna Markey).

And for those who love a laugh there is the Triangle Keystone, "The Village Scandal," a merry riot with Raymond Hitchcock, Roscoe Arbuckle, Flora Zabille and Al St. John, as chief rioters.

TRIBUTE PAID TO BRANDEIS; SENATE WAITS

Only Crime Has Been Unswerving War on Big Interests—Senator Walsh Makes Full Report on Judiciary Findings—Cummins Offers Criticisms.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Action on the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the supreme court was postponed today by the senate judiciary committee after it had received reports from all but one of the five senators on the sub-committee which held hearings. Senator Fletcher, democrat, made a report merely recommending confirmation. Senator Walsh made a long report and Senator Chilton, the third democrat, will submit a report tomorrow. Senators Cummins and Works made reports against confirmation.

Senator Walsh declared in his report: "The real crime of which this man is guilty is that he has exposed the iniquities of men in high places in our financial system. He has not stood in awe of the majesty of wealth."

"It is easy for a brilliant lawyer so to conduct himself as to escape censure and vilification. All he needs to do is to drift with the tide. If he never assails the doer of evil who stands high in the market place either in court or before the public, he will have no enemies or detractors, or none that he need heed. A man who never represents the public or the impetuous citizen in any great forensic contest, but always the cause of corporate wealth, never has these troubles."

"An analysis of the evidence has led me irresistibly to conclude that the nomination should be rejected," said Senator Works. "I am greatly in sympathy with much of the work that Mr. Brandeis has done to better economic, industrial and social conditions. Much of this I am convinced he has done generously, unselfishly and for the common good."

"Some of his friends say he is a radical and for that reason has offended the conservatives. That may be no reproach, but the temperament that has made him many enemies would detract from his usefulness as a judge. He is of the material that makes good advocates, reformers and crusaders, but not good or safe judges. To place a man on the supreme bench who rests under a cloud would be a grievous mistake."

Senator Cummins, whose criticism of the nominee for his course in the railroad 5 per cent increase rate case was made public yesterday, submitted general conclusions. He said Mr. Brandeis had "lost the confidence of so large an element of the profession of which he is a member and of the country of which he is a citizen, as to vitally impair his usefulness as a justice of the supreme court."

BEN SHELDON ARTICLES PUBLISHED IN MAGAZINES

A series of articles, calling to the attention of auto-tourists the attractions of southern Oregon from a scenic, touring and sportsman standpoint, have been appearing in a number of the leading auto magazines. They are from the pen of Ben Sheldon, being a part of his work while at the San Francisco exposition. They all cover the auto tour from San Francisco to Crater Lake, one way by the Coast route, through Crescent City, Eureka and Santa Rosa.

Profusely illustrated, suggesting rather than trying to describe the many attractions along the route, they should prove a valuable advertisement to all the sections along this route, and especially in making known to the host of California auto-tourists the newly opened up trip into southern Oregon.

The February "American Motorist," "Motorist" for February, and "Motor West" for February, each contain one of these articles. Seven have appeared in all, in magazines having a total circulation of 214,000. We reprint the article from "Motor West" as illustrating the character of the series—with the suggestion that therein lies a means of most valuable advertisement to this section, at little or no cost. Such magazines are ready to publish such descriptive articles if well written and trustworthy as to statements of fact.

HOME PRODUCTS WEEK EDICT BY MAYOR

Whereas the week of April 3d to 9th has been set aside by proclamation of the governors of Oregon, Washington and Idaho as home products week and

Whereas it is desirable that home products be purchased by the people of Medford, for the benefit of local industries and the material welfare of the city at large, therefore

I, V. J. Emerick, mayor of Medford, do hereby designate and set aside the week from April 3 to April 9 as home products week for the City of Medford and hereby request the merchants of Medford to especially display during that period products made in Medford and in the state of Oregon to the end that the attention of the people may be called to them.

Also I urge that the people, and particularly the housewives of Medford during that week make it a point to first determine just what articles are made in the Rogue River valley and the state and second insist that such articles be purchased to supply household needs, so that local industries may be encouraged and money now sent east and outside the valley may be kept at home.

V. J. EMERICK,
Mayor.

Local and Personal

James J. Hamilton, of Reno, Nevada, is registered among the anxious miners who have come to the southern Oregon country from other districts to participate in the activities in the mountain regions in this vicinity for gold and other precious metals this year.

Will H. Wilson wants to buy some second hand shelving. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Heaton, former residents of this valley, but who left four years ago for Centerville, Ohio, have written to former neighbors in this valley that they are preparing to return to southern Oregon. "It was just a case of temporary homesickness," writes Mrs. Heaton, "and Joe is just as anxious as I am to get back to Rogue River valley. We are glad to read of promised developments there that will make the valley a lively place in a business way forever; for, when once started in the right way, we can't see why it should ever stop."

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—metro-bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be assured to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons. Thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before getting more food into the stomach.

PACKERS PRICE COMBINE UNDER FEDERAL QUIZ

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Hearings on Representative Borland's resolution to have the federal trade commission investigate whether or not the meat packers are violating the anti-trust laws were begun today before a house judiciary sub-committee.

Arthur Meeker, vice president of Armour & Co., R. C. McManus, representing Swift & Co., and several cattle raisers opposed the resolution. Former Governor Stubbis of Kansas, Walter L. Fisher, former secretary of the interior, Edward L. Burke, of Omaha, and the market committee of the American Livestock association supported it.

Representatives Borland opened for the resolution by reading letters from farmers in several states who complained chiefly of alleged price fixing by the packers. Representative Borland insisted that the packers buyers not only fix prices in the markets but follow cattle from the country to the yards to see that certain fixed prices are maintained on them.

"There is a power which actually exists in five packing companies in this country not only to control the price of products, but also to dictate terms under which business shall be done," he said.

Representative Doolittle of Kansas insisted that the packers made greater profits than ever during the last year while many breeders failed. Just now, Mr. Doolittle said, cattle raisers have no objection to prices but there is no certainty as to how long these conditions will obtain.

PREPAREDNESS TALK AT HIGH SCHOOL

Major McAlexander of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis will arrive in Medford in the morning and at 9 o'clock will address the high school students, and as many of the people of Medford as would be interested, on the subject "Preparedness on the Pacific coast." Major McAlexander has been delivering this lecture at various places on the Pacific coast which he has visited lately, and has aroused profound interest in the subject he eloquently discusses.

This address will be given at the high school auditorium at 9 o'clock and Superintendent Hills says arrangements will be made to accommodate as many citizens as care to hear the lecture.

Newberg handle plant is to reopen with receiver in charge.

BANDIT RIFLES BANK, CAUGHT IN FIRE HOUSE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 3.—W. R. Smith, scribbled in cowboy dress, walked into the Oak Park branch of the Sacramento bank this morning and at the point of two revolvers held up the two tellers and took $700. He was chased to a fire house a mile away and captured.

Smith forced the tellers in the bank to turn over $161.55 in cash and currency. He then ran down the steps, threatening to kill a few bystanders who tried to intercept him. Cursing at the top of his voice and firing his guns in the air, the holdup ran at high speed with a constantly growing crowd chasing him. The bank officials telephoned to a fire house a mile away to watch for him. Captain Arthur McMurray secured a gun and as Smith rounded a corner covered him and disarmed him.

Smith told the police he held up the bank because he was in debt. Only $746.55 was found on him. He is a laborer for a construction company.

Reports say Oregon Electric will build from Eugene to Springfield.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill.—"While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 5637 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

"WHAT makes the OWL so good?" a smoker asks.

There are several reasons. But first of all comes the million dollar supply of mellowing leaf that is always in reserve for the OWL.

That "sureifies" the OWL'S mellow flavor. All the equipment and experience of the OWL factories go to bring out that fine flavor in the best way, in every OWL you buy.
