ACTRESS IS COUNTLESS, BUT DOESN'T USE TITLE EVERY DAY

RITA JOLIVET

Though she is a countless—just married to Count Giuseppe Coppico, Rita Jolivet will continue to be known on the stage as plain Rita Jolivet. The title is for home use only.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church held their regular April meeting at the home of Mrs. I. J. Phipps Tuesday afternoon. The largest attendance the society has ever had, about sixty ladies in all, listened to a very interesting program on the "Country of Korea." The devotionals were led by Mrs. C. S. Manning. Mrs. Forrest Edmeades, the leader of the afternoon, presented the subject, "Korea," geographically and historically, in a very interesting and comprehensive manner. Mrs. J. W. Smylie on the subject, "By Fire and by Sword," told of the trials of the Korean nation and of their great religious revivals. In a well-written paper, Miss Rose Fielder gave the work of the "Methodist Missions in Korea." These numbers were followed by a story hour in which Messdames Daron, Spiggle, Gore, Osborne, Metz, Lindley and Dr. Rollins took part. These stories of Korean Christians are an inspiration to American Christianity. The musical numbers on the program were: Piano solo by Miss Vroman and vocal solo by Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served by the hostesses, Messdames I. J. Phipps, Dr. Phipps and Miss May Phipps, assisted by several ladies in Korean costumes.

Last Wednesday evening a number of music lovers met at the home of Mrs. McDonough on West Second street to discuss the formation of a choral society. Committees were appointed for membership and for drafting a constitution, and an election of officers, with Earl Conklin as president; A. L. Vroman, vice-president; Dean Carder, secretary; Clarence Meeker, treasurer; Mr. McDonough, librarian; Mrs. McDonough, director, and Miss Vroman as pianist. It was decided to name the society the Nevin club, from the American composer Nevin, and by the enthusiasm of those present the organization promises to be a certain success. Meetings will be held every Wednesday evening for business and chorus work.

Medford Elks installed officers for the ensuing year on Thursday night as follows: C. W. Heilbrunner, exalted ruler; Jonas Wald, esteemed leading knight; J. J. Branham; prayer, Mrs. Robert L. Taylor; paper, "Plenty for Ourselves, Nothing for God," Mrs. W. C. Rice; paper, "Money a Curse or a Blessing," Mrs. Robert L. Taylor; song, "I Will Sing the Wondrous Story"; paper, "Whose Is It—Mine or God's?" Mrs. Riley D. Henson; paper, "Living Links in Mission Lands," Mrs. Eugene Whipple; paper, "Why I Believe in Foreign Missions," Mrs. C. A. Bird; article, "The Sabbath and the Title Inseparable," Mrs. Frank Brandon; song, "Bless My Soul, O Thou Jehovah"; prayer, Mrs. H. M. Branham.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret Waldron and Henry Souttor on March 16 at the home of the bride's parents at Hollywood, Cal. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Eugene Rice of Geneva avenue, with whom she has made her home for some time. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Souttor of North Orange street, having come to Medford with his parents from Iowa four years ago. Both young people are well and favorably known here and have a host of friends who wish them success in their new undertaking. Mr. Souttor has accepted a position as salesman for the Hup and Apperson cars, and the young couple are at home at 6778 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, Cal.

W. S. N. Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Cloney on West Jackson street Monday afternoon. After the business meeting needlework was indulged in. A recitation was given by Miss Thelma McCoy after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. E. Cloney, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. H. Freudenberg. About 30 members and invited friends were present.

Mrs. O. E. Osborne, Mrs. R. C. Minear and Mrs. J. W. Snylie left Wednesday morning for Roseburg, where they were sent as delegates to the district convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which convened in that city April 5 and 6. The above delegates represented the Medford auxiliary of foreign missions.

The annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church of Klamath district will be held in Medford Wednesday, April 12. A very interesting program, which will appear later, has been prepared for morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Every one is invited to attend every session and hear what is being done for those people in our land who are beyond the immediate environments of the church. Delegates will be in attendance from Roseburg, Grants Pass, Jacksonville, Talent and Ashland.

A surprise party was given Miss Harriet Howells at the home of Clarence Turpin, 619 North Central avenue, last Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. The time was spent in music and playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Harriet and Charlotte Howells, Marilla and Thelma Dyer, Velma Hall, Irene Brainerd, Gertrude Butler, Clarence and Ralph Turpin, Ray Hague, Willis Stockman, John Stine and Eustis Dyer.

Friday afternoon a meeting of the Parent-Teacher circle of the Washington school was called for the purpose of discussing the subject of having a junior high school at that building. All those present seemed to favor the plan. After the subject had been discussed from every viewpoint Superintendent Hillis explained the situation—how the fifth and sixth grades would be disturbed to some degree. A goodly number of patrons who have children in these grades were present and were in favor of having a junior high school. The school board was represented and were informed that the building would be remodeled to fit the need of the school, which has long been looked for by the patrons. The regular meeting of the circle will be held the fourth Friday, April 28, and all those who are interested and would like to learn more about the new movement are invited to be present.

The meeting of the local Odd Fellows' lodge last Monday evening was of more than usual interest to the members of the order in this city. Besides the usual proceedings, the final degree was conferred upon a candidate, Grand Warden George W. Trefren of the grand lodge of Oregon paid an official visit and made a few remarks upon Oddfellowship, and the lodge session was followed by a feast served in the banquet room of the temple. A number of visitors from neighboring lodges were present. A greater interest is being manifested in the welfare of Medford than has existed for some time, and it is being planned to inaugurate a new campaign for membership. Social parties, in which the Rebekah branch will participate, are contemplated among other things.

The College Women's club meets this afternoon with Mrs. L. E. Williams, 520 South Peach street. The program for the session will be short talks on "Etching and American Etchers," by Mrs. Torney; "American Illustrators," by Mrs. Harrison, and "Pottery," by Mrs. Peebles. Mrs. Williams will be assisted by Messdames Malmgren, Elden and Bennett and Miss Fielder.

The Grizzlies' trip for Sunday, April 9, will include a hike to Phoenix and return. Leaving Bear creek bridge at 2 p. m., they will walk to Phoenix along the east bank of Bear creek and return from Phoenix will be made along the railroad. Coffee will be served by the committee at Phoenix.
