THE MEADOWS

Layne Wyland and Wife spent Priday Saturday shooping in Medford.

The miners and prospectors still are coming into the Meadows every day. A couple of new strikes are reported - "cinnabar." Theodore ice and wife spent the week-end in Medford shopping and sight seeing.

J. B. Dinkum is spending most or his time on the old Gardner place, famous for the apples it produces. He is putting the orchard in splendid shape while Wallace is handling the home ranch.

Layne Wiland is putting in a new ditch to serve the land above the old ditch. The water comes from Evans ercek. Force & Peart are preparing to sink a shaft on their ciain on section 20. They are saving some ore, Three men are at work.

Bill Pomercy is acting as the viflage blacksmith these days, and is quite basy. Covotes are playing havor with the lambs and kids this year. Mr. Drake has lost a number of sheen and Pomeroy's goats are bothered every day OF MO.

C. P. Easley who rented the Lampman place up toward the Trail creek divide has moved down and forsal. on the lonely ranch life to return to raifroad service. He re-rented the place and the new tennnt has taken possession.

Bill Cottrell is back at the ranch day.

Amos C. Hazlewood, our gental "Cliff." has filed his final papers to prove up his homestead entry and the fact is now being advertised by the Roseburg land office. He has about to acres in Sudan grass.

The summer schedule on the mail route goes into effect May 1st. which holds our carrier at Ashestos until 8 a, m. and gives the Meadows a few minutes more to add their postacripts.

Manager Cliff Hazlewood of the Meadows' ball team, motored to Medford Saturday a. m. to purchase suppilles for the 1916 season.
