

CARNIVAL COMING UNDER AUSPICES OF SEVENTH COMPANY

The Seventh company has contracted with the Baescher United Shows company to bring their entire organization to Medford for one week, beginning Monday, May 1, and put on daily performances under the auspices of the company. This concern is the largest carnival organization on the road, seldom stopping in cities of the population of Medford. The entire space between Sixth and Main streets, fronting on Fir street, has been secured for the many large tents required to put on the show. Ferris wheel, merry-go-round and other amusement devices. The carnival carries a large concert band which will give daily programs on the streets.

The Seventh company will turn out in full strength Monday evening at 7 o'clock for a street parade, preceding the first performance, after which the members of the company will be assigned to the various large tents, of which the Shows company carries six, and take tickets at the doors and at the Ferris wheel, merry-go-round, etc. Many sightseeing parties are being arranged among the young people to see the sights of the carnival, and the militia boys are looking forward to a big, gay week. Large crowds are expected from the neighboring towns and suburban districts to take in the show, and some of the merchants are taking advantage of the occasion by putting on special sales and attractive bargains.

OBITUARY.

ISAACS—Lettie B. Isaacs, daughter of the late Henry E. Stancliff, was born in Phoenix, December 6, 1879, and died at Sierra Madre, Calif., April 29, 1916. She was married to Charles W. Isaacs May 21, 1910, and leaves to mourn her loss a devoted husband, mother, three brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Isaacs went to California a few months ago, accompanied by her sister, in the hope of change of climate restoring her failing health, but all that loving attention could do was without avail. Her untimely death has caused widespread sorrow among a large circle of relatives and warm friends by whom she was greatly beloved. She had such a happy, cheerful disposition that she endeared herself to all who knew her, always trying to make life pleasant for those around her.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Baillie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and was attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors, and the many beautiful flowers sent by those who wished to express in this way their love and affection for the one whose death the community mourns and their heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved relatives.

"Somewhere the sun is shining. Somewhere the songbirds dwell. Hush, then, thy sad repining; God lives, and all is well."

Women Sufferers Need Swamp-Root

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness and may be dependent and irritable.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, restores health to the kidneys and is just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a fifty cent or one dollar bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elizabethtown, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing to Dr. Kilmer mention the Medford, Ore., Mail Tribune.

CALIFORNIAN VISITS BLUE LEDGE MINE

G. P. Stiles, of Long Beach, Cal., formerly a neighbor of C. D. Hoan in Iowa, is visiting the latter in this city this week. Mr. Hoan guided Mr. Stiles into the Blue Ledge mining district a few days ago, returning Thursday evening. Mr. Stiles is grateful for the opportunity to visit that region and see for himself its extent, at least, and the great amount of work that has been done there by faithful miners who have a better idea than laymen as to what it will finally prove to be.

It is only three and a half hours' drive from Medford by auto into the Blue Ledge district, and the country traversed is very interesting. At no place does it appear to be a difficult railroad route. Mr. Hoan says the miners up there are confident that a railroad will enable them to begin mining operations in earnest and on a large scale. That will mean a large mining camp practically in the center of the district, but not the only one which will be developed by reason of the advent of the transportation facilities. There are several others directly tributary to the proposed route of the Bullion extension.

The territory covered by these camps embraces the largest known mineral belt on the coast—especially with reference to copper values. The Oregon-California boundary line cuts it practically in the middle.

CHURCH EXPOSITION CLOSES TOMORROW

Church people of Medford who expect the year 1916 to bring forth unusual progress in the advancement of the cause of Christ and who are planning extended evangelistic work in this city, took for important results growing out of the religious and social service exposition which was shown here during the last week under the auspices of the Ministerial Federation and the Federated Council of Christian Churches in America.

The exposition, which closes at the Natatorium Saturday, embraces the religious and other exhibits from the pedagogy of education at the Pan-Pacific exposition, together with the

All money received for taxes will be handled exclusively by a cashier under bonds, thus absolutely safeguarding the public against loss.

All tax funds will be promptly paid over to the county treasurer as the law directs.

All public funds under his control will be, as far as possible, kept on deposit in the districts and banks from which they originated.

Do these methods meet with your approval?
Then why not vote for him at the primaries?
