The two Shakespeare clubs with their invited guests spent a most delightful Monday evening at Holland hotel, the use of the spacious parlors and the dining room being the generous gift of Mr. Westerlund. By 8:30 the attractively decorated parlors were well filled, and moving easily amid the modern throng was Ophelia in flowing white robes, unbound hair wreath-crowned, sadly scattering her posies,—in everyday life Mrs. Roy Peebles. And also Mrs. Blanche Canode who as Queen Titania was charmingly true to fairyland. Mrs. Hoon, a stately Cordelia; Mrs. Kelly in the long trailing gown of Olivia; Mrs. Neff a dainty Jessica; Mrs. Davidson as Juliet; Mrs. Uphaw as Catherine the Shrew; Mrs. Graham as Desdemona—all well represented their heroines. The three witches, Mrs. West, Mrs. Meeker and Miss Haskins with their black robes, long pointed black caps and hobbling on their broomsticks added variety to the scene. The masculine members did not appear in character costume much to the disappointment of the females who were thus without their Hamlet, Romeo, Othello, King Lear, etc. The program was opened with Shakespearean selections on the Victoria hosted by Hale Piano House and in charge of Miss Estes. A solo by Mrs. Geo. Andrews was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Childers accompanied. Mr. Ed Andrews gave readings from Shakespeare, so realistically we could almost see the characters before us. He kindly responded to persistent encores. Other selections on the Victrola completed the program. The party, about one hundred, then adjourned to the dining room, beautifully adorned with ivy, poppies and bridal wreath, and were served with tea, sandwiches, pickles and cake.

The Golden Link Bible class of the First Baptist Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Frank Loder, corner of Roosevelt and Jackson streets, on Wednesday, April 26. After the opening prayer, Rev. Carlstens, pastor of the church, spoke to the class in regard to some church improvements. The regular monthly business session was then held, followed by an address to the ladies by Miss Carrie O. Millsapugh, field worker of the Women's Baptist Home Mission society for the Pacific coast district. Miss Millsapugh spoke on the work of the society and related some interesting experiences in connection with her work. Her talk was greatly enjoyed. The rest of the afternoon was spent with needlework and social chat. Mrs. J. A. Hemstreet and Mrs. J. W. Pent assisted Mrs. Loder in serving refreshments. Those present were: Mesdames Fred Balch, H. G. Beach, Gus Stinson, Frank Stinson, Elgin Bretney, Lee Hall, C. A. Whitlock, Fred Purdin, J. H. Harrison, C. H. Baldwin, James Fleming, T. J. Gifford, Mary Shannon, J. M. Gressley, Herb Launspugh, Ed White, J. A. Hemstreet, J. W. Pent, P. P. Loder, H. L. Gorm, E. A. Moore and nineteen little folks.

Mrs. E. V. Coffin will give a pupils' piano recital at her studio, 60 Ross avenue, on Friday evening, May 5. The program will be as follows: "Valse," duet, by Rose M. Bonchard, piano, Bernice Retzer; "In Church," duet, second by Ned French; "The Sleigh Bells," piano solo, Zeta Singler; "Golden Star," waltz (Strauss), duet, second by Dorothy Carlsson; "Campanella Mazurka," Sadya Sewell; piano solo, Bernice Retzer; "Fantasia," a German air, H. Kersley; duet, Nita Morgan; secondly; "Barbara Waltz" (Greenwald), piano solo, Ned French; duet, selected, prima, Zeta Singler; "The Playful Kitten" (Paul Lawsson), piano solo, Dorothy Carlsson; "Melody in F" (Rubenstein), duet, prima, Roland Carlsson; "The Butterfly" (W. Legez), piano solo, Nita Morgan; "Long Long Ago," home with variations—Joseph Lutz, piano solo, Goldie Wilson; "Any" (Chopin) (Verdi), piano solo, Roland Carlsson; "Melody in G" (H. Engelmann), piano solo, Lulu Wilson; "March Militaire" (Franz Schubert), duet, prima, Lulu Wilson, secondly, Goldie Wilson.

The St. Mark's Guild gave a delightful luncheon at 1 o'clock Tuesday, after which a business meeting was held and the officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. R. D. Hale, first vice-president; Mrs. W. I. Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. D. B. Russell, secretary; Mrs. S. T. Knorr, treasurer.

The Wednesday Study club and their friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Alford on Wednesday afternoon at her home on West Tenth street. The house was artistically decorated with festoons of green and spring blossoms. Preceding the program and social hour the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. Hollis was elected president for the coming year, Mrs. Deuel vice-president, Mrs. Torney secretary and Mrs. Alford treasurer. Then followed a musical program, for which the club is greatly indebted to Miss Venita Hamilton, Miss Thies, Mrs. George Andrews and Miss Luez Cross for a most delightful hour. A reading of the trial scene from the "Merchant of Venice" was given by the following club members, Mrs. Torney taking the part of Shylock, Mrs. Palmer, Portia; Miss Austin, Bassanio; Mrs. Meers, Antonio; Mrs. Boggs, the duke; Mrs. Page, Gratiano; Mrs. Warner, Nerissa, and Mrs. Waldeman, Salerio. The interpretation of every character was exceptionally fine and the reading furnished a delightful part of the afternoon. Later, delicious refreshments were served by the good times committee. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. H. H. Sargent of Jacksonville, Mrs. R. H. Paxson of Central Point, Mrs. G. H. Palmer of Spokane and Miss Harriet Robertson of Minneapolis.

The W. S. N. Sewing club had an enjoyable Easter party last week. About fifty members and friends were present. An egg-tossing contest was indulged in, which Mrs. De Vos won the first prize, a jar of roses, and Mrs. Chaney won first prize for being the best egg thrower, a bouquet of California poppies. Mrs. Launspugh conducted the guessing contest of the pennies in the stockings. All colors and sizes were on display. A reading was given by Miss Mary Seymour; duet by Miss Helen Lydard and Miss Bernice Balcom; piano solo, Miss Bernice Balcom, after which all joined in an egg hunt. After they were found they were cooked and served with hot rolls and coffee by the hostesses, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Dooker and Mrs. Keizer.

Last Thursday evening, Tallon lodge, Knights of Pythias, entertained their ladies and a few invited friends at their castle hall on Main street. Mr. Hemstreet gave a very interesting exhibition of telepathy and mesmerism. For several years Mr. Hemstreet traveled extensively and entertained in a professional way with his hypnotic power and mind-reading exhibitions before settling near Medford. All who were fortunate enough to see and hear his demonstration Thursday evening were highly pleased with it. At the close of the entertainment light refreshments were served by the committee and after a time a social, get-acquainted pleasant air went away feeling that the prevalent Pythian spirit of entertainment is very commendable.

The following musical program was given at Ashland Thursday evening by Mrs. E. E. Gore and George Andrews before the district Federation of Women's clubs:

Piano solo, "Second Mazurka" (Godard); Miss Elizabeth Gore; encore, "Valse in A Flat" (Chopin); vocal solo, "Vist de Arte," from "Tosca" (Puccini); Miss Geraldine Thies; vocal duet, "Oh That We Two Were Maying" (Smith); Mrs. Provoost; Mrs. Rasor; piano solo, "The Last Hope" (Gottschalk); Miss Ruth Warner; vocal solo, "Tosca's Song" from "Carmen" (Bizet), for an encore sang "Mother of Mine" (Tours); George Andrews; address, "The Evolution of Music," Ed Andrews.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Hanna of San Francisco and Mr. Martin Erickson of this city takes place today at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is well known in Medford, having visited her sister, Mrs. Gardner Balch, formerly of this city, where she was very popular with the younger social set. Mr. Erickson is supervisor of national forest reserve of southern Oregon and has resided in Medford for the past seven years.

At the Wisconsin experiment station experiments showed that 11 per cent more butter fat was produced when the oats were ground than when fed whole in a mixed ration consisting of oats (ground in the one case, whole in the other), hay, cornmeal and corn stover. Steers will increase their weight one-half pound more per day when feed is ground than when unground. Let us tell you about it and the cost of power for operating your feed grinder.
