

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Memorial day services will be held at the armory next Tuesday, May 30, beginning at 9:30 a. m. The band, also military and civic organizations will participate. Scores will remain closed the remainder of the day after 10 a. m. Following the decoration of graves at Ashland and other cemeteries there will be a program appropriate to the memorial event, opening with the singing of "America," invocation, Rev. W. J. Douglass; address, C. M. Thomas, of Medford; reading, R. P. Campbell; flag drill, primary department of the Talent schools; reading department order by the G. A. R.; song, "Star Spangled Banner;" benediction, Rev. J. S. Smith. Specific musical selections will be a solo by Miss Gertrude Engle, and a quartet by Misses Anderson, Whitson, Jilson and Dahoff. Burnside Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Relief Corps have charge of all the main arrangements.

Leo Flexner of San Francisco has been passing a few days in town this week on his return from Alaska where he was located for sometime past. He was formerly from Iowa, and has been regaling the local Hawkeye colony with a rich fund of reminiscences relating to old Scott county. Miss Geneva Allen has exchanged 160 acres of woodland located near tunnel No. 9 in Josephine county to the Carson-Fowler Lumber company of this city, for residence property on Pioneer avenue. Mrs. Sasie Allen negotiated the deal.

A financial statement of the union evangelistic movement ending here recently at the close of business last Sunday evening, shows resources and liabilities of over $1000. The meetings were held five weeks. Mr. Vessey, the singer, was guaranteed a compensation of $25 per week from the general expense fund, which aggregated a trifling over $500. He also shared to a limited extent in the free-will offering made in behalf of Evangelist Mathis, an offering which also exceeded $500. The final settlements were made on a basis satisfactory to all concerned, and the expense account connected with the series of union meetings has been provided for in full without scaling any of the bills.

Memorial Sunday services will be held at the Congregational church, May 28, conducted by Rev. R. W. Farquhar.

Financiers belong to group 4 of the State Bankers association, in session here this week, partook of a luncheon at Hotel Oregon today. This particular group is made up of bankers throughout Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lane and Curry counties.

Discovering that fruit boxes, notably strawberry containers, shipped into this state from California, do not measure up to requirements under the Oregon law, F. G. Buchtel, state sealer of weights and measures, has directed district sealers to confiscate such boxes, and have their contents repacked into standard receptacles. It might not be out of place to inspect some of the boxes on this side of the line.

Artie Crews, of the Hood River schools, is home for the summer vacation, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crews and other relatives. He will "spell" some of the clerks at the White house grocery from time to time until the fall term of school begins. His wife and four children accompany him.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill, wife of the superintendent of public instruction, died at Salem on Tuesday, aged 48. She was a native of Racine, Wisconsin. Her husband and three daughters survive the wife and mother. Mr. Churchill was to have delivered the address before the graduates of the high school here, but was prevented from coming owing to his wife's illness.

Prospective attendants upon the Knights Templar gathering at Los Angeles next month, as representatives from Malta Commandery of this city, are W. E. Newcomb, eminent commander, also T. H. Simpson, T. K. Bolton and C. W. Sims, the latter of whom is standard bearer of the grand commandery of Oregon.

James McNair of this city has recently received from the mint at San Francisco, $14.56, proceeds from the sale of the cases of a gold watch carried by him since 1861. It was an English lever time piece, key wind, and was purchased by him in Missouri, not as a new hiker, it having seen previous service. It narrowly escaped capture by guerrillas who raided Versailles, Mo., Mr. McNair's home town, in 1865.

A. Hall, arrested the other day at Vancouver, Wash., for robbery, in connection with which crime he flourished a pistol, was for several years past inmate of the Ince and Girls reformatory at Portland. He claims that his father at last accounts was a resident of Ashland.

Father Hugulius of San Francisco, head of the Franciscan order throughout Pacific coast territory, was visiting Father Dolan, of the local Catholic church, on Wednesday, viewing scenic features and testing virtues of mineral waters hereabouts.

Tom Simpson and Ed Phipps have returned from a business trip to Myrtle Point, Coos county, inspecting the scope of extensive sewer improvements being installed there.

Job Printer Elmer, of the Arcade Press, has moved that establishment from Pioneer block to his new place of residence on North Main street, lately rented from Mrs. Susie Allen.

Round-up hats are much in evidence here, being worn by a big contingent preliminary to the big celebration in July. It is said that 200 have been disposed of already by local merchants, and the wearing of them indicates that the round-up fete is being backed by a large following.

Atorney E. D. Briggs is home from a month's business and pleasure trip to the east, taking advantage of the four to visit his son Billy and daughter Nellie, pursuing law studies at Valparaiso, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Moss, of Lakeview, parents of Mrs. Anna Moore, wife of City Attorney Moore, returned home on Wednesday after a two months visit with relatives here.

F. J. Berger, ex-mayor of Eugene, has been in Ashland this week, attending to business matters connected with property interests hereabouts.

Mrs. Nora E. Stevenson, of Crescent City, died suddenly in this city on Tuesday, aged 26 years. She was accompanied here by her husband and mother, the latter being of Wilderville, and arrived in Ashland only the day before her death. The deceased leaves three children. Her remains were sent to Crescent City, internment being in the Odd Fellows cemetery of that town.

Mrs. Walter Herndon and son Bobbie have returned to Springfield after a visit here with the Beaver and Yockey relatives.

Rev. W. A. Schwinley, former Congregational pastor here, now located at Lodi, California, was a firm supporter of the movement which resulted in the installation of a free municipal swimming tank which cost $6000. Lodi is also entertaining a proposition to install a municipal paving plant whereby the cost of major improvements will be reduced 25 per cent, so it is claimed.

With 36 grade railway crossings between Ashland and the southern line of Tehama county, Cal., the number is being gradually reduced. This distance is 210 miles. Between Ashland and the foot of Bailey Hill in Siskiyou county there is but one crossing at grade on the Pacific high way and that is located on the Boulevard, east of town in the Homes neighborhood. Of these 26 crossings one-third are classified as especially dangerous. Within city limits among the number of crossings at grade are East Main, Mountain Avenue, Oak, Helman, Laurel and Oberlin sts. Water street crosses under the tracks and Ohio streets is also to be safeguarded.

W. H. McNair, recorder of and representing Blidah Temple of this city, will attend the forthcoming imperial gathering of Shriners at Buffalo, N. Y. He will join the Tacoma contingent and go as far as Chicago over the Milwaukee & St. Paul railway on the Imperial Oriental Guide special, termed "the finest special train which ever crossed the continent." Mrs. McNair will accompany him and the eastern trip will be extended as far as Boston. On their return they will visit numerous relatives residing in St. Louis and Kansas City.

Travelers intending to visit Barber station, near Chico, Cal., should bear in mind that the S. P. has filed an application to abandon that station, incorporating it hereafter with the Chico terminal proper.

George Morse was a Medford visitor recently.

The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denzer arrived at the home of his parents in West Phoenix recently.

There was a heavy rainfall in this section Monday night continuing intermittently all day Tuesday and Wednesday. The atmosphere has been decidedly chilly for the past week, making grate and heater fires most welcome.

Fletcher Fish was a visitor at the home of his parents in West Phoenix recently.

CENTRAL POINT

Mrs. James Bowers Jr. and Miss Nina Fenton of Ashland were recent guests of Mrs. Bowers' aunt, Mrs. Frederick of this city.

Russ Moore and family of Lake creek spent the week-end in Central Point.

About 200 relatives and friends of the graduating class of '16 assembled in the C. P. A. C. hall Friday evening to see the last exercises of that class. The program was one of the most enjoyable that was ever given in Central Point. It consisted of selections by the high school orchestra and the glee club. Salutatorian, full of deep thought and tender expression, was well rendered by Miss Doris Cowley. Class history given by Elmer Kyle was original and quaint. The Class Prophecy, by Helen Mae was of the cleverest and most original little sketches ever written by a high school graduate. The Last Will and Testament of the class, ably gotten up by Merrill Owen was a masterpiece and the poem, reminiscent and tender, yet intermingled with good advice, by Miss Theresa Ellstrand was much enjoyed. Last, but not least was the Valedictory, "The Value of Education," by Lloyd Kyle. Mr. Kyle acquitted himself well as a speaker of no little ability that night. The future holds much for these graduates if they continue to follow the path they have begun. The diplomas were presented by two tiny maidens and two little boys. Wagonloads of flowers and many beautiful presents were received by the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homelgrave and small daughter of Talent visited relatives here the first of the week.

Mrs. J. O. Isaacson's home was the scene of a pretty home party Monday evening at which Mrs. Isaacson very delightfully entertained the Young People's class of the Christian church and their teacher, J. D. Sears and wife. The affair was in the form of a farewell reception, given to the members of the class who will be absent from the city during the summer. BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

S. S. S. Removes the Cause.

Specialists have agreed that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Once you get your blood cleansed of the Catarrh poisons you will be relieved of Catarrh—the dripping in the throat, hacking and spitting, sores in the nostrils, and the disagreeable breath. It was caused, in the first place, because your impoverished blood was easily infected. Possibly a slight cold or contact with some one who had a cold. But the point is—don't suffer with Catarrh—it is not necessary. The remedy S. S. S., discovered over fifty years ago, tested, true and tried, is always obtainable at any drug store. It has proven its value in thousands of cases. It will do so in your case. Get S. S. S. at once and begin treatment. If yours is a long-standing case, be sure to write the Seattle Spine Co., Astoria, Or., for free medical advice. They will tell you how this purely vegetable blood tonic cleanses the impurities from the blood by literally washing it clean.
