EAGLE POINT EAGLETS
 By A. C. Howlett

W. B. Roberts and wife, who are living on the old Joe Rader place, were doing business in our town last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. Norman McQuoid returned from Roseburg where they had been to attend the convention of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs the last of the week.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs gave Miss Mabel Wamsley, one of their number, who is in poor health, a surprise party last Saturday night.

Each visitor brought in some memento to try to cheer her up and also brought in light refreshments, and they had one of those joyful times that are so characteristic of this community.

The Eagle Point Amusement company had their movie picture show and a midnight dance and report having had a fine time.

Sunday morning broke on us bright and clear and the ladies had previously decorated the church with flags and flowers and had everything in readiness for the memorial services to be held at 11 o'clock. There was an unusually large attendance and Rev. L. L. Simmons delivered the address. About all of the old veterans were in attendance and were reminded of the scene in their younger days.

At the same time Sunday there was quite a number of our citizens autoed out to different parts of the country. Some went upon the Skitrons, while others went on to Hornbrook, and quite a number went to visit the Ashland park and drink from the world renowned springs, and a few of the citizens of Medford came out here to get dinner and while away the time fishing in our beautiful Little Butte and Rogue river, among whom were our County Judge Tom Velle and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Outman and wife.

Mr. Outman is the fruit tree inspector of the Medford district, and Mrs. Outman is the fruit tree inspector of the Grants Pass district.

At the afternoon there was a select party autoed, or rather Forded, over to the Table Rock district and ascended the lower rock. They were Bony Trusty, Miss Claire Zimmerman, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt is a near relative of ex-President Roosevelt, and also a friend of Miss Claire Zimmerman. George Wehman and Carl Ringer. They climbed to the plateau, where they had a fine view of the entire valley.

Miss Edith Oliver from Seattle, Wash., and Miss Rummage of Grants Pass, have been here visiting Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy the past week.

A party of our citizens consisting largely of the Brown family, Frank, and Will, Royal, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Van Scoy and a few others autoed to the Wagner springs Sunday p. m. and Mr. and Mrs. John Rader and their two daughters, Mrs. Harriet Stanley and Mrs. Ray Ashole and Harvey Stanley visited Ashland park. Some of them had never been there before and they were perfectly captivated with the beauties of the city, park and surroundings.

Miss Verah Kaskaw of Climaux, Mrs. Omer Grigsby and her two children Charles Manning and a stranger by the name of Tanna, were here for dinner Monday.

Mr. Cox, the milk goat man, was doing business here Tuesday.

C. E. Johnson, who has been teaching in Laurel Hill district, is now engaged in canvassing for scenes around the world. Billie Sunday's sermons, etc.

Photo of one of the California, is here the guest of Prof. W. O. Wheeler, who came in Tuesday from Talent.

Tuesday night we were left in darkness as the electric station on the main line from Prospect went out of commission about ten o'clock and just afterward the alarm of fire was sounded and there was a general stampede among the housewives to find the old coal oil lamps, but the fire was only the burning oil of the chimney (they have a fire place) of the F. L. Heath residence. There was no damage done, but some of the neighbors were almost wild over the incident. The next morning Mr. Stinson and his helper started out and located the trouble at the station where the E. P. line connects with the main line. They followed up the line to here and after dinner started to go up by the French-Dodge bridge to follow the line through to Gold Bay.

I. L. Bradshaw, wife and son were at the S. S. for dinner Wednesday.

George E. Brandon moved into the old Van der Hellen building they used to use as a warehouse before they moved into the store building, now the postoffice, away. They fixed it up for some railroad men to live in before George E. Johnson moved there to Medford. Mr. Brandon is at work tearing some of the old machinery and getting ready for the coming crop. When George W. Daley Jr. was running this mill the flour commanded a good price, five cents higher on a sack than any other flour in the valley, and with the putting in of the new modern machinery we expect to have a good flour as can be made anywhere. The starting of that mill, the old Snowy Butte, will revive business and be an incentive for the farmers to pull up their orchards, that have to be sprayed during the warm weather, and heated, sound, in cold, and cut and trimmed, pruned—and then cut out the blight and after all not receive enough off of their orchard to pay the expense of the upkeep, etc.

There was a moving outfit passed through here Wednesday morning on the way to H. H. Brown's farm, the old T. E. Nichols place, to move one of the large barns.

 Miss Edna Messenger of Agate spent Wednesday afternoon with Miss Angeline Cameron.

Chas. Douglas and family started Monday for Klamath Falls where they expect to remain for the summer.

 Miss Edna Messenger of Agate spent Wednesday afternoon with Miss Angeline Cameron.

Chas. Douglas and family started Monday for Klamath Falls where they expect to remain for the summer.

L. C. Applegate of Gold Hill, one of the county's most prominent men, was through here the first of the week investigating the report that game birds were being killed in this vicinity.

Miss Helen Lodiard, who recently graduated from the Medford high school, has returned to her home and is enjoying her vacation.

Victor Beaulieu was a Sunday evening visitor in Medford.

Many from here attended the Decoration Day program at Central Point Tuesday and also the exercises at the graves. It was with a feeling of pride that we watched the old soldiers as with tottering steps and dim eyes they searched for each comrade's grave to place upon it a flag that taken so dear to the hearts of the boys of '61. Not a soldier's grave was missed, although some were hard to find as they were unmarked, seeming to be entirely forgotten by everyone else.

Lane Weland of the Meadows district is cutting the volunteer hay on the Norwich place. He will feed this to his cattle next winter.

Fred Collins of Jacksonville is now employed at the Modoc orchard.

Ross Cline is a frequent visitor in this district lately on account of the blight. He reports that our orchardists are working very diligently to eradicate it.

Mrs. A. L. Vincent spent several days in Gold Hill last week visiting friends.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vaughan on May 31, a bouncing girl baby. Mother and babe are settling down nicely.

At the annual meeting of the Table Rock Improvement Association last Tuesday J. C. Pendleton was elected president for the next year and R. E. Nealon secretary-treasurer. Preliminary steps were taken toward the elimination of mosquitoes in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beebe of Agate were visiting relatives here last Sunday.

Last year there was harvested in this district 153 acres of wheat which produced a little better than 23 bushels to the acre, whilst this year there is less than 25 per cent of the acreage which from present indications will not produce more than 75 per cent as much grain per acre as last year's crop produced.
