

SPECIAL MEETING THURSDAY EVENING BULLIS CONTRACT

The city council arranged for a special meeting Thursday evening, at which time they will pass on the Bullis contract for the road to the Blue Ledge and also on the Welch sawmill proposition.

The railroad contract was not completed in time to present to the council, the committee, composed of S. S. Bullis, C. M. Thomas, Olin Arnsperger, City Attorney McCabe, W. T. Beveridge and J. T. Sullivan, worked all day Monday and Tuesday and will complete their work today.

The contract is an iron-clad one, imposing a time limit and use of materials, Mr. Bullis also agreeing to accept the bonds at par value, thus entailing any discount upon himself.

Complete satisfaction with the proposed contract was expressed by the several members of the council who have seen the partially completed draft, and if no new difficulty is incurred will vote unanimously in favor of it.

Sawmill Proposal

The sawmill proposition, from the meager face of the proposal, does not strike with approval. The bonus asked is large, with no substantial return guaranteed. Welch Bros. propose to remove their mill from Trail and locate it in Medford on one of the railroads leading from the city. They guarantee a small mill which shall cut a minimum of 2,000,000 board feet of lumber per annum. This would not employ a great number of men, and agree to incorporate for not less than $25,000. They ask a bonus of $5000 from the city and also a suitable mill site, which would probably cost as much more. They ask the bonus to be paid in two installments, $2500 when the machinery is on the ground and $2500 when the mill begins operation.

Police Judge Gay rendered his monthly report. He turned in $24 in fines. Three were convicted of drunkenness and one for reckless driving.

The chaparral on Grape street, north of the Pantorium, on lots owned by the Beckman estate, was declared a dangerous nuisance and ordered cut by the owners. Hoehoes and undesirable are using it as a gathering place. The danger from fire also makes it extremely dangerous.

Inspector Hinman was given power to light the park with festoons of electric lights, containing not less than 200 lamps. The bandstand and adjacent grounds will be lighted.

The Crater Lake sign over the fire hall will also be lighted so that it can be seen from the train.

Miscellaneous Matters

Fire Chief Lawton was given charge of the construction of fifty benches to be built for band concert practice. They will be placed in Ivy street, which divides the parks. No autos will be allowed in this street.

In the past boys have made unnecessary disturbances at the concerts and complaints have been made to the police. Chief Hitson has asked the papers to announce to the parents that this must cease and that further trouble will cause the arrest of the offenders and a trial before the juvenile court.

To Regulate jitneys

The overloading of jitneys was the source of several communications to the council. One stated that fourteen passengers beside the driver rode in a Ford to Ashland.

The council decided to ask the county court and the cities of Talent, Phoenix and Ashland to co-operate with Medford in regulating the number of passengers, time of arrival and departure. A city license will also be imposed in the near future.

The usual monthly bills and transfers were paid and made.

The council was delayed for twenty minutes last evening waiting for a quorum. Councilman Hargrave is in in Portland, Amy was out of town and Dr. Emmons on a call.

GERMANS INSIST WARSPITE SUNK

BERLIN, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville).—The assertion that the British dreadnaught Warspite was sunk in the North sea battle last week is again made, notwithstanding British denials, in dispatches from Diehl to the Overseas News agency.

"These dispatches state that the Warspite was sunk during the day battle by the German battleship Koenig," the news agency says. "It was observed from the Koenig that the Warspite had been damaged badly. Then there came a great explosion and the Warspite sank rapidly."

REPUBLICANS HEAR KEYNOTE SPEECH OPEN CONVENTION

adjourned the resolutions committee met to hold public hearings and the other committees scattered over the city.

A meeting of the committee on permanent organization was called for 4 o'clock and it was understood that the committee would report a recommendation that the temporary officers of the convention be made permanent.

The convention call was read by Secretary Reynolds.

Murray Crane of Massachusetts, Senator Borah of Idaho and W. B. McKinley of Illinois were selected to escort Mr. Harding to the platform.

Chairman Hillis presented him in a few words. Mr. Harding bowed and smiled and plunged into his prepared speech, reading from manuscript.

Organization Completed

The recommendations for temporary officers were then read.

Former Governor Eberhardt of Minnesota moved that the recommendations be adopted. Chairman Harding put the question. There was no opposition.

Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island offered the rules of the convention of 1908 and moved their adoption until permanent organization. There was no dissenting vote. There were no rules adopted in the 1912 convention.

Senator Simot of Utah was recognized to offer the resolution to create the committee on credentials. It also was adopted.

Then John S. Fisher of Pennsylvania was recognized to present a resolution for permanent organization. There was no opposition to that. National Committeeman Warren of Michigan presented the rules resolution. That, too, was adopted without dissent.

The platform resolution ended the routine business and the secretary called the roll of states and the selections to the committees were announced.

Nominations Friday

Some of the republican leaders felt today that their convention might not proceed to nominations before Friday and even later if prospects of harmony develop at the last moment. The favorite sons were considering the question of holding their own supporters if the nomination were to be delayed beyond the time originally planned. Most of the republicans have agreed that a presidential candidate would be nominated Friday, but some predict it will be Saturday, and there are others who feel that the prospects of peace negotiations at the eleventh hour might even throw the convention over into next week.

If there was any change at all in the lineup over night it showed an increase in strength of Hughes. For the most part the figures of the managers of favorite son booms were not changed.

There was not a sign of a demonstration or a band playing until an hour before the time of assembly. Lack of demonstration has been one of the unique features of this convention period. A cold rain continued to sweep the city. Delegates were a sorry, soaked and bedraggled looking lot as they marched in.

AT ALL STAGES OF LIFE

The Woman's Medicine, Good for All Ages. Mrs. Harold Smith's Experience.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—"I am writing to tell you the good your medicine has always done me and I hope my letter may be the means of helping some other suffering woman. When I was 16 years old I caught cold and had suppression for two months. I got so weak I could scarcely drag myself up the stairs. I went to two doctors, then my mother got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. I never had any more trouble and got strong fast. Then I took it again before my little girl was born and it helped me a good deal and I give the Compound the credit for it. Then this spring I felt very badly again, but I took the Compound and have been well all summer. I cannot be grateful enough for your medicine."—Mrs. HAROLD M. SMITH, 470 Water Street, Clarksburg, W. Va.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, and curing backache, nervousness, uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

ROBBINS PLEADS FOR ROOSEVELT AS HARMONIZER

CHICAGO, June 7.—Chairman Raymond Robbins' speech as chairman of the progressive convention was in part as follows:

"Times of stress and ferment bring tribulation to the weak and opportunity to the strong. The souls of timid men are vexed and the hearts of the valiant are uplifted. Four years ago brave deeds were done in Chicago. From every section of this country there gathered here men of leadership and character disregarding the ties and associations of a lifetime, even of generations, willing to sacrifice power and influence and friendships, the profit of lives of industry and honor in order that they might unite with their fellows in a spirit to bring a new force, a new impulse, a new hope into American politics. They enlisted for public service behind the bravest and wisest leader of the people in our time, behind the foremost private citizen of the world—Theodore Roosevelt.

Age of Individualism

"He pledged his faith and we pledged our to a great cause—a cause older than the pyramids and yet ever new—a cause known by many names. The slave has called it freedom, the political subject has called it self-government, the free man has called it justice. But since the beginning of the world men have fought for these principles as means to this end—that in his life each man may realize the best that is in him and pass on a richer inheritance than has been his to a better breed of men. And so out of the long struggle came the great individualists who have dominated the recent centuries, the strong men who took into their hands the destinies of their fellows, who conquered warring tribes and petty nations and welded them into great peaceful empires; who drove highways through the wildernesses and transformed the waste places into civilized communities, who built huge cities and bound the world together with copper wires and iron rails.

"It would be easy to denounce the present administration and the failures of the democratic party to serve the national welfare and the international obligations of America. Criticism and denunciation are the commonplace of political controversy. But we believe this hour is worthy of a nobler purpose and of a better method.

Plea for Party Union

We remember that there have been deeper problems and perplexities presented to our government in the past two years than at any time for half a century, and that they were presented to men for the most part ill-prepared in training or skill for such responsibility. Some of the responsibility for their errors is upon us all. It is for us to see that the future shall be better than the past and it is in that spirit rather than in one of partisan criticism that we approach the duties which lie before us.

"The nation waits for that leadership to come out of the Chicago conventions which will restore to ourselves and to the people of other nations that respect for the American government which is essential to the well-being of a nation. It is no time for a divided opposition. It is no time for one party to offer to the other a partisan choice. It is a time when wise leaders will listen to the voices of the nation to choose their nominee. And those voices now repeat one name. If there was ever a call of the people it is sounding now."

The mercury rose to 84 degrees this afternoon at 1 o'clock, the hottest day of the season to date. A continuation of the present weather is the prediction of the weather bureau. It is welcomed by farmers with hay in the field.
