

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Louise Stuart arrived this morning to visit friends in Lake Creek.

Weston Camera Shop for first-class kodak finishing and kodak supplies.

B. E. Loomis of Aberdeen, Wash., who has been prospecting on the Little Applegate, left for Gold Hill last evening.

De Voe gives trading stamps with everything except groceries.

Robert B. Baird of Denver is spending a few days in Medford.

Get your milk, cream, butter, eggs and buttermilk at De Voe's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hillman of Bala, are visiting in this city.

Typewriter paper of all kinds at Medford Printing Co.

Rose vandals are cutting rose bushes and destroying the trees in the parkings.

Three feet in length were cut and left on the lawn. One stem held eight buds.

People who own flowers state they will give roses to those who desire them, but object to the destruction of the bushes.

The world's greatest companies, Holmes, The Insurance Man.

Postmaster Ralph Woodford returned Wednesday evening from a trip through northern Oregon cities.

Try a King Spitz cigar and encourage home industry.

Miss Nellie Storey, who has been teaching at Agate, is spending the summer at La Grande.

Postage stamps at De Voe's.

Mrs. Louis Bennett, formerly of this city, writes that Bend is as lively as Medford in 1916.

Houses are being rushed to completion, but the supply does not equal the demand.

Baths, 25c. Hotel Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Byers, of Kansas City, arrived Thursday evening and will stay in this city for a few days.

See Dave Woods about that fire insurance policy. Office Mail Tribune Bldg.

The U. S. Civil Service commission announces that an elevator conductor examination will be held at Medford, Oregon, on July 1, 1916, to fill a vacancy in the position of elevator conductor, $660 per annum, in the custodian service, federal building, Medford, Ore. Age limits are 20 to 50 years.

Application blank and further information may be obtained from the local secretary, board of civil service examiners, at the Medford, Ore., postoffice, or from the secretary, eleventh civil service district, 503 Post Office Building, Seattle, Wash.

Smoke a King Spitz cigar, 5c. They are home-made.

Fulton Smith, who was convicted recently for non-support of a child born out of wedlock, and was to be sentenced Wednesday, has disappeared. His bail of $250 is declared forfeited and the police of the neighboring states are on the lookout for him. When apprehended his sentence will be increased for this act.

De Voe buys beer bottles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Disham, of Walla Walla, left for Eagle Point today. Mr. Disham is in the horse buying business.

Gates sells Ford cars, $200 down and $25 a month.

J. A. Farthing, of Stockton, passed through with his family today in an Oakland car on his way to Walla Walla. They will return to California by eastern Oregon, spending several weeks in Bend.

Buttermilk 1c quart at De Voe's.

The Geizilles will climb Ashland peak on June 18th. They will leave Medford Saturday, June 17, at 4 and camp at Lona's cabin. The peak is 7029 feet in height. Ashland peak is 14 miles south of Ashland. The journey will be more than 63 miles for the round trip.

Pig 5c milkshakes at De Voe's.

About 20 cars will go to Ashland to take in the pageant, "The Heart of the World," at the Ashland park tonight.

For rent, 2-room furnished house, C. A. DeVoe.

Mrs. Leimaster Price Brown of Central Point is in Medford for a few days before she leaves for Crescent City, where she will spend the summer.

Buttermilk 10c gal at De Voe's.

Geo. Gates who has been attending the anniversary returned Thursday evening.

Dr. Kiechgesner will be at Hotel Nash every Wednesday. Hours for consultation 10 to 2.

E. S. Gager was arrested this morning for possessing gas stove attachments without a license and was fined $5.00.

Whipping cream at DeVoe's.

R. B. Miller, of Twombly Brothers company, arrived in the city this morning, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. M. W. Miller, who will visit here for several days. Mr. Miller says that Judie Twombly and son, Robert, are at Billings, Mont., at this time, but that they are expected to arrive in Portland within a few days.

Grants Pass Courier.

Every time the pageant date is set the weather grows colder or it rains.

The weather is fine and the roads grand, so don't forget to attend the pavilion dance at Gold Hill Saturday night. First class music and a royal good time.

R. B. Turner, receiver of the local United States land office, left here on train No. 16 last evening for St. Louis and other eastern and southern states, where he will spend several weeks. Before returning home he will attend the democratic national convention. He is a delegate from this district and is pledged to support Woodrow Wilson.—Roseburg Review.

Dr. E. R. Seeley will return from Portland Saturday. He is attending a clinic of surgeons today.

James Vance will arrive Sunday morning. He has been attending the university at Eugene.

The railroad to the Blue Ledge is Medford's opportunity. Remember an opportunity knocks once at every man's door. Better be at home when the lady calls. Phone 216, Butterfield's Grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walker are in Portland this week. They will return Sunday in a new Chalmers.

A. D. Hiffie of New Orleans is a business visitor in Medford.

Mrs. E. R. Seeley, who has been spending a few days in Portland visiting with eastern Oregon friends returned this morning to attend the pageant at Ashland. She is one of the east.

Mrs. Ted Perry of Phoenix was shopping in Medford Thursday.

R. E. Cavanaugh of Edgewood, Calif., is spending a few days in this vicinity.

Gold Hill's baseball team was defeated Sunday by Glendale, the score being 9 to 6. The game was lost by a dropped throw to the plate, allowing Glendale to score six tallies.

Caster of Medford pitched for Gold Hill, but hurt his arm while warming up. At that he nearly won his game by hard hitting, getting five hits in five times at bat. He allowed nine hits, while Gold Hill gathered twelve.

F. E. Nichols of Portland and G. M. Gillbank of Missoula, Mont., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown. They will locate here.

The railroad to the Blue Ledge is Medford's opportunity. Remember an opportunity knocks once at every man's door. Better be at home when the lady calls. Phone 216, Butterfield's Grocery.

Mrs. M. Frisch of Santa Barbara is visiting in Medford.

Arthur Brown arrived Thursday from Eugene to visit his family for a few days.

The Holler eight made its first appearance in Medford Friday morning. The car is owned by V. R. Rucker, of Edgewood, Calif., who drove it from there to this city. He will spend a few weeks in this valley.

The car is the lowest geared eight on the market, can start on high and throttle to one-half mile per hour and a maximum of 60 miles. From 15 to 18 miles can be made on a gallon of gas and 500 miles on a gallon of oil.

H. B. Patterson and Edw. Souther returned Thursday evening from a three weeks business trip thru the Sacramento valley. Mr. Patterson reports that there is an overwhelming sentiment in that section for Wilson for president, and that he was surprised at the unanimity of farmers and stockmen for the democratic standard bearer.

W. R. Brower, editor of the Rogue River Argus, is spending the day in Medford attending to business matters.

Martin Reddy, who has been ill for a couple of years, is now improving rapidly, and is able to be down town every day.

Mrs. Phyle Keith, who has been visiting the family of H. D. McBride in this city for the last eight months left Thursday for her home in San Diego, Cal.

James Ingalls, of Corvallis, is among the out of town visitors in the city this week.

J. H. Carleton, of Central Point, spent Friday in Medford attending to business matters.

The Sunset Magazine for June contains pictures of Crater Lake in an article entitled "Our National Parks—A Seven Reel Feature," also an article upon Will G. Steel, superintendent of the park.

Don Rader, of this city, who is a member of the Vernon team of the Coast league, is now playing second base for that team, the regular holder of the keystone being off color in his work.

T. F. Cuginer, of Yreka, Cal., is attending to business matters in this city this week.

James Henderson, of Eugene, is among the out of town visitors in the city this week.

M. A. Rader has growing in his back yard a thornless rose, one of the plant creations of Luther Burbank. It has a large red blossom, and is very fragrant.

George Wheeler, of Dunsmuir, California, is visiting friends and relatives in this city this week.

John Harkins, of Grants Pass, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends and relatives.

C. F. Nutting and wife of Grants Pass spent Thursday afternoon in Medford en route to Los Angeles, where they will visit friends.

W. C. Larned and R. D. Hoke, of the Rogue River Valley Cannery, returned Thursday evening from a four days trip to Klamath county.

Thursday afternoon the ranch pole of a wagon, belonging to a farmer broke on Main street, causing a mix-up. The farmer tied his team to an electric light post, while shopping. The horses were gentle and did not try to run away.

George Launsbach, of Jacksonville, spent Thursday in Medford on business.

W. L. Farritt, of Alameda, Cal., is among the out of town visitors in the city this week.

Charles Evans of Tonaph, Nev., is spending a few days in the city and valley inspecting mining conditions.

Practically every idle man in the city is at work due to orchard and farm activity, the orchardists being busy spraying and thinning and the farmers cutting hay. The wage is from $1.75 to $2 per day. All of the idle teams in the city, and many from the county are at work on the resurfacing of the Jacksonville road.

Frank Hyles of Jacksonville spent Friday morning in Medford attending to business.

Roger S. Bennett is visiting friends and relatives and attending the rose show in Portland this week.

The Buckeye club will meet at the public library this evening at 7:30 sharp. All members should attend.

A. J. Hill, general manager of the Warren Construction company, returned to Portland Thursday after visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Hill.

Wood and steel filing systems for every purpose. We help you start the proper system. Medford Book Store.

Frank Melons of Portland, is visiting with friends on Little Applegate.

L. R. Roberts, of Seattle, motored through today on his way to San Diego.

The new Autographic Brownie Kodaks. New models are wonders. Medford Book Store.

Miss Beaula Roselyn of Aberdeen is visiting in Medford today.

H. H. Corliss and son of Phoenix are in Medford today.

Mrs. T. E. McAllister of Eagle Point returned from Portland today.

Mrs. James B. Gordon of Little Shasta stopped over today to visit friends. She will go on to Portland to see the festival.

Howard Lockwood Star theater tonight.

L. T. Moorehouse of Santa Rosa, a hop dealer of that district, is looking over the valley in regards to the growing of hops here. He spent several weeks in the Willamette valley.

Geo. McGuin of Kelso, Washington, arrived today to spend the summer prospecting.

Fire Chief Lawton and daughter who left Thursday on a horseback trip to Klamath Falls were forced to turn back, on account of eight feet of snow between Fish Lake and Four Mile lake.

Harold Lockwood Star theater tonight.

The pageant at Ashland will be begun at 8 o'clock. Cars leave Medford at 7 p. m.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

WANTED—Experienced thinner at Geo. Marshall Orchard, South Oakland. Phone 115-J. 70*

AMUSEMENTS

PICTURE PLAYS designed to expel dull care, tempered with entrancing music.

NOW PLAYING TODAY... TOMORROW

---great comedy bill

Filled with CONTINUOUS FUN and GOOD HUMOR.

Douglas Fairbanks

Metropolitan Star at his happiest in the fast moving, clever comedy drama

His Picture in the Paper

Pet Prindle, son of Proteus, maker of the 27 varieties, to win his sweetheart and half his father's fortune, must get his picture on the front page. The exciting adventures of this genial personalf his father's fortune, must spasm of airth.

---AND---

The Famed Willie Collier in the Perfect Keystone "Better Late Than Never"

DOD'NT! Forget your program card No. tomorrow night

PAGE

MEDFORD'S Leading Motion Picture Theater

COOL—COMFORTABLE—WELL VENTILATED

BIG CROWDS ATTENDING THE GREAT SALE

And why shouldn't they? Satisfied customers have advertised it from the start. The bargains now are even greater than at the beginning as many lines have been further cut from time to time. Many lines are cut to one-half price and less.

HOSE

- Ladies' 25c Armor Plate Hose, in black, several weights 19c
Ladies' 50c Armor Plate Hose, deep ribbed top 29c
Ladies' 75c Armor Plate Silk Lisle Hose for 49c
Ladies' $1.25 and $1.50 Armor Plate Silk Hose, tan and black 89c

GLOVES

- Niagara Maid 2-Button Double Tipped Silk Gloves, all colors 44c
Niagara Maid 2-Button Silk Gloves, $1.00 value 79c
Niagara Maid Long Silk Gloves, 89c, 98c and 1.48

Dolls and Parasols

- DOLLS—DOLLS—DOLLS
35c Character Dolls 23c
75c Character Dolls 42c
$1.25 and $1.50 Character and Dutch Dolls, also Cowboy Dolls 98c
PARASOLS—PARASOLS—PARASOLS
All Parasols at big bargains, 79c to $1.89

Muslin Underwear at Bargain Prices.

Middies, yes, Jack Tar Middies every one, at special prices 98c, $1.19 and $1.49

Immense bargains in Shirtwaists, full tables, at 98c, $1.98, $2.98, $3.98

Tonight Only THE LURE of THE MASK

A masterpiece featuring ELSON JANE WILSON and HAROLD LOCKWOOD.

Oh! Oh! Oh! HENRY!

A unique two-reel comedy.

COMING—Fanny Ward in "Tomorrow's Partner," TOMORROW.

John Barrymore Sunday and Monday, the Yodler (in person).

Monday—Gertrude Farrar in "Temptation"

Three guaranteed attractions will worth twice the admission.

TWO TRIPS DAILY

---BETWEEN---

MEDFORD and EAGLE POINT

S. H. Barnish's auto will leave Eagle Point at 8 A. M. and 1 P. M. daily, except Sunday, leave Medford 9 A. M. and 1 P. M. Will call for passengers at hotels in Medford and hotels and business houses in Eagle Point.

PHONE 3-X2 OR 3-X3.

Suit Values to $35 $14.98

Suit Values to $25 $9.98

Suit Values to $47.50 $19.98

Silk Dresses Vals. to $30 $9.89

$5 and $6 Trim'd Hats $1.98

Every day your chances are less in getting exactly what you want, but the stock is remarkably complete as yet. Some new lines have come in that were ordered early which are added to this sale.

Remember all high grade Suits, including Taffetas, Gros de Londre and all wool suits, vals. to $47.50, now $19.98

Think of it—being able to choose from this showing of Silk Dresses, beautiful dressy models, values up to $40, now $22.89

This is an opportunity that hasn't presented itself to you for a long time, to be able to pick from such a stock as this at such remarkable prices, and then on a rising market, but go it must.

All Millinery at tremendous bargains

The Daylight Store

On the Corner as You Go to the New Postoffice