WASHINGTON, June 10.—Justice Hughes late today sent a telegram to Chairman Harding of the republican national convention finally accepting the republican nomination for the presidency.

Justice Hughes' letter of resignation said:
"I have not desired the nomination. I have wished to remain on our bench. But in this critical period of our national history I recognize that it is my paramount duty to respond. You speak at a time of national exigency transcending merely partisan considerations. You voice the demand for a dominant, thorough-going Americanism with firm, protective, unbuilding policies essential to our peace and security, and to that call in this crisis I cannot fail to answer with the pledge of all that is in me to the service of the country. Therefore, I accept the nomination."
"I cannot within the limits of the statement speak on all the subjects which will require attention. I can only say that I fully endorse the platform you have adopted."

T. R. REFUSES LEADERSHIP BULL MOOSE

Roosevelt Wires Progressive Convention That He Is Grateful for Honor Conferred Upon Him, But That He Cannot Accept It At This Time—Must Find Out What Hughes' Attitude Is on National Subjects Before Acceptance.

AUDITORIUM HALL, CHICAGO, June 10.—Colonel Roosevelt's answer to the progressive convention follows:
"To the Progressive Convention:
"I am very grateful for the honor you confer upon me by nominating me as president. I cannot accept it at this time. I do not know the attitude of the candidate of the republican party toward the vital questions of the day. Therefore, if you desire an immediate decision I must decline the nomination, but if you prefer it, I suggest that my conditional refusal be placed in the hands of the progressive national committee."
"If Mr. Hughes states when he makes them shall satisfy the committee that it is for the interest of the country that he be elected, they can act accordingly and treat my refusal as definitely accepted. If they are not satisfied they can so notify the progressive party and at the same time they can confer with me and then determine on whatever action we may severally deem appropriate to meet the needs of the country."
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
Convention accepted Roosevelt's letter and adjourned sine die.

OYSTER BAY, June 10.—Colonel Roosevelt declined to accept any offer to have the statement of Mr. Hughes phoned to him to Sagamore Hill. He said he would send his daughter, Mrs. William Derby, for the statement. He declined to see newspaper men meantime, but made an appointment for them at 6 o'clock this evening.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Colonel Roosevelt advised George W. Perkins, Governor Hiram Johnson and others in conference at progressive headquarters this afternoon that for the present he would hold in abeyance his decision as to accepting the progressive nomination. The colonel was preparing a statement to be read later at the convention.

Colonel Roosevelt, it was understood, took the position that if he finally found it inadvisable to run, the national progressive committee would be compelled to fill the vacancy on the ticket. It was understood the colonel said he would give careful consideration to the nomination and all reports on the situation.

The message from Colonel Roosevelt did not specifically ask the progressive convention to reconsider its action in nominating him, it was authoritatively stated, but merely put it up to the convention. Leaders were asked whether the message would require further action by the convention.

ROOSEVELT AND PARKER NOMINATED

Progressive Convention Still Loyal to Bull Moose Leader, Names Him Again as Candidate for Presidency—Captain John M. Parker of Louisiana Accepts Nomination for the Vice-Presidency, Hiram Johnson Declining Honor.

AUDITORIUM, June 10.—At the very moment when it was flashed to the progressive convention that Hughes had been nominated at the Coliseum as the standard bearer of the republican party, Chairman Robins of the progressive convention was announcing that Colonel Roosevelt had been unanimously nominated as the progressive leader. The convention went wild and there was no way to inform the delegate what had taken place at the Coliseum. For several minutes Chairman Robins vainly rapped for order.

Five minutes passed before order was restored and James A. Garfield of Ohio, without telling the delegates that Hughes had been named at the Coliseum, asked for a recess to 3 p. m., after singing one verse of "America."
"No, no," yelled the delegates, but Chairman Robins said the time asked for was necessary and finally the delegates yielded and the delegates began to file out at 12:42 to return again at 3 o'clock p. m.

Adjournment Taken
Before this action was taken Mr. Robins had mentioned the necessity of nominating a vice president. "Johnson is the man," was the shout that came from the floor, showing that the desire of the party was almost unanimously for their 1912 standard bearer—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt of New York and Governor Hiram Johnson of California.

Senator Smoot's proposal that the progressives endorse Hughes as a compromise candidate was tabled.
The national progressive committee was authorized to fill any vacancies that may appear on the progressive national ticket.
