A pretty church wedding took place at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, when Grace, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Fleming, became the bride of George C. Spiekerman of The Dalles, Or. The church was artistically decorated with ivy and pink and white roses by the Astoria Sunday school class, of which the bride was a member. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Venita Hamilton played soft music interspersed with solos, "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," sung by Ernest Maddox with Mrs. Cullers at the piano, and "I Love You Truly," by Miss Grace Bratney, accompanied by Miss Berna Roberts. At 8:30 the bridal party entered the church to the strain of Lohengrin's "Wedding March," played by Miss Venita Hamilton. The head ushers, Messrs. H. C. Gernett and D. Wallace, stood at the door holding white ribbons, through which the bridal procession passed to the altar. The ushers, Edward Russell and Lester Wilcox, led the procession, followed by Fay Garnett as the ring-bearer and Mrs. Edward Russell, sister of the bride, as matron of honor. These were succeeded by four little flower girls, Joyce Maddox, Ellen and Grace Renshaw and Alta Gornett, carrying pink and white roses and being driven with white ribbons by Miss Juanita Christens, the bridesmaid. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. At the altar they were met by the groom and the best man, Andrew A. Stumpf. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick W. Carstensen, pastor of the Baptist church. The bride wore a gown of marquisette over ivory white tulle trimmed with pearls. Her bridal veil was caught with white rosebuds and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Edward Russell, a bride of last September, wore her own wedding dress of white crepe de meteor and Chantilly lace and pearls. The bridesmaid was lovely in a gown of white organdy with pink girdle and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The little flower girls and ring-bearer were charming in their white frocks and ribbons. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party and immediate friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was given them. Mr. and Mrs. Spiekerman will leave soon for The Dalles, where they will make their home. They will visit in Portland and Camas.

Mrs. J. E. Scantlin entertained with a birthday party for Lindie Scantlin Thursday evening at their home on North Orange street. The evening was spent with games and music, after which refreshments were served. The guests present were: Miss Hazel Antle, Elizabeth Hill, Frances Perry, Wilna Harrison, Juanita Crawford and Brown Pardin; Messrs. Donald Runyard, Bob Fields, Hubert Schenck, Earl York, Woodford Harrison and Lindie Scantlin.

Mrs. C. S. Butterfield and Mrs. P. Roberts will entertain the members of the Octette club and their husbands at the home of Mrs. Roberts on Peach street, this evening with four tables of bridge. Olive Rebekah lodge, No. 28, entertained and was entertained by about forty of Ashland Rebekahs Tuesday evening, June 6. J. Benner and W. Ussher had charge of the evening's program. The Rebekah litha troupe put on a playlet entitled, "The Only Young Man in Town." Needless to say, all the parts were well taken. Mr. Ussher's friends seemed quite surprised that he objected to being "the only young man in town." A reading, "The Twins," by Mr. Campbell, "Diek Posey," brought sighs and laughter from the audience. In response to an encore, he gave, "Soliloquy of a Small Boy on His Father's Farming." Miss Wilson of Ashland delighted the audience with her whistling and kindly responded to an encore. Interesting reports were given by Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Turner, delegates to the Rebekah convention. Mrs. Watkins and Mr. Denner gave some of their experiences at the convention. At close of the program an invitation was extended for all to fall in line for a march to the banquet room, where delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Denner and her able assistants. After lunch dancing and a social time closed a very pleasant evening.

At her beautiful home on South Oakdale, Mrs. Delroy Getchell entertained at an afternoon tea Friday, honoring Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons of Seattle.
