CANNERS OFFER FIVE-YEAR CONTRACT FOR PEAR CROP

Libby, McNeil & Libby, the largest canners in the world, who contemplate erecting a large cannery at Medford next season, are anxious to ascertain the pear average they can secure on five-year contracts at $30 per ton, including everything 2 1/4 inches in diameter and above.

It is too late to erect the cannery this season, and this year's crop would be shipped to California for canning, and the factory be erected in time for next season's output.

Orchardists willing to offer average are requested to sign up at the Commercial club building, upon the agreement that the company erect the cannery next year. Speedy action is desired, and fruitgrowers are requested to act the first of the week.

FAIRBANKS-COLLIER BILL AT PAGE TONIGHT

"His Picture in the Papers," a five reel Fine Art play which opened at the Page yesterday, is a delightful comedy and nicely balanced, though it would be difficult to find an actor who could successfully carry the leading role as does Douglas Fairbanks. His personality is so all-pervading that he is like the sun when it rises in a sky of morning stars, the light by which some of them glow, the light which causes them all to fade. He is apparently in a class all by himself, at once an athlete of resource and during, and a subtle interpreter of the amusing side of human nature as revealed in everyday experience by plain ordinary man attempting to be a god.

The play not only affords him just the sort of opportunity that suits his qualification, but it is highly ingenious, cleverly constructed and a work of art in itself.

Willie Collier, another famed comedian, never appeared to happier advantage than that of the art student in the screaming Triangle-Keystone farce, "Better Late Than Never." This great comedy bill, filled with continuous fun and good humor, repeated again tonight.

STEAM ROLLER OF G. O. P. MACHINE FLATTENS GREER

The steam-roller of the G. O. P. county machine smashed along merrily over the prostrate forms of the insurgents and incidentally flattened out the aspirations of Editor Bert R. Greer of Ashland Tidings, at the first meeting of the new county central committee Friday. A determined effort to defeat the old committee at the primaries failed, and a guerrilla rally organized by the sometime prohibition, sometime democrat, sometime bull moose and sometime republican Ashland editor failed to capture the goats of Chairman Bert Anderson and State Committeeman S. S. Smith, both of whom won out in the primaries and in the committee by a vote of two to one.

There was a good attendance of committeemen, thirty-eight being present, and proxies represented ten more, which were allowed a vote. The following officers were elected: County chairman, Bert Anderson; secretary, Ralph Bardwell; treasurer, J. O. Isanenson.

Executive committee—O. C. Boggs, P. W. Hollis, C. D. Hoan, Medford; T. H. Simpson, Fred P. Holmes, Ashland; A. J. Smith, Gold Hill; D. W. Bagshaw, Jacksonville; R. E. Robinson, Talent; W. S. Hammond, Griffin Creek.

State committeeman, S. S. Smith of Medford.

Congressional committeeman, C. B. Lamkin of Ashland.

The members of the executive committee are to be vice-chairmen, excepting in Medford and Ashland, where one member from each place is to be chosen by the other members.

Speeches were made by Candidates Roberts, Wilson, Gardner and Greer.

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MUSIC STUDENTS

Mrs. Irene Isaacs announces that she is organizing classes of five or six pupils at 15 cents an hour. Each pupil will receive a certain amount of individual piano instruction from which the other members of the class will profit. Rudimental harmony ear training and sight-reading will also be included. In this way the pupil will get a thorough and general knowledge of music and may ascertain whether he or she has sufficient talent to justify private training.

Class lessons stimulate interest and encourage the pupil in more conscientious home practice, thereby relieving the parents of much responsibility.

This class system is employed in the large conservatories of both Europe and America. Classes now organized. Those desiring to join may apply to Mrs. Isaacs for lessons or further information at her studio in Herben Apartments, corner West Main and Quince streets. Phone 84.

GRANTS PASS TO PLAY MEDFORD HERE SUNDAY

Grants Pass will play Medford in this city tomorrow afternoon in what promises to be one of the best ball games of the season and before what the ball management hopes will be the best attendance of the year. So far Medford fans have been more interested in the weather and Ashland park than in the ball team, and it is earnestly prayed they will rouse from their coma and be present in the flesh.

Despite the lukewarmness of the fans, the team is at a higher pitch than ever before, the infield being the best in the history of the city, with Wilson on first, Miles on second, Scholtz at short and Moran at third. The gentlemen, besides being able to stop the ball, are all hitting.

Medley or Biss Caster will pitch for Medford. All of the ten have been practicing faithfully this week.

The Grants Pass team has been strengthened for the game tomorrow, and will be accompanied by a large delegation of rooters. A week from Sunday Medford will play Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls, and the week after that team will play in this city. Then will come the big games of the year—Medford vs. Weed at Ashland during the Fourth of July celebration.

FANNIE WARD AT STAR THEATRE TODAY

Fannie Ward, the distinguished Lasky star, has proven herself to be one of the most versatile actresses on the stage or screen. In "Tennessee's Pardner," her third appearance under the direction of the Lasky company, she is seen in the title role, that of a girl of 16 in the early days of California and those who have had the pleasure of witnessing the presentation of this splendid picture, all assert that it is the best work Miss Ward has yet done.

Her instinctive love for her unrecognized mother and her broken-hearted attitude at the absence of her "daddy" when she has traveled all the way to Sandy Bar to see him for the first time in her life, are but some of the gripping moments in this famous play.

This special production will be offering at the Star theatre today only.
