RUSSEL SMITH WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

PORTLAND, June 12 - Russell Smith won the state golf championabip of Oregon Saturday, by defeating the 1915 title balder, Rudolph Wilhelm, 3 up and 3 to play. Small shot a 77 in the worning and a 74 in the afternoon, to Wilhelm's 77 and 78: Wilhelm sunk puts of forty and fifty-live feet respectively in the ferencen, but his putting was off in the afternoon and failure to sink several four and five foot putts and Smith's phenominal work on the greens cost Wilhelm his title. Wilbelon again duplicated his feet of driving a 570 rand hole in two, his tee shot mains approximately 240 xards in position for an iron on his
