INSIDE DEAL GIVEN BY J. P. MORGAN, JR.

NEW YORK, June 16.—"Inside" financial history was revealed by J. P. Morgan when he took the witness stand today before the Thompson legislative investigating committee and told of the relations of his banking house with the International Rapid Transit Company, in connection with the building of New York's subway system.

The witness was "questioned" closely as to the services for which his house was paid $500,000 by the Rapid Transit Company. After a clash with Frank B. Moss, counsel for the committee in which the financier declared heatedly that the questions asked him were insulting, he told of the advice given the corporation.

Half of the $500,000 Mr. Morgan said was paid, his company after almost daily conferences with Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Company, for watchful supervision of propositions made the company with suggestions to the Interborough officials as to how to frame their proposals to the city; what to include and what to reject, and numerous conferences with city officials.

"So you got this $250,000 just for talking to Mr. Shonts" asked Mr. Moss.

"Yes sir, and it was well worth it," replied Mr. Morgan.

Asked to be more specific as to what services he had rendered, Mr. Morgan said he had told Mr. Shonts how to convince the city officials the Interborough could obtain the money needed to build the subways and thus guarantee that their plans would be carried out.

"But I want you to tell just what you did for this money," persisted Mr. Moss.

"In your suggestions to Mr. Shonts, how much did you charge him, say, for advising him to go and see the mayor?"

"I won't stand this," asserted Mr. Morgan angrily. "You are insulting. You seem to intimate in your sug-

LAST MOMENTS OF EARL KITCHENER DESCRIBED

LONDON, June 16.—Details of some of the incidents on board the British Cruiser Hampshire just before she sank off the Orkneys last week, causing the death of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, among many others, are given in an official statement, issued tonight, based on statements by the dozen survivors of the cruiser who were washed ashore on a raft.

"From the report of the 12 survivors of the Hampshire," says the statement, "the following conclusions were reached: "As the men were going to their stations before abandoning the ship, Lord Kitchener, accompanied by a naval officer, appeared. The latter said:

"Make way for Lord Kitchener." Both ascended to the quarter deck. Subsequently, four military officers were seen there, walking aft on the port side.

"The captain called Lord Kitchener to the fore bridge near where the captain's boat was hoisted. The captain also called Lord Kitchener to enter the boat. It is not known if Lord Kitchener entered it or what happened to the boat."

DIED

David H. Harrell, aged 75 years, 6 months and 9 days, of Joe Bar, Blue Ledge mining district, died June 16 at the Hotel Nash of dropsy.

Mr. Harrell was brought in Sunday by his sister, Mrs. Martha A. Jones, of Watkins, Ore., who intended to take him to Portland, but the seriousness of his illness prevented the trip.

David Harrell was born in Illinois in 1840, on November 7. He was one of the early pioneers of Oregon, moving here some forty-five years ago. He drove a stage in the northwest. Later he took up the profession of mining and became a firm believer and pioneer of this district. In 1874 he settled at Joe Bar and had lived there ever since. He knew of the copper veins and long before the Blue Ledge was discovered he predicted the discovery of a mother lode.

He had been ill for the past five years, but never lost courage or allowed it to affect his sunny temperament. He was beloved by all who knew him.

He leaves a brother, James Harrell, of Portland, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Walker of Astoria and Mrs. Martha A. Jones of Watkins. The remains will be taken to Portland Friday on the 5:15, where they will be buried.
