

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. T. B. Ellison left this morning for Grants Pass where she will transact business and later proceed to Merlin where she will visit her son.

After visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kirk left this morning for their home in Rogue River.

Weston Camera Shop for first-class kodak finishing and kodak supplies.

John Johnson was an early arrival this morning from the neighborhood of Hoxly Ann. He will proceed to Ashland to spend the day.

Fred Hansen, assistant superintendent of this division of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Roseburg, is in town today.

A breakfast you can afford and be delighted with. Russell's Cafe.

W. C. Miller left for the north last night.

B. W. Campbell, who is reported to have received promotion to the position of assistant general manager of the S. P., will pass through Medford in his private car attached to Number 16 tonight.

De Voe gives trading stamps with everything except groceries.

Bert White, who has been working in Medford for the past six months, left for Creswell today.

Bad Stephenson, bellboy at the Auditorium, left yesterday afternoon upon receipt of a telegram informing him that his brother is seriously ill from blood poisoning at Roseburg. He will return as soon as his brother has improved.

Get your milk, cream, butter, eggs and buttermilk at De Voe's.

E. J. McCray, of Griffin creek, was in town Friday afternoon.

H. J. Eberly, state forest ranger left for Roseburg last night where he will deliver an address before the forestry convention being held in that city. He will return to Medford Sunday.

Typewriter paper of all kinds at Medford Printing Co.

G. A. Godding arrived from Salem yesterday afternoon, intending to settle permanently in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Somers arrived Friday evening and will spend several weeks visiting Medford friends. Mr. Somers was formerly bookkeeper for the Rogue River Fruit and Produce association, but for the last three years has been in the employ of the Globe Consolidated Mining Co. at Dedrick, California.

We make a specialty of picnic parties. Russell's Cafe.

H. H. Bushnell, editor of the Oregon Farmer, left yesterday afternoon for his home in Portland. Mr. Bushnell figured to look Medford over after the close of the Nurserymen's convention.

R. W. Myers and J. M. Cameron left this morning for their homes in Portland after a three day business visit. While here Mr. Myers bought an eighty acre ranch near Central Point.

The world's greatest companion. Holmes, The Insurance Man.

A feature of the Hawaiian dance given by the Alumni association Friday night, was the appearance of the Royal Hawaiian serenaders shortly after eleven o'clock. They sang several numbers and then finished out the last seven numbers on the dance program. According to many of the dancers, they furnished the best music for dancing ever heard in Medford.

Postage stamps at De Voe's.

Word has been received that Mrs. M. P. Schmidt, of 422 South Ivy, is at the Portland Surgical hospital, where she on Wednesday underwent a serious and painful operation, performed by Dr. Coffey. Mr. Schmidt and daughter will continue to remain in Portland until her recovery.

Try a King Spitz cigar and encourage home industry.

The Armpier, Treve Lundgren and Vernon Vacker left this afternoon for Fish Lake. They will spend tomorrow fishing returning tomorrow night.

Big 50 milkshakes at De Voe's.

W. A. Sommer has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Ben Dave Woods about that fire insurance policy. Office Mail Tribune Bldg.

Ed M. Andrews returned this morning from a two week's visit to Marshfield, where in addition to transacting business, he assisted George Wilson of this city in producing an opera for the Marshfield Elks Lodge.

Baths, 25c. Hotel Holland.

Miss Estella Hayes is in town for the day from Ashland.

Chicken pie. Russell's Sunday.

After a three-day visit in Medford looking over property interests, R. C. Kinley left this morning for his home in Lakeport, Cal. Mr. Kinley, who formerly lived in Medford, having left here about a year ago, for Lakeport.

Gates sells Ford cars, $200 down and $25 a month.

Miss Dolphus Hammond, who formerly lived here, and is now a teacher in the Portland City Schools, was met at the train at 10:15 this morning by Medford friends and taken over the highway to Ashland, where she again caught the train for Berkeley.

It improves the soup to throw a little pepper into it; same way with a town. On to the Blue Ledge. Butterfield Grocery. Phone 216.

Attorneys J. W. Trefren and E. D. Briggs of Ashland, spent a few hours in Medford today before proceeding to the county seat on legal business.

Buttermilk 10c gal. at De Voes.

Ole Alendorfer and Don Colvig returned last night from a camping trip at Prospect.

Smoke a King Spitz cigar, 5c. They are home-made.

After a three weeks visit at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. William McKay, Mrs. William Ewart and Miss Edith Ewart left this morning for a visit to California cities and Yellowstone Park before returning to their home in Milwaukee, Wis.

We make a specialty of picnic lunches. Russell's Cafeteria.

B. H. King who has been working in one of the local garages, left this morning for Central Point. Mr. King, who recently came from Modesto, Cal., has purchased the R. A. Sanders property in Central Point.

Whipping cream at DeVoe's.

Mrs. Redna Bohm, mother of Mrs. R. W. Waters, has returned from a two months visit with relatives in Cottage Grove and Drain.

It improves the soup to throw a little pepper into it; same way with a town. On to the Blue Ledge. Butterfield Grocery. Phone 216.

W. D. Yant of Kanes Creek is in town on business today.

From $5,000 to $10,000 to loan on all securities. J. B. Andrews, 210 Garnett-Covey Building.

Walter Brown has remodeled his Auburn into a speedster.

De Voe buys beer bottles.

J. E. Rhoden of the Ashland mine farried in Medford a few hours on his way to Gold Hill.

A breakfast you can afford and be delighted with. Russell's Cafeteria.

L. E. McDonald left this morning for the Rogue Elk Resort of which he is manager.

Window and door screens, garden furniture. Pacific Furn. & Fix. Factory.

According to a letter received by T. E. Daniels this morning from a friend in Los Cruces, New Mexico, the presence of national guardsmen along the border has relieved all uneasiness from the minds of the people concerning further Mexican raids. Los Cruces, which is some ten miles from the border, has its own organization in the shape of a volunteer cavalry company, according to Mr. Daniels, who has several times visited there. This company is organized for the purpose of emergency protection from such raids as have recently occurred across the border.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. will give an ice cream and lemonade social Wednesday afternoon, June 28, in the building formerly occupied by Mac. J.

A party of employees of the Callahan Oregon Power Co., with their families, numbering in all about 10, left this noon in cars for Glendale, where the annual picnic of the C. D. P. Electric Club will be held. Tonight, after a basket dinner, a short program will be given after which the party will retire on beds of fir boughs to be furnished by the committee. Sunday morning will be spent in games and sports followed by a barbecue at noon. The party will break camp and return to Medford at 1:30.

Buttermilk 3c quart at De Voes.

George Butz, Jr., is visiting his parents in Medford. Mr. Butz was formerly clerk of the Hotel Holland and has been, for the past two years, in the hotel business in Honolulu. He will leave Monday for a trip through China and Japan after which he will be in business in Manila, P. I.

For rent, 2-room furnished house. C. A. DeVoe.

An especially fine musical program will be presented by the Vested Choir of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, under the direction of Forrest Edmeades, Sunday evening to which the public is most cordially invited. The regular choir will be assisted by Miss Sadie Lacy, soprano, Mr. George Andrews and Mr. Carlton Jaynes.

Dr. Kichgessner will be at Hotel Nash every Wednesday. Hours for consultation 10 to 2.

Chrysanthemum circle will give a social Tuesday evening to all members and friends. Each person is expected to bring as many pennies as their purse is numbers.

Dr. J. H. Nudding of Brownboro is in Medford today.

A Throckmorton of Ruch is in town on business.

George P. Mims of Seven Oaks is in town for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mansfield and family of Prospect are in town for the day.

During the past week the A. W. Walker Auto Co., have delivered cars to the following persons: Dr. T. G. Helms, Grant six; Dr. Shaw, Yreka Grand six; E. R. Edmond, Ashland, Chalmers; J. E. Patterson, Ashland, Saxon.

Elmo Throckmorton rode in from Applegate this morning.

J. J. Skinner and wife are in town from Griffin Creek.

R. R. Guehas and S. T. Rollins are business visitors from Griffin Creek.

Elmer Leventick and Eugenie Alwood of Tacoma passed through Medford on motorcycles this morning en route to San Francisco. At Frisco they will load their machines on the boat and return by water. They are friends of J. B. Vee, who recently came to Medford from Portland.

W. H. McGowan, past exalted ruler of the local Elk Lodge will leave July first for Birmingham, Ala., as delegate to the Grand Lodge of the order to be held July 10 to 15. Mr. McGowan will stop off to visit his family in his old home, Harrisburg Pennsylvania. From there he will go to New York and take the boat to New Orleans, following the southern rail route back to Medford.

Miss Mabel Macey, a teacher in the Talent schools, leaves tonight for Berkeley, where she will attend the summer normal session of the University of California.

A very appreciative audience was present at the Page last night. The feature attraction being the Royal Hawaiian Serenaders. David Naken, the tenor and Princess Kealoa the famous gala dancer, won a great applause, while Henry Kane was much liked in his eccentric comedy. Dick Reuter with his Ukalee Solo and Bill Aylett the Basso, well deserved the applause. George D. Kulani, the noted baritone made a great hit and John S. Kalamu and Naken, both masters on the steel guitar were much admired. The original Hawaiian Sextette appeared greatly to music lovers and a capacity house is expected again today and tonight.

W. W. Rogan is in town from Berkeley.

J. Swanson of Sunnyside is transacting business in Medford today.

W. V. Crosson is a business visitor from Ashland.

James Griere of Prospect is spending the day in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Nolen arrived in their car from San Francisco this morning. They will spend a week or two looking over the valley and will visit Crater Lake as soon as the road to the rim is open.

BLANCHE SWEET AT STAR THEATER TODAY

Blanche Sweet, the beautiful and popular star of the Lasky company, will be seen at the Star theatre today in the Jesse L. Lasky production of the thrilling drama "The Blacklist," by Marion Fairfax and William C. De Mille, the two noted dramatists who wrote this production especially for Miss Sweet.

In the cast supporting Miss Sweet are such well known players as Charles Clary, Horace B. Carpenter, William Klumer, Jane Wolf, Ernest Joy and other members of the Lasky all star stock company.

BASEBALL STARS FOR SUNDAY GAME

The addition of three imported baseball stars, including Pruitt, who formerly played in the Coast league, to the Gold Hill team assures a close battle in the game between Gold Hill and Medford at the ball park tomorrow afternoon.

Even before the addition of these players, Gold Hill had lost but few games and was conceded to be a strong contender for valley baseball honors. The loss of Coleman, who was injured in practice Thursday night, has to a degree weakened the local team, although McIntyre, who was secured this week from Sison, will fill his place in left field. McIntyre played last season with Wood and Yreka and will make a strong utility man for Medford.

As an added attraction, Cook and Sherman will stage a parachute drop from a high altitude. These men recently appeared at the strawberry festival at Roseburg and will appear at the roundup at Ashland.

The batteries will be: Gold Hill, Pruitt and Edgings; Medford, Sierberts and Forve.

The first of a series of dinner dances which will be given this summer by the Country club was given last Saturday evening at the clubhouse. A very enjoyable evening was spent by the forty-eight present, with dancing and cards.

Why Smoke Bit Cigars When La Gondas are only 10c

Save Your Hair With Newbro's Herpicide. Medford Pharmacy, Special Agents.

PAGE Home of the Big Shows...

LAST TIME TONIGHT

... THE ROYAL ...

Hawaiian Serenaders

Formerly of the Panama-Pacific Exposition

7 SINGERS and DANCERS 7

PLAYERS and SOLOISTS

PRINCESS KEALOHA

In Refined Version of HULA DANCING

DAVID NAKEA

The Sweet-Toned Hawaiian Tenor

HAWAII'S FOREMOST MASTERS

of the Steel Guitar

BE SURE TO SEE

The Most Beautiful Photoplay

"JEWEL" Featuring ELLA HALL

Also FORD STERLING in the Keystone Comedy, "HIS PRIDE AND SHAME"

ADULTS 25c CHILDREN 15c

Special Children's Matinee Today, Children 5c

PAGE SERVICE We are consistently presenting a class and QUALITY of pictures, dramas, comedies, scenes that maintain and constantly increase our prestige and drawing power. TOMORROW we show the best word in Western Drama—a screen production that challenges comparison.

Playing Tomorrow--Monday

The Film Play

New York Critics Went Wild Over

Hell's Hinges

Wm. S. Hart

as

"Blaze"

acknowledged the greatest "Western" ever filmed—wonderful acting—wonderful scenic effects marks this super-feature

PAGE Medford's Leading Motion Picture Theater

REGULAR PRICES

Mat.10c-Night15c-Children5c

and A KLEVER KEYSTONE—a Comedy That's Different

Wife & Auto Troubles

Presenting

WILLIE COLLIER

STAR THEATRE

WHERE THE CROWDS GO

MARGUERITE CLARK in "MIDNIGHT AND MEN," MONDAY ONLY. It's a dandy. We stake our reputation on the coming week's program.

MAY ROBSON in "A NIGHT OUT," TUESDAY ONLY. She appeared in person in Medford a short time ago.

—4900— PERSONS

STAR THEATRE

—4900— PERSONS

Saw "THE STOLEN PIE"

Up to last night. The moving picture comedy made in Medford by local talent, with C. E. Gates, Lowell Zundle and many other local people.

SEE IT NOW OR NEVER, as it will never be shown in Medford again. This is positively your last chance to see it. There will be six other big reels on today's program, including a side-splitting Keystone Comedy and Miss Blanche Sweet in a special booked Paramount production. Everything big but the price. See it now—TODAY.

PARAMOUNT PICTURE TODAY ONLY PARAMOUNT PICTURE

KEYSTONE COMEDY AND THE BIG SHOW FOR LITTLE MONEY

JESSE L. LASKY Presents the Leading Favorite of the Photoplay Drama,

BLANCHE SWEET IN "THE BLACKLIST"

By Marion Fairfax and William C. De Mille.

Is the power of money right? Must labor fight to win the right to work? The spectacular answer to the problem of capital and labor, revealed in this thrilling photoplay of the mines.

C. E. Gates makes his fare-well performance today and night in "The Stolen Pie." The movie made in Medford. See it now, or never.