In last week's issue of this paper you advertised for a servant who could do all the cooking, housecleaning, washing, ironing and sewing—in fact, almost everything that must be done around the house, even including the curling of your hair.

You said that I had to be neat, willing to work and always ready to do as I am told.

Mrs. Thrifty, you can find many servants who have all the qualifications you ask for, BUT, you cannot get them to work for such a small wage as $1.00 to $8.00 a month.

There is only ONE servant I know of who could do it for you at such a trifling cost. I am ready to start work at once and will bring my assistant with me.
