LIGHT VOTE CAST UPON ACCEPTANCE BULLIS CONTRACT

Interest in the election being held today for the purpose of voting on the proposed issuance of $200,000 in bonds for the construction of a railroad to the Blue Lodge mining district and the ratification of the Bullis contract, fell far short of what was anticipated. At two o'clock only 637 votes had been cast, 195 in the first ward, 279 in the second and 172 in the third. Seventy-five voters had registered at that time at the city hall. A reactionary feeling against the measure is noticeable on the streets. Whereas last week no talk was to be heard but the advocates. A large number of voters, convinced of the unfairness of the contract, are campaigning today and endeavoring to swing the tide. Predictions as to the result vary widely. Some boosting for the measure think it will pass by a 5 to 1 vote. Conservatives place the figure at 2 to 1. The heavy vote expected in the late afternoon will tell the tale.

REJECT INCREASED TARIFF PROPOSALS

WASHINGTON, July 10.—On the first vote today on the final stage of consideration of the new revenue bill in the house a republican proposal for substantial increases in dyestuffs duties for the protection of that industry was defeated 145 to 116. Representative Hill declared the democratic tariff gave no protection to indigo dyes and that no investment of capital in that branch of the industry might be expected without it. The house rejected an amendment by Representative Hayden of Arizona to strike out the tax on copper. Nine democrats voted with the republicans to eliminate the tax.

Arrangements are under way for the entertainment of this year's State Editorial Convention, to be held here August 4 and 5. The preliminary announcement, sent out by the association, promises one of the most successful conventions ever held. A trip to Crater Lake in autos, another to the Oregon-California line with a stop at Ashland's fine park, a banquet in Medford and a luncheon by Medford ladies, are numbers on the program. Medford's hotel men have come to the front handsomely by offering free room accommodations to registered guests. The affair promises to be one of the best attended and successful conventions the association has ever held. Jackson county will have an opportunity to show to the editors of the state, who are largely public opinion moulders, the needs of the Siskiyou grade and the road to Crater lake, as well as to send over the state a good impression of our abilities as a host.

HOPE AMERICAN FORCES WILL SOON LEAVE MEXICO

CHIHUAHUA CITY, July 9, via El Paso, July 10.—One thousand cavalry compose the major part of a force under General Mattias Ramos, which has been sent south to end the incipient Villa movement. Pursuit of the Villistas is reported as already having progressed into the Durango mountains. Mexican military officers are expressing hopes that the American troops in Mexico will be withdrawn speedily. They say that when they no longer have to preserve their strategic positions in the north they will be able to transfer troops to the south to be used in the campaign against the bandits. Except in the Chihuahua-Durango boundary district all is quiet. Hilario Rodriguez, one of the chiefs under Canuto Reyes recently granted amnesty, has joined the government forces here with 200 men. General Jacinto Hernandez informed General Trevino that his forces had beaten a band of Villistas in a sharp fight at San Salvador. In this fight the former Villista general, Jose de Jesus Contreras, and his two sons were killed. Colonel Zuaza reports from Nami-quipa that seventeen bandits surrendered to him under an offer of amnesty. Scouts are looking for Villistas near Parral, so General Ernesto Garcia stated, but so far they have not come into contact with them.

FUTURE TRADE DEPENDS ON ACTION NOT ON LEGISLATION

DETROIT, July 10.—What the United States must do to take its share of the world's trade at the end of the European war was outlined to the world's salesmanship congress here today by Secretary Redfield of the commerce department. "The future," he said, "will not be the result of legislation, but of action. American trade missionaries sent forth will go with every resource of science and management at their command. We shall see, no doubt, when the war shall end, and in a measure depending on when that end shall come, an apparent reaction in our foreign trade. The mere recession of prices normal to the coming of peace will affect the volume in dollars of that trade; yet with equal confidence I look for a second reaction upwards in that foreign trade when American industries, conscious of their power, because it rests on searching study, shall send their men abroad in the inspiring contest of brains and character which will wage between nations." Scientific study of markets by the government, American investments abroad and a broader vision at home, Mr. Redfield said, were three things equipping the American business man for foreign trade.

A big theme discussed in the Triangle production—

—Moral Fabric—

You remember "Matri-mony" and its sensational answer, "How to hold a husband." Here's a story bigger in theme—bigger every way. Frank Mills, Edith Reeves and Howard Heckman play leads.

Moral Fabric

Here is a story that is at the outset challenged definitely the so-called advanced thinkers, who declare that one may, with perfect right, defy all laws—and tear aside the "moral fabric" when love calls. The play is unconventional in its swift development and irresistibly to a climax that is truly startling in its dramatic intensity.

It is called the Love Riot and it is a stirring, happy, up-to-the-minute comedy—laugh every minute.
